Browning's Beginnings Herbert F. Tucker Jr., 1980-12-31 Browning's Beginnings was first published in 1980. Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions. Browning's Beginnings offers a fresh approach to the poet who among major Victorians has proved at once the most congenial and most inscrutable to modern readers. Drawing on recent developments in literary theory and in the criticism of romantic poetry, Herbert F. Tucker Jr. argues that Browning's stylistic obscurity is the result of a principled poetics of evasion. This art of disclosure, in deferring formal and semantic finalities, constitutes an aesthetic counterpart to his open-ended moral philosophy of incompleteness. Browning's poems, like his enormously productive career, find their motivation and sustenance in his optimistic love of the future, a love that is indistinguishable from his lifelong fear that there will be nothing left to say. The opening chapters trace the workings of Browning's art of disclosure with extensive and original interpretations of the unduly neglected early poems Pauline, Paracelsus, and Sordello and place special emphasis on Browning's attitudes toward poetic tradition and language. A chapter on Browning's attitudes toward poetic tradition and language. A chapter on Browning's plays identifies dynamics of representation in Pippa Passes, Strafford, and King Victor and King Charles. Tucker discusses the pervasive analogy between Browning's ideas about poetic representation and about representation in its erotic and religious aspects and shows how the early poems and plays illustrate correlative developments in poetics and in the exploration and dramatic rendering of human psychology. The remaining chapters follow the poetic psychology of Browning to its culmination in the great poems of his middle years. Exemplary readings of selected dramatic lyrics and monologues suggest that the ways of meaning in Browning's mature work variously bear out the sense of endlessness or perpetual initiation that is central to his poetic beginnings. Tucker thus contends that the romantic and the Victorian Browning have more in common than is generally supposed, and his book should appeal to students of both periods. Its discussion of general literary issues, poetic influence, closure, representation, and meaning in application to particular texts should further recommend Browning's Beginnings to the nonspecialist reader interested in poetry and poetic theory. Robert Browning's Romantic Irony in The Ring and the Book Patricia Diane Rigg, 1999-06 This study is a reading of Robert Browning as an ironist in the tradition of the German Romanticist Friedrich Schlegel, who coined the term Romantic irony. Specifically, Patricia Diane Rigg considers historicity or historical truth in Browning's The Ring and the Book by distinguishing between the processes of representation and re-presentation within the context of Romantic irony. Browning, Victorian Poetics and the Romantic Legacy Dr. Britta Martens, 2013-05-28 Taking an original approach to Robert Browning's poetics Britta Martens focuses on a corpus of relatively neglected poems in Browning's own voice in which he reflects on his poetry his self conceptualization and his place in the poetic tradition She analyzes his work in relation to Romanticism Victorian reactions to the Romantic legacy and wider nineteenth century changes in poetic taste to argue that in these poems as in his more frequently studied dramatic monologues Browning deploys varied dramatic methods of self representation often critically and ironically exposing the biases and limitations of the seemingly authoritative speaker Browning The poems thus become devices for Browning's detached evaluation of his own and of others poetics an evaluation never fully explicit but presented with elusive economy for the astute reader to interpret The confrontation between the personal authorial voice and the dramatic voice in these poems provides revealing insights into the poet's highly self conscious conflicted and sustained engagement with the Romantic tradition and the diversely challenging reader expectations that he faces in a post Romantic age As the Victorian most rigorous in his rejection of Romantic self expression Browning is a key transitional figure between the sharply antagonistic periods of Romanticism and Modernism He is also as Martens persuasively demonstrates a poet of complex contradictions and an illuminating case study for addressing the perennial issues of voice authorial authority and self reference Browning and Wordsworth John Haydn Baker, 2004 This book will be of interest to students of English literature particularly those working on Bloomian influence theory Wordsworth or Browning as well as to more senior scholars working on poetry of the Romantic and Victorian periods The work will also interest those working on the deeply ambiguous figure of the later Browning simultaneously the most popular poet in the country after Tennyson and one of the most uncompromisingly complex and his vexed relationship with the reading public BOOK JACKET The Poems of Browning: Volume Three John Woolford, Daniel Karlin, Joseph Phelan, 2014-04-08 The Poems of Browning is a multi volume edition of the poetry of Robert Browning 1812-1889 resulting from a completely fresh appraisal of the canon text and context of his work The poems are presented in the order of their composition and in the text in which they were first published giving a unique insight into the origins and development of Browning's art Annotations and headnotes in keeping with the traditions of Longman Annotated English Poets are full and informative and provide details of composition publication sources and contemporary reception Volumes one 1826-1840 and two 1841-1846 presented the poems from his early years up to his marriage to Elizabeth Barrett including the dramatic poem Paracelsus 1835 which first brought him to wide attention and Sordello 1840 which confirmed him as a poet of ambition and imagination Volume three 1847-1861 of The Poems of Browning covers the years of Browning's life in Italy with his wife Elizabeth Barrett Browning During the fifteen years of his marriage and self imposed exile Browning produced Christmas Eve and Easter Day 1850 a major statement of his religious philosophy and Men and Women 1855 his greatest collection of shorter poems The poems of Men and Women like all Browning's work are steeped in his wide and idiosyncratic knowledge of literature music art history and popular culture but a new and distinctive touch comes from the sights sounds and textures of ordinary life in Italy Based on a comprehensive study of textual and contextual sources including a significant amount of hitherto undiscovered or unpublished manuscripts of poems and letters this volume offers the most complete and informative edition of works that are central to Browning's achievement In addition Browning's most important work of critical prose the Essay on Shelley is presented in an appendix with full annotation and poems which refer to specific works of painting or sculpture are illustrated with colour plates Volumes four presents the poetry Browning produced during the decade following the death of his wife including Dramatis Personae which heralded a re-evaluation of his critical reputation and The Ring and the Book which many consider to be his greatest work The Poems of Browning represents the most informative and up to date edition of the works of one of England's greatest poets
