Saturday Night In York Street:

The Brooklyn Theatre Index Volume II Manhattan Avenue to York Street Cezar Joseph Del Valle, 2010-10 From 19th century playhouses to the opulence of the 1920s movie palace and the multiplexes of today The Brooklyn Theatre Index acts as a resource guide to the borough's performance spaces Volume II begins with Royal Palace Hall on Manhattan Avenue and ends with Military Hall on York Street The Co-operative News, 1891 China's Open Door Policy Sam P. S. Ho, Ralph William Huenemann, 1984 The Open Door has become an integral part of China's economic development strategy since the late 1970s and not surprisingly it has aroused considerable interest in developed countries This book gives a sympathetic but critical survey of this policy with particular attention to the problems that have prevented the Open Door from being implemented as rapidly as first intended Placing the open door policy within a larger policy context the authors focus on debates within China over such key issues as the choice of a management system the choice between balanced and unbalanced growth and between various patterns of income distribution They deal with institutional mechanisms recently established to attract foreign technology and capital and to encourage a more flexible Chinese response to increased interdependence with capitalist economies Based on a variety of published sources and on extensive interviews conducted in China this book is an important contribution to the growing body of literature on the Chinese economy and will prove a valuable reference for foreign exporters investors policy makers and China specialists The Bridgemen's Magazine, 1921

Chinatowns David Chuenyan Lai, 2007-10-01 This book is a definitive history of Chinatowns in Canada From instant Chinatowns in gold and coal mining communities to new Chinatowns which have sprung up in city neighbourhoods and suburbs since World War II it portrays the changing landscapes and images of Chinatowns from the late nineteenth century to the present It also includes a detailed case study of Victoria's Chinatown the earliest such settlement in Canada Life, Experience, & Journal of an Open-air Preacher and City Missionary Up to Jan. 1864 Nathaniel Pidgeon, 1864 Truth, 1889

Alliance News, 1875 Yale University 2012 Rachel Glodo, 2011-03-15 William Hazlitt Duncan Wu, 2008-10-23 Romanticism is where the modern age begins and Hazlitt was its most articulate spokesman No one else had the ability to see it whole no one else knew so many of its politicians poets and philosophers By interpreting it for his contemporaries he speaks to us of ourselves of the culture and world we now inhabit Perhaps the most important development of his time the creation of a mass media is one that now dominates our lives Hazlitt's livelihood was dependent on it As the biography argues he took political sketch writing to a new level invented sports commentary as we know it and created the essay form as practised by Clive James Gore Vidal and Michael Foot Duncan Wu's profile of one of the greatest journalists in the language draws on over a decade of archival research in libraries across Britain and North America to reveal for the first time such matters as why Godwin broke with Hazlitt how Hazlitt came to know Sir John Soane and J M W Turner the true nature of Hazlitt's dealings with Thomas Medwin and what the likes of Joseph Farington and Sir Thomas Lawrence thought of him In addition it sheds new light on Hazlitt's dealings with such figures as Francis Jeffrey Robert Stodart John M Creery Henry Crabb Robinson Joseph Parkes John Cam Hobhouse and Stendhal It benefits also from Wu's New Writings of William Hazlitt many of which make their appearance here illuminating hitherto obscure passages of Hazlitt's life New York Magazine, 1996-12-23 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The Musical World, 1863 Bibliotheca Somersetensis: Bath books. Stepping out in Cincinnati Allen J. Singer, 2005-12-07 Long before folks had a television set and radio in every room they sought entertainment by stepping out for a night on the town The choices around Cincinnati were nearly limitless live theater at the Cox spectacular musicals at the Shubert hotels featuring fine dining and dance orchestras talking pictures at everyone's favorite movie palace the Albee burlesque and vaudeville shows at the Empress Theater on Vine Street and gambling casinos were just a short drive across the river in Newport All of the major entertainment venues in the Queen City during the first half of the 20th century are explored in Stepping out in Cincinnati From saloons to ornate movie palaces and from the Cotton Club to the Capitol you join those pleasure seekers getting a real sense of what they saw wonderful events and their countless images the things of which fond memories were made Today those memories have faded and virtually all of the once glittering showplaces have been bulldozed into history But within these pages we get to experience first hand what it was like to be there Unique among the many photographs featuring unforgettable movie houses and nightclub orchestras are never before published images of actual live vaudeville performances onstage at the Shubert plus rare clandestine pictures snapped inside the casinos in Newport Also revealed are the locations of the better known speakeasies during Prohibition where the best halls to dance to live orchestras were what the earliest movie houses were like and what black Cincinnatians did for entertainment The Publishers' Circular, 1858 Publishers' circular and booksellers' record, 1858
