Working Aesthetics Danielle Child, 2019-01-10 Working Aesthetics is about the relationship between art and work under contemporary capitalism Whilst labour used to be regarded as an unattractive subject for art the proximity of work to everyday life has subsequently narrowed the gap between work and art The artist is no longer considered apart from the economic but is heralded as an example of how to work in neoliberal management textbooks As work and life become obscured within the contemporary period this book asks how artistic practice is affected including those who labour for artists Through a series of case studies Working Aesthetics critically examines the moments in which labour and art intersect under capitalism When did labour disappear from art production or accounts of art history Can we consider the dematerialization of art in the 1960s in relation to the deskilling of work And how has neoliberal management theory

adopting the artist as model worker affected artistic practices in the 21st century With the narrowing of work and art visible in galleries and art discourse today Working Aesthetics takes a step back to ask why labour has become a valid subject for contemporary art and explores what this means for aesthetic culture today Creating Memory John Warkentin,2010 Toronto has over 600 public outdoor sculptures works of art that provide a sense of the rich variety of life and work in the city its peoples cultures and aspirations Interest in commissioning public sculpture began slowly in the nineteenth and early twentieth century but increased rapidly after the 1950s This is a book about the sculptures and how they disclose the city to itself Creating Memory s two introductory sections examine the factors behind this expansion over time and the changes in style as one generation of sculptors succeeded another It looks at the reasons behind the changes as sculptures were conceived sculpted and erected More than 10 categories of sculptures are defined and discussed including Founding the City Natural Environment Immigration Ethnic Groups Economic Activities Disaster and Calamity War And Conflict Leaders Ordinary Citizens Community Life and Works of the Imagination Welded Sculpture of the Twentieth Century Judy Collischan,2000 This first ever study of welded sculpture covers the entire twentieth century and one hundred artists from all over the world Art in America Frank Jewett Mather,Frederic Fairchild Sherman,2003-07 Artscanada ,1979 The Ganzfeld ,2005 Lalit Kalā Contemporary ,1966 RACAR, Revue D'art Canadienne ,1984
