Satchel Paige The Best Arm In Baseball Great African Americans Series:

Satchel Paige Pat McKissack, Fredrick McKissack, 1992 Satchel Paige was forty two years old when he became the first African American pitcher in the American League His achievements ultimately won him a place in the National Baseball Hall of Fame

African American Pioneers of Baseball Lew Freedman, 2007-04-30 When Jackie Robinson became the first African American player in major league baseball in 1947 elbowing aside the league's policies of segregation that had been inviolate for 60 years he became a symbol of opportunity and acceptance for African American players everywhere Robinson withstood discrimination to establish himself as a Hall of Fame player and to lead future generations of black players into the previously all white world of Major League Baseball Written for students and general readers alike this biographical encyclopedia chronicles the history of African American baseball through the life stories of the game's greatest players the legends who played a significant role in the integration of the major league From Negro League stars Satchel Paige and Josh Gibson to color line shatterer Jackie Robinson and those who followed them in the limelight such as Hank Aaron and Willie Mays readers will learn how the inclusion of African American players in Major League Baseball improved the sport and race relations in the United States during this critical period in history Providing detailed accounts of each player's amazing professional achievements this insightful reference describes how the spectacular talents of African American players elevated Major League Baseball forever Features include a timeline of important events numerous photographs and a bibliography of print and electronic sources for further reading

Satchel Larry Tye, 2010-05-04 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER The superbly researched spellbindingly told story of athlete showman philosopher and boundary breaker Leroy Satchel Paige Among the rare biographies of an athlete that transcend sports gives us the man as well as the myth The Boston Globe Few reliable records or news reports survive about players in the Negro Leagues Through dogged detective work award winning author and journalist Larry Tye has tracked down the truth about this majestic and enigmatic pitcher interviewing more than two hundred Negro Leaguers and Major Leaguers talking to family and friends who had never told their stories before and retracing Paige's steps across the continent Here is the stirring account of the child born to an Alabama washerwoman with twelve young mouths to feed the boy who earned the nickname Satchel from his enterprising work as a railroad porter the young man who took up baseball on the streets and in reform school inventing his trademark hesitation pitch while throwing bricks at rival gang members Tye shows Paige barnstorming across America and growing into the superstar hurler of the Negro Leagues a marvel who set records so eye popping they seemed like misprints spent as much money as he made and left tickets for Mrs Paige that were picked up by a different woman at each game In unprecedented detail Tye reveals how Paige hurt and angry when Jackie Robinson beat him to the Majors emerged at the age of forty two to help propel the Cleveland Indians to the World Series He threw his last pitch from a big league mound at an improbable fifty nine Age is a case of mind over matter he said If you don't mind it don't matter More than a fascinating account of a baseball odyssey Satchel rewrites our history of the integration of the sport with Satchel Paige in a starring role This is a powerful portrait of an American hero who employed a shuffling stereotype to disarm critics and racists floated comical legends about himself including about his own age to deflect inquiry and remain elusive and in the process methodically built his own myth Don't look back he famously said Something might be gaining on you Separating the truth from the legend Satchel is a remarkable accomplishment as large as this larger than life man The African American Baseball Experience in Nebraska Angelo J. Louisa, 2021-02-26 Nebraska is not usually thought of as a focal point in the history of black baseball yet the state has seen its share of contributions to the African American baseball experience This book examines nine of the most significant including the rise and fall of the Lincoln Giants Satchel Paige's adventures in the Cornhusker State a visit from Jackie Robinson and the maturation of Bob Gibson both on and off the field Also recollections are featured from individuals who participated in or witnessed the African American baseball experience in the Omaha area

The Chicago American Giants Paul Debono,2007-01-01 In 1886 a semipro team known as the Union Baseball Club was founded in Chicago Under the leadership of Frank Leland this team of black players worked its way to the top of Chicago s otherwise all white semipro city league In 1902 Leland recruited a talented young pitcher from Texas Rube Foster who soon established himself as one of the game s outstanding players seized the leadership of the Union Baseball Club and founded the Chicago American Giants This team would dominate the early years of the Negro National League also founded by Foster Covering the years 1870 1953 this is a history of a legendary Negro League team Sources include contemporary newspaper articles and interviews with veteran players Many photographs a comprehensive biographical dictionary and a detailed game log are included

Black Baseball Kyle McNary,2006-03-28 From the first Black amateur players before the Civil War through to the last barnstorming Negro League teams in the 1960s here is the complete and utterly fascinating history of segregated baseball in the United States Thanks to photographs of the major players and many first hand accounts baseball fans will get the full story of this tumultuous time behind the scenes and out in the ballparks Every detail is revealed starting with that sad day in 1911 when the governing body of the National Association of Baseball Players voted unanimously to bar any club that signed an African American Meet the many players including George Stovey Sol White and Welday Walker who blazed the way for Jackie Robinson to integrate major league baseball in 1947 Feel the frustration felt by the players when they were denied hotel rooms and restaurant service while on the road Every image and tale also conveys the joy of the game and the pride these men felt in playing professional baseball

School Library Journal ,2002

The Black Stars Who Made Baseball Whole Rick Swaine,2014-09-24 For major league baseball the decade following Jackie Robinson s 1947 debut was one of slow yet persistent change Four other black players made their first brief big league appearances that year followed by only two in 1948 and four in 1949 But by the end of 1959 122 black ballplayers had made it to the big leagues Like Robinson their lives were made difficult off the field and on it they dodged beanballs and spikes This book brings attention to the accomplishments of this transitional generation of African American players made up of men like Luscious Luke Easter Sam The Jet Jethroe and Sad Sam Jones many of whom spent years in the minors the Negro leagues or both before getting their shot Chapters on each season from 1947 to 1959 incorporate biographical and career profiles for 25 players who stood out during baseball s integration A final chapter covers the outstanding minor league players who for various reasons never got a real chance to play major league ball Appendices include a roster of black major leaguers from 1947 through 1959 a list of black player firsts and statistics on the year by year population of black players in the majors The Greatest Game Ever Kevin King,2012-03-06 A vivid and moving tale of redemption that will have you cheering about the greatest barnstorming baseball game ever played between the Major League All Stars and the Negro League All Stars in 1934 A story told in more than 100 book pages great value The date was October 20 1934 just days after Dizzy Dean s St Louis Cardinals won the World Series The place was Boston s Fenway Park under portable lights The money behind it was Henry Ford s who yearned to see an all white team defeat the black all stars For Diz s team there was Babe Ruth Lou Gehrig Shoeless Joe Jackson overweight and still banned from the game and a lanky minor leaguer named Joe DiMaggio Paige s all stars featured Josh Gibson Cool Papa Bell Turkey Stearnes and Buck Leonard With a keen eye for historical detail and a passionate love for baseball Kevin King chronicles this epic game between Diz s and Satch s all stars No trophies or championships were on the line only the two most important things in life to any ballplayer respect and redemption Appalachian Children's Literature ,2010-04-13 This comprehensive bibliography includes books written about or set in Appalachia from the 18th century to the present Titles represent the entire region as defined by the Appalachian Regional Commission including portions of 13 states stretching from southern New York to northern Mississippi The bibliography is arranged in alphabetical order by author and each title is accompanied by an annotation most of which include composite reviews and critical analyses of the work All classic genres of children s literature are represented Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2002-02
