Satire And Humor In Education Selected Readings:

Satire and Humor in Education Rolland Callaway,1990 A collection of satirical and humorous readings related to education and schooling The editor contends that perhaps educators and others have taken the issues and problems of education too seriously and a satirical and humorous perspective might lighten their task The readings are categorized according to goals and curriculum instruction including subcategories on organization resources teachers and teaching learners and learning evaluation and research and futures The editor has provided very little editorial comment leaving that up to the reader As noted in the introduction by Will Roy a Professor from the University of Wisconsin Milwaukee these essays aim to deflate pompousness annoy authority shake the status quo empower the little people bring reality into the Ivory Tower spur change and primarily allow us to take ourselves less seriously

Cognitive Sociolinguistics Gitte Kristiansen,René Dirven,2008-11-06 A union of Cognitive Linguistics and Sociolinguistics was bound to happen Both proclaim a usage based approach to language and aim to analyse actual language use in objective ways Whereas Sociolinguistics is by nature on the outlook for language in its variety CL can no longer afford to ignore social variation in language as it manifests itself in the usage data Nor can it fail to adopt an empirical methodology that reflects variation as it actually occurs beyond the limited knowledge of the individual observer Conversely while CL can only benefit from a heightened sensitivity to social aspects the rich bottom up theoretical framework it has developed is likely to contribute to a much better understanding of the meaning of variationist phenomena The volume brings together fifteen chapters written by prominent scholars testifying of rich empirical and theoretizing research into the social aspects of language variation Taking a broad view on Cognitive Sociolinguistics the volume covers three main areas corpus based research on language variation cognitive cultural models and the ideologies of sociopolitical and socio economic systems
