Blantyre Simpson, 2017-11-21 Excerpt from Robert Louis Stevenson's Edinburgh Days We can conjure up the image of the future author at this stage in a hat bulky with protective ear bows absurdly chubby of cheek with his dark eyes alertly noting the things of colour and life within his range or contemplating other juveniles with placid condescension as in this wordless state of existence they passed one another by with exchange of infantine smiles He also studied the world from the windows of his home The students of botany hurrying in the May mornings to their lecture among the owners might often have seen a small child held up to the window to gaze at the lads who were almost as early astir as the dust carts About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy. In rare cases, an imperfection in the original, such as a blemish or missing page, may be replicated in our edition. We do, however, repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully; any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works.
