Robert Rauschenberg Paintings 1962-198:

Art and Design in 1960s New York Amanda Gluibizzi, 2021-02-26 Art and Design in 1960s New York explores the mutual influence between fine art and graphic design in New York City during the long decade of the 1960s Beginning with advertising s creative revolution and its relationship to pop artists the book traces design and art s developing interest in responses to civic problems such as the proliferation of billboards navigation through the city s streets and subways and issues of deteriorating infrastructure The strategies exploited by these artists and designers resulted in similar approaches to visual imagery and shared techniques for thinking about and responding to the city in which they lived A Philosophy of the Art School Michael Newall, 2018-10-31 Winner of the American Society for Aesthetics 2019 Outstanding Monograph Prize Until now research on art schools has been largely occupied with the facts of particular schools and teachers This book presents a philosophical account of the underlying practices and ideas that have come to shape contemporary art school teaching in the UK US and Europe It analyses two models that hidden beneath the diversity of contemporary artist training have come to dominate art schools The first of these is essentially an old approach a training guided by the artistic values of a single artist teacher The second dates from the 1960s and is based around the group crit in which diverse voices contribute to an artist s development Understanding the underlying principles and possibilities of these two models which sit together in an uneasy tension gives new insights into the character of contemporary art school teaching demonstrating how art schools shape art and artists how they can be a potent engine of creativity in contemporary culture and how they contribute to artistic research A Philosophy of the Art School draws on first hand accounts of art school teaching and is deeply informed by disciplines ranging from art history and art theory to the philosophy of art education and creativity La force de l'art
