Robert Hovda The Amen Corner:

Robert Hovda Robert W. Hovda, 1994 A collection of essays by one of America's best pastoral liturgists. These pieces are as fresh today as when they were first written. They challenge the Church to be faithful to its tradition and at the same time keenly aware of the contemporary world and its needs. Liturgy for the New Millennium Anscar J. Chupungco, Keith F. Pecklers, 2000 Liturgy for the New Millennium. Toward Ritual Transformation Robert W. Hovda, Gabe Huck, 2003 In Toward Ritual Transformation renowned liturgist Robert W. Hovda and other distinguished liturgists who have followed his lead challenge the Church to continue a pilgrimage toward beauty and justice, the inseparable components of Christian liturgy and life. Father Hovda's bishop once accused him of having a messiah complex. Hovda replied, "I thought we were supposed to." Hovda's messiah complex was the idea of a church never finalized or finished, never an accomplished fact but always on pilgrimage, seeking, growing, and helping the world grow toward what Scripture calls the reign of God. This faith community comes to realize gradually with the help of the Word of God and the signs of the times that its ministry in the world is the liberation and unification of the human race because the God of the Bible is a God who is living, whose creative work is ongoing, and whose call beckons us always to move beyond where we are at any given moment. Essays and their contributors are: A Tree Planted by a Stream by Gabe Huck, The Sacred Silence and Song by Robert W. Hovda, Liturgical Prayer Twenty-five Years of Change by Virgil C. Funk, Ritual Transformations: Principles, Patterns, and People by J. Michael Joncas, Being Beautiful, Being Just by Nathan D. Mitchell, The Transforming Power of Music: Tales of Transformation by James Savage, and All at Once the Music Changed by John Foley S.J. Reforming the Liturgy John F. Baldovin, 2016-03-24 2009 Catholic Press Association Award Winner. Perhaps no liturgical scholar of our time is better able than John Baldovin to write with clarity and accuracy about the meaning of the church's liturgy and the history of its development in the last half century. In this summary volume on the reform of the liturgy since the Second Vatican Council, Baldovin pinpoints and assesses both sympathetically and critically the objections to changes in the liturgy since the council, focusing on philosophical, historical, critical, and theological questions. After addressing each criticism in turn, in a final chapter he assesses the critique of post-Vatican II liturgy as a whole, affirming what is accurate and necessary, rejecting what is backward-looking, and proposing a set of principles to guide future development. No one who studies or participates in liturgical action in the twenty-first century can afford to overlook this book. John F. Baldovin S.J. is professor of historical and liturgical theology at Boston College School of Theology and Ministry. His most recent books include Bread of Life, Cup of Salvation, and The Urban Character of Christian Worship. At the Heart of the Liturgy Maxwell E. Johnson, Timothy P. O'Malley, Demetrio S. Yocum, 2014-12-17 From 1991 to 2012 Nathan D. Mitchell was the author of the Amen Corner that appeared at the end of each issue of Worship. Readers of Worship grew accustomed to Nathan's columns as invitations to rethink the practice of Christian worship through a liturgical theology that was interdisciplinary, aesthetic, and attentive to history. With the soul of a poet, Nathan was always on the lookout for the turn of phrase image stanza or metaphor from other classic wordsmiths that could capture the liturgical insight he wanted to explore For the first time this volume assembles some of the most important of these columns around the themes of body Word Spirit beauty justice and unity In addition Nathan s former students offer substantive commentary through essays that invite the reader to consider how the themes raised by Nathan might develop in the coming years This collection is a must read both for those who admired Nathan s contribution to liturgical studies and for a newer generation of scholars seeking to discern the frontiers of liturgical theology Nathan D Mitchell is an emeritus professor of liturgy in the Department of Theology at the University of Notre Dame In 1998 Mitchell was presented with the Berakah Award from the North American Academy of Liturgy for his contribution to the field His many publications include the following books Meeting Mystery Liturgy Worship Sacraments and The Mystery of the Rosary Marian Devotion and the Reinvention of Catholicism Fully Conscious, Fully Active Bryan Cones and Stephen Burns,2020-01-27 This collection of essays explores the work of Gabe Huck and its effect on liturgical thought and renewal Salt and Light Patrick Negri,2019-11-01 Patric Negri SSS was ordained a Catholic Priest in Melbourne in 1960 and died at the age of 80 in 2016 was a member of the Blessed Sacrament Congregation for over 50 years He was a scholar pastor administrator preacher and painter His paintings became a satisfactory creative outlet At various time he held leadership positions in his Congregation He gained a Phd in 1990 from the Graduate Theological Union in Berkley USA and then taught Liturgical Studies in Melbourne at the Yarra Theological Union This book is a election of homilies covering the main liturgical seasons over Years A B and C together with a number of his paintings The book has been put together by his twin brother Michael Negri and nephew Damian Negri who both live in Melbourne This Assembly of Believers Bryan Cones,2020-11-30 Among the symbols with which the liturgy deals none is more important than this assembly of believers This claim made in the 1970s forces the local church to consider those within its congregation and recognise the gifts and challenges of difference within the church community In This Assembly of Believers Bryan Cones seeks to take seriously the pastoral context of a congregation recognising the physical ability gender and sexuality of those who make up the congregation Starting each chapter with their lived experience Cones poses important questions of the liturgy in light of these experiences before realigning the liturgy to demonstrate the positive theological significance of the marginalised within the congregation The Worshipping Body Kimberly Bracken Long,2009-10-02 Kimberly Bracken Long by focusing on what presiders do with their bodies eyes ears lips hands feet and heart describes an attitude and style of worship leadership that is both firmly rooted and blessedly free A wonderful offering for all worship presiders seminarians commissioned lay pastors new pastors and experienced pastors The Worshipping Body is essential reading for anyone interested in how their presence and movement during worship make a difference Sacred Mysteries Dennis Chester Smolarski,1995 Sacred Mysteries opens by reflecting on the continual process of reform in the church and on the foundational principles for all liturgical action It then moves to a discussion of each of the sacraments with particular reference to the way they are ritualized in the assembly A final chapter addresses practices that can cloud the experience of mystery during liturgical celebrations and thus inhibit rather than enhance the power of the rite

Gelpi, 1993

Volume II develops a sacramental theology that addresses the needs of all adult Christians. The chapters on Marriage show how conversion both humanizes and Christianizes human sexuality providing the context for a foundational rethinking of the meaning of the context for a foundational rethinking of the meaning of Christian Marriage. The discussion of Orders examines the responsibilities of ordained leaders and throws light on the rise of clericalism and on the meaning of priestly identity and ministry in addition to clarifying the relationship between the priesthood of the laity and that of the ordained. A discussion of Christian nurture explains the practical and theoretical meaning of infant Baptism. This volume also examines the three sacraments that most foster ongoing conversion: Reconciliation, Anointing, and Eucharist. After situating each of these rituals in its Biblical and historical setting, the author shows how each contributes to ongoing Christian conversion.

Pathways to the Waters of Grace David B. Batchelder, 2017-05-16 What if the church took with utmost seriousness that baptism is the gift of a new identity taking a lifetime to grow into? And what if that identity includes God's call to a way of life made visible in how Jesus lived his? This book is a response to these questions in relationship to the church's practice of baptizing children. This book's underlying premise is that how the church helps parents prepare for baptism is vital to how the whole family lives its baptismal identity throughout life as well as to the renewal of churches themselves. In the last several decades institutionalized Christianity has found itself renegotiating its relationship with a culture that often has churches on the defensive for practices that are little changed from an era now past and insufficient as a witness to life as Christ's disciple. This book urges a reconsideration of what churches offer parents seeking baptism for a child, offering a transformed vision of such a ministry as well as a practical guide for putting it in place in the life of churches. Pastors, educators, and leaders will find a pathway to follow that promises to be life-changing for all involved.

Recovering Communion in a Violent World Christopher Grundy, 2019-11-15 The act of breaking and eating a body in Holy Communion forms us over time. What if that's not such a good thing? Recovering Communion in a Violent World provides an unblinking examination of the ritualized reenactment of the violence done to Jesus in Holy Communion using insights from the fields of ritual studies and trauma theory. Then drawing upon recent research in Christian origins, the book raises possibilities for sacramental meal practices that don't ignore the death of Jesus but respond to it differently. Rather than colluding with systems of violence, these alternative practices respond to violence in our world by continuing to collaborate with the persistence and resilience of God as well as with the realm of God still coming near. The result is a groundbreaking exploration that is both unflinching in its critique and passionate in its argument for the place of renewed Christian meal practices. In an era when world religions have come under greater scrutiny as sources of violence, this book asks readers to look squarely at the reenactment of violence that has come to narrowly define Holy Communion for so long and to imagine that more radical, resistant sacramental meal practices are possible.

From Misery to Hope Joe Egan, 2010 How can one believe in a God of love amid all the evil and suffering found in the world? How does one do theology after Auschwitz while vast numbers of people still have to endure violent oppression every day This book seeks to address such questions from a standpoint informed by life in Africa which in the face of extraordinary difficulties bears witness to Gospel hope by demonstrating forgiveness in action and promoting reconciliation The work unfolds in two parts In the first part a description of the misery that characterises much of life in Africa in the recent past opens up to a theological consideration of the underlying causes and of God's response to them In the second part the joy which is so characteristic of life in Africa even in places of immense suffering sets the scene for detailed reflections on liturgy memory forgiveness and hope

Preparing Parish Liturgies Rita Thiron, 2004 Preparing Parish Liturgies provides historical background synopses and careful outlines of the Church's major liturgical books and documents Then with easy to understand language helpful charts and sound liturgical principles the author arms both the veteran and the novice with practical tools for preparing parish liturgies that are both faithful to the Church's rich tradition and sensitive to the pastoral needs of their assemblies

Saint John's Abbey Church Victoria M. Young, 2014-10-01 In the 1950s the brethren at the Benedictine Abbey of Saint John the Baptist in Collegeville Minnesota the largest Benedictine abbey in the world decided to expand their campus including building a new church From a who's who of architectural stars such as Walter Gropius Richard Neutra Pietro Belluschi Barry Byrne and Eero Saarinen the Benedictines chose a former member of the Bauhaus Marcel Breuer In collaboration with the monks this untested religious designer produced a work of modern sculptural concrete architecture that reenvisioned what a church could be and set a worldwide standard for midcentury religious design Saint John's Abbey Church documents the dialogue of the design process as Breuer instructed the monks about architecture and they in turn guided him and his associates in the construction of a sacred space in the crucial years of liturgical reform A reading of letters drawings and other archival materials shows how these conversations gave shape to design elements from the church's floor plan to the liturgical furnishings art and incomparable stained glass installed within it The book offers a rare detailed view of how a patron and architect work together in a successful building campaign one that in this case lasted for two decades and resulted in designs for twelve buildings ten of which were completed The post World War II years were critical in the development of religious and architectural experiences in the United States experiences that came together in the construction of Saint John's Abbey and University Church and that find their full expression in Victoria M Young's account of the process Using the liturgy of the mid twentieth century as a cornerstone for understanding the architecture produced to support it her book showcases the importance of modernism in the design of sacred space and of Marcel Breuer's role in setting the standard
