Ferocious Things Cathleen Therese Maslen,2009-03-26 It s fatal making a fuss Jean Rhys Quartet Cathleen Maslen s Ferocious Things Jean Rhys and the Politics of Women s Melancholia closely engages with the most obvious theme of Rhys s writing the speaking and inscription of feminine anguish Maslen resists easy generalisations with respect to Rhys s portrayal of women s psychic pain attending carefully to the nuances of sexual cultural and ethnic displacement which inform the suffering of Rhys s protagonists Acknowledging the many fine recent critical engagements with Rhys s unique corpus of novels Maslen insists that Rhys s particular articulation of women s pain presents a significant literary transgression defying the intractable cultural interdiction against women making a fuss At the same time this book engages with the problematic privileging of melancholic and nostalgic discourse in the Western canon in general Rhys s work Maslen argues simultaneously celebrates and resists fundamentally Eurocentric and anti feminist paradigms of melancholia and nostalgia In short the ferocious melancholia of Jean Rhys s female voices poses constructive paradoxes and points of departure for feminist and post colonial debates in the 21st century

Ethics and Poetics Margrét Gunnarsdóttir Champion,Irina Rasmussen Goloubeva,2014-04-11 Bringing together international scholars interested in the ethics of fiction this book extends the rich field of ethical literary criticism that has emerged in the last twenty years New ground is broached in that the authors explore literariness itself as constitutive of ethical intimations about the pluralistic community and about egalitarian modes of communication The epistemological point of departure is the ethical thought of modernity as filtered through Hegelian recognition as infinite social responsibility The structure of the anthology reflects this anchoring as the authors investigate modalities of recognition and social regeneration via literary language which effects the transvaluation of values of the collective imaginary and of intermediality This collection is generally concerned with the immanence of intersubjectivity in literature and with how from this immanence new modes of ethical communication are generated The authors of Ethics and Poetics clarify how modern narratives in ways akin to yet different from political interrogations such as deconstruction psychoanalysis Marxism and gender studies refine the understanding of the recursive process of recognition thereby disclosing ethico political dimensions of the reading experience The chapters in this anthology share an interest in ethico literary responses to shifts within modernity from communal to transnational imagination All the articles explore how modalities of recognition in modern and contemporary literature deeply affect and potentially regenerate real social spaces
