Lee* Jennifer Blizin Gillis,2005-04 Profiles the life and military career of Confederate general Robert E Lee Robert E. Lee in War and Peace Donald A. Hopkins,2013-10-19

Robert E Lee is well known as a Confederate general and as an educator later in life but most people are exposed to the same handful of images of one of America's most famous sons. It has been almost seven decades since anyone has attempted a serious study of Lee in photographs and with Don Hopkins's painstakingly researched and lavishly illustrated Robert E Lee in War and Peace the wait is finally over. Dr Hopkins, a Mississippi surgeon and lifelong student of the Civil War and Southern history with a recent interest in Robert E Lee's life, photographs, scoured manuscript repositories and private collections across the country to locate every known Lee image 61 in all in existence today. The detailed text accompanying these images provides a sweeping history of Lee's life and a compelling discussion of antique photography with biographical sketches of all of Lee's known photographers. The importance of information within the photographer's imprint or backmark is emphasized throughout the book. Hopkins offers a substantial amount of previously unknown information about these images: how each came to be and the mistakes in fact and attribution other authors and writers have made describing photographs of Lee to the reading public. Many of the images in this book are being published for the first time. In addition to a few rare photographs and formats that were uncovered during the research phase of Robert E Lee in War and Peace the author offers for the first time definitive and conclusive attribution of the identity of the photographer of the well-known Lee in the field images and reproduces a startling imperial size photograph of Lee made by Alexander Gardner of Washington D C. Students of American history in general and the Civil War in particular as well as collectors and dealers who deal with Civil War era photography will find Hopkins's outstanding Robert E Lee in War and Peace a true contribution to the growing literature on the Civil War. About the Author: Born in the rural South, Donald A Hopkins has maintained a fascination with Southern history since he was a child. In addition to published papers in the medical field he has written several Civil War articles and The Little Jeff. The Jeff Davis Legion Cavalry Army of Northern Virginia for which he received the United Daughters of the Confederacy's Jefferson Davis Historical Gold Medal. Dr Hopkins served as Battalion Surgeon for the 1st Battalion 9th Marines, better known as The Walking Dead in Vietnam. He was awarded the Purple Heart and the Bronze Star with Combat V. Dr Hopkins is a surgeon in Gulfport, Mississippi where he lives with his wife Cindy and their golden retriever Dixie.
