Juvenal c AD 55 138 captures the splendour the squalor and the sheer energy of everyday Roman life In The Sixteen Satires he evokes a fascinating world of whores fortune tellers boozy politicians slick lawyers shameless sycophants ageing flirts and downtrodden teachers A member of the traditional land owning class that was rapidly seeing power slip into the hands of outsiders Juvenal also creates savage portraits of decadent aristocrats male and female seeking excitement among the lower orders of actors and gladiators and of the jumped up sons of newly rich former slaves Constantly comparing the corruption of his own generation with its stern and upright forebears Juvenal s powers of irony and invective make his work a stunningly satirical and bitter denunciation of the degeneracy of Roman society An Unreal Estate Lucinda Carspecken,2011-11-03 In An Unreal Estate Lucinda Carspecken takes an in depth look at Lothlorien a Southern Indiana nature sanctuary sustainable camping ground festival site collective residence and experiment in ecological building stewardship and organization Carspecken notes the way fiction and reality intertwine on this piece of land and argues that examples such as Lothlorien have the power to be a force for social change Lothlorien s organization and social norms are in sharp contrast with its surrounding communities As a unique enclave within a larger society it offers to the latter both an implicit critique and a cluster of alternative values and lifestyles In addition it has created a niche where some participants change grow and find empowerment in an environment that is accepting of difference particularly in areas of religion and sexual orientation
