Minoanisation Joanne Elizabeth Cutler,2021-10-31 The mid second millennium BC material record of the southern Aegean shows evidence of strong Cretan influence This phenomenon has traditionally been seen in terms of Minoanisation but the nature and degree of Cretan influence and the process processes by which it was spread and adopted have been widely debated This new study addresses the question of Minoanisation through a study of the adoption of Cretan technologies in the wider southern Aegean principally weaving technology By the early Late Bronze Age Cretan style discoid loom weights had appeared at a number of settlements across the southern Aegean In most cases this represents not only the adoption of a particular type of loom weight but also the introduction of a new weaving technology the use of the warp weighted loom The evidence for and the implications of the adoption of this new technology is examined Drawing upon recent advances in textile experimental archaeology the types of textiles that are likely to have been produced at a range of sites both on Crete itself and in the wider southern Aegean are discussed and the likely nature and scale of textile production at the various settlements is assessed A consideration of the evidence for the timing and extent of the adoption of Cretan weaving technology in the light of additional evidence for the adoption of other Cretan technologies is used to gain insight into the potential social and economic strategies engaged in by various groups across the southern Aegean as well as the motivations that may have driven the adoption and adaptation of Cretan cultural traits and accompanying behaviors By examining how technological skills and techniques are learned and considering possible mechanisms for the transmission of such technical knowledge and know how new perspectives can be proposed concerning the processes through which Cretan techniques were taken up and imitated abroad

Plato's Labyrinth Michael Carroll, 2022-01-03 One wants to preserve history Another seeks to resurrect a legendary army A third plans to infuse the past with technology to save millions If you could go back in time what would you do Something strange is going on at ChronoCorp Coffin shaped pods and glowing talismans feathered dinosaurs and ancient murals the private laboratory's quirky scientists have been quite busy indeed The reason Katya Xavier Todd and colleagues are on a singular scientific mission to surpass the limits of modern physics and unlock the power of time travel Their early experiments have proved a resounding success taking them to far flung places in both time and space from nineteenth century New York to ancient Thera But as their research progresses the stakes get ever higher Enter a world of competing interests and conflicting timelines where nothing is quite what it seems Why is Xavier acting so oddly Where exactly did their eccentric benefactor Mila van Dijk get her wealth What is the Primus Imperium and what does its mysterious head known only as The Ambassador want from them Come along as the colleagues at ChronoCorp and their ragtag allies race to sew up several unravelling timelines battling those who would harm them in the past and present to preserve what is left of their future

Imagining Atlantis Richard Ellis, 2012-01-11 Ever since Plato created the legend of the lost island of Atlantis it has maintained a uniquely strong grip on the human imagination For two and a half millennia the story of the city and its catastrophic downfall has inspired people from Francis Bacon to Jules Verne to Jacques Cousteau to speculate on the island's origins nature and location and sometimes even to search for its physical remains It has endured as a part of the mythology of many different cultures yet there is no indisputable evidence let alone proof that Atlantis ever existed What then accounts for its seemingly inexhaustible appeal Richard Ellis plunges into this rich topic investigating the roots of the legend and following its various manifestations into the present He begins with the story's origins Did it arise from a common prehistorical myth Was it a historical remnant of a lost city of pre-Columbians or ancient Egyptians Was Atlantis an extraterrestrial colony Ellis sifts through the scientific evidence marshaled to prove these theories and describes the mystical and spiritual significance that has accrued to them over the centuries He goes on to explore the possibility that the fable of Atlantis was inspired by a conflation of the high culture of Minoan Crete with the destruction wrought on the Aegean world by the cataclysmic eruption around 1500 b c of the volcanic island of Thera or Santorini A fascinating historical and archaeological detective story Imagining Atlantis is a valuable addition to the literature on this essential aspect of our mythohistory Bull Vault Barbara Tieken,2010-12-21 Bull Vault is an absorbing novel set in 2100 B C E that interweaves adventure passion love and wisdom Join Alena Bull Vault from Keft as she journeys to the Peloponnesus meets the Kurgan warrior Jahal and develops the special talents bestowed upon her by the Goddess as she embarks on an exhilarating journey to fulfil her fated destiny YRIA CHRIS BLENOWE,JUDITH LEVINE,2013-10-30 The Parthenon in the brilliance of its siting astonishing constructional precision and refinements remains one of the greatest enigmas in architecture It exemplifies an elusive quality which transcends history and can also be identified in certain key works of the modern era YRIA the guiding shadow is the account of a search in time and place for the origins of this luminous artistic and architectural mode The thread is followed through the work of visionary artists and architects of recent times and illuminated by a comprehensive text numerous sketches and high quality photographs Written primarily for the adventurous reader with an interest in Art and Architecture History and Mythology Poetry and Philosophy as an account of architectural beginnings revealed by recent archaeological discoveries this book will also interest the specialist Regional Development
