Global Rhetorics of Science Lynda C. Olman,2023-09-01 With this volume the field of rhetoric of science joins its sister disciplines in history and philosophy in challenging the dominance of Euro American science as a global epistemology The discipline of rhetoric understands world making and community building as interdependent activities that is if we practice science differently we do politics differently and vice versa This wider aperture seems crucial at a time when we are confronted with the limitations of Euro American science and politics in managing global risks such as pandemics and climate change particularly in our most vulnerable communities The contributors to this volume draw on their familiarity with a wide range of global scientific traditions from Australian Aboriginal ecology to West African medicine to Polynesian navigation science to suggest possibilities for reconfiguring the relationship between science and politics to better manage global risks These possibilities should not only inspire scholars in rhetoric and technical communication but should also introduce readers from science and technology studies to some useful new approaches to the problem of decolonizing scenes of scientific practice around the world

Once Upon a Nightmare Lee Moylan,2008 On the night of October thirteenth the Hunter s Moon descended upon the quiet town of White Chapel As Sara Bishop drifted off to sleep under its soft illumination the full moon seemed to have brought with it something far more sinister than a warm glow At once the nightmare started But this wasn t any ordinary nightmare This one seemed real as if she could smell it feel it taste it It was one of those dreams one that awakened her witch like sense a harbinger of heartbreak and now horror Together with Rebecca Parker the only other person who understood her gift someone who had experienced her own strange senses Sara hoped to come to terms with this ominous nightmare But her closest friend and next door neighbor was no where to be found not since the night of October thirteenth And so it begins With little help from her skeptical husband or local police Sara finds herself virtually alone as her grisly dreams crawl from the darkness to become a sick and twisted reality a reality where she has become the ultimate desire of a sadistic serial killer As images of death phantoms and shadows surround Sara in this Halloween season she needs to listen to the whispers in her mind use her gift to unmask those around her for one of them is the man from her nightmare And he sees her when she s sleeping He knows when she s awake When the next full moon descends upon White Chapel he will reveal himself to her And under its silvery glow a new nightmare will be born Will Sara Bishop have to experience death itself to stop this killer Or will her nightmare never end
