

The Cast

THE CHIEFS

BRUCE RICHARD RICHARDS - Aged 30, London antique dealer. Married to a pretty wife, FRANCES, one child more. Tall, dark and handsome, son of a Trade Union Official, and acknowledged leader of the South West Gang. Still at large and present whereabouts unknown.

DOUGLAS GORDON GOODY - Aged 34, hairdresser of Cammerdale, Putney. Tall, blonde, obviously a "joker", always immaculate, always well dressed. Living at home, was about to marry a pretty little red-head aged 24. PATRICIA GREEN, who also lived at the Goody home.

"BUSTER" EDWARDS (RONALD EDWARDS) - Aged 30, Clubman. Scotch, genial, kindly, has been a boxer in his day, devoted to a very pretty wife, just now by name. One daughter concerned. Very popular with all his friends, less so with the police. Leader of the South East Gang. Still at large. Present whereabouts unknown.

CHARLES FREDERICK WILSON - Aged 31, of Grosvenor Lane, Clapham. A bookmaker and grocer. Dark, good looking and amiable, with a rather attractive smile. A party with PATRICIA and three young daughters, one with a hole in the heart. Made a sensational escape from Winton Green Prison, Birmingham on the 16th August, 1946. Reported that a message he reached his family that they must never see him again: "It's better for all".

THE LABOURERS

JAMES WHITE - Aged 44, café proprietor, 5 ft. 10 in., thin and much nicer looking than the police photograph. Brown-eyed, sometimes with a moustache and married to dark, attractive, sometimes with a moustache and married to dark, attractive, "JESSIE", with a baby boy now 18 months old. In-permanent, very quick-witted and with a great sense of humour. Still at large - but has a wonderful trick of fading into any background.

NEW JUNE JONES - Aged 28, of Noll Gwynn House, Chelsea, London. Blondest. Unmarried but very attractive to women and it is clear that he could have made the grade as a racing man - the ruling passion of his life. Very small, very dark, something of the expression of a real little monkey, rather a bland childlike face.

JAMES HUNTER - Aged 31, of Bridge House, Dog Kennel Hill, East Dulwich. Painter and decorator. Not married. Looks rather heavy and stupid in Court, but this is said to be nervousness. He is very good company and much liked among his friends. Tough in public, he is a genial and considerate son in the home.

ROBERT JAMES CUNNEY - Aged 41, of Hurst Road, East Molesey. A boxer. Married man with four children aged 21, 19, 17 and 4 years. Very satisfactory home conditions (see Biographical Notes). Pleasant but somewhat flat; very prominent forehead, heavy jawline.

THOMAS WILLIAM WILSON - Aged 34. Runs Betting Shop in London. Married man with two children. A private in the Royal Army Service Corps with a good character. Looks a jolly fellow. You would like to buy drinks from him or to get him to do work to your taste. Left-handed.

ROBERT ALAN WILSON - Aged 35. Married man with no children and no more domestic complications. Pale, tense and strained looking. Looks more like a research student than a criminal.

RONALD JAMES BROWN - Aged 34, of Alpine Road, Redhill, Surrey. Carpenter by profession. Married with two children. A steady husband and father with a very respectable wife, and just setting up a nice little business, painting, decorating, carpentry and building. Very tall, dark and mild-mannered. Not very bright. Discharged from the R.A.F. on 6th June, 1949.

ALICE BAX

WILLIAM GEORGE BAX - Aged 30, of 23 Barnetworth Road, Putney. Married man with three children. Small, red-faced, very athletic strength. Now involved in a crime right outside his door and barely successful. Was just working up a nice little business of several components and precision work.

Stories My Father Told Me A father's precious heritage, "The true meaning of living a good life" The author tells a series of stories she had heard from her childhood that were told to her by her father, along with her own life-long observations of her father's life. These stories are of the father's childhood struggles with poverty, war, and refuge and settlement during the Japanese colonial period and the Korean War. And of a life thereafter of living in South Korea as a farmer. Also, stories of fatherhood full of sincerity, perseverance, caring, tolerance, and love, the roots of life values. Stories that seek to show a sincere life is one that adheres to these values. Not preaching, but self realization The father in the book does not instruct with words, but with actions. He shows respect to even very young children and guides them to self realizations. The author communicates her father's "attitude towards life" in an honest and easy to approach manner. Readers glean moments of self-awareness as they read through the book. The story of the father's life, To all parents and children, spreading the fragrance of these stories to the world People are born, children to someone, and themselves become parents to someone. No person is born as an adult, no person is born a parent. As a child, our reality comes from our parents, and we look upon them as if they are "the world." As we become adults, we come to realize that our parents were once young and awkward themselves. We then begin to pay attention to how they themselves became adults, became parents. Although the beginnings may not be perfect, the constant struggle of a father to live a good life is of great value for their children. Therefore, this book contains valuable stories for all parents of this world, and to all the children who are looking to them. A collection of 31 pieces of beautiful and lyrical artwork Thirty-one pieces of beautiful and lyrical artwork augments and enhances the stories contained in the book and greatly adds to the reading experience and value of the book.,2018-12-25 A father s precious heritage The true meaning of living a good life The author tells a series of stories she had heard from her childhood that were told to her by her father along with her own life long observations of her father s life These stories are of the father s childhood struggles with poverty war and refuge and settlement during the Japanese colonial period and the Korean War And of a life thereafter of living in South Korea as a farmer Also stories of fatherhood full of sincerity perseverance caring tolerance and love the roots of life values Stories that seek to show a sincere life is one that adheres to these values Not preaching but self realization The father in the book does not instruct with words but with actions He shows respect to even very young children and guides them to self realizations The author communicates her father s attitude towards life in an honest and easy to approach manner Readers glean moments of self awareness as they read through the book The story of the father s life To all parents and children spreading the fragrance of these stories to the world People are born children to someone and themselves become parents to someone No person is born as an adult no person is born a parent As a child our reality comes from our parents and we look upon them as if they are the world As we become adults we come to realize that our parents were once young and awkward themselves We then begin to pay attention to how they themselves became adults became parents Although the beginnings may not be perfect the constant struggle of a father to live a good life is of great value for their children Therefore this book contains valuable stories for all parents of this world and to all the children who are looking to them A collection of 31 pieces of beautiful and lyrical artwork Thirty one pieces of beautiful and lyrical artwork augments and enhances the stories contained in the book and greatly adds to the reading experience and value of the book Crime In Context Ian Taylor,2019-04-03 At the end of the twentieth century the bookstores are full of books on crime though this title will certainly not find a place on the same shelves In the massive Waterstones bookstore in the city of Manchester England where I lived through most of the 1990s the ground floor display area was rearranged in 1995 so as to accommodate right at the front of the store several hundred new titles on topics like Serial Murderers and Sexual Crimes of the Twentieth Century¹ Several of these new books are companion volumes to movies on release in the city's cinemas or in some instances are simply the original text on which the movies are based The movies in question Shallow Grave Silence of the Lambs Reservoir Dogs Natural Born Killers and others focus heavily on interpersonal violence and murder and also place great emphasis in the manner of many earlier cinematic genres on the idea of the criminal mind not least as a way of dramatizing the detection of the originating criminal act but also to a significant extent these are movies which emphasize the idea and contemporary social presence of evil Similar moral and psychologistic preoccupations are now also widely apparent on primetime television most notably in Britain in the extraordinarily powerful Cracker series produced by Granada Television in 1994 and 1995 watched by over 15 million people and featuring inter alia the forensic investigation of serial and sexual murders some of them extremely graphically displayed Crace 1994² The prominence of Gothic themes in movies about violent death is not new in itself there is a long history of interest in the cinema in horror and indeed in transgression and evil What may be definitive about the present genre of movies as well as the range of fictional and non fictional titles in the bookstores about crime is the overwhelming focus on murder and killing represented in very contemporary and mundane ordinary and indeed respectable settings and the powerful suggestion that these movies are a representation of the risks and dangers involved in everyday life at the end of the twentieth century The bookstore display in Waterstones is straightforwardly called the Real Crimes section
