Robbers On Tv:

Concept TV Luca Bandirali, Enrico Terrone, 2021-11-08 What is a television series A widespread answer takes it to be a totality of episodes and seasons Luca Bandirali and Enrico Terrone argue against this characterization In Concept TV An Aesthetics of Television Series they contend that television series are concepts that manifest themselves through episodes and seasons just as works of conceptual art can manifest themselves through installations or performances In this sense a television series is a conceptual narrative a principle of construction of similar narratives While the film viewer directly appreciates a narrative made of images and sounds the TV viewer relies on images and sounds to grasp the conceptual narrative that they express Here lies the key difference between television and film Reflecting on this difference paves the way for an aesthetics of television series that makes room for their alleged prolixity their tendency to repetition and their lack of narrative closure Bandirali and Terrone shed light on the specific ways in which television series are evaluated arguing that some apparent flaws of them are indeed aesthetic merits when considered from a conceptual perspective Hence to maximize the aesthetic value of television series one should not assess them in the same framework in which films are assessed but rather in a distinct conceptual framework

On the Run - TV's Top Fugitive Hunter Investigates the UK's Worst Unsolved Murders Peter Bleksley, 2018-01-11 TV's top fugitive hunter investigates the UK's worst unsolved murders Roughly ten per cent of all murders in the UK go unsolved Here Britain's top ex undercover cop shines new light on cases up and down the country in search of answers Peter Bleksley's life has been devoted to investigating As an undercover detective for the Metropolitan Police and in his ability to get to the bottom of a case was legendary as he dealt with some of the world's most feared criminals His success rate in solving murders as a serving officer was one hundred per cent Using the investigative skills gained from decades of experience and access to archives and contacts in the force Bleksley shines new light on investigations that ran aground often despite extensive media coverage and police resources Often he discovers glaring errors made by investigators and forensic teams that will shock many of the general public Now a renowned policing and crime expert seen on the BBC and as the Chief on Channel 4's Hunted Bleksley's knowledge and experience is peerless On the Run is a comprehensive and fascinating investigation into murders of the most callous kind finding the human story behind the headlines as he hunts down the killers on the run from justice
