

Ruefully admitting we can neither remain children nor all become artists still less saints and mystics, we turn back, regretfully, but massively, to the time-ridden world.

Alan McGlashan, The Savage & Beautiful Country

The Savage and Beautiful Country Alan McGlashan, 1988 Alan McGlashan presents a sensitive view of the modern world and of time of our memories and forgetfulness joys and sorrows He takes the reader on a safari into regions that are strange and yet familiar into the savage and beautiful country of the mind No cures are offered but we are provoked to reflect on our roles and attitudes in the contemporary world jungle

The Savage and Beautiful Country Alan McGlashan, 1967

A Time to Mourn Verena Kast, 2020 In what is often called her most important book Verena Kast examines the role of mourning in the therapeutic process Working as a psychotherapist Frau Kast has often observed depressive illnesses caused by painful losses which have not been adequately mourned Traditionally mourning has not been a subject of psychologists attention Frau Kast uses dreams to illustrate the stages of mourning and shows systematically how the unconscious stimulates us to encounter our grief Mourning marks an end but it also fosters personal growth It is a time of renewal a time for incubation for introspection for going into oneself to gather strength as a seed goes deep into the earth to find the resources for striving toward the light

Spiritual Sensations Sarah K. Balstrup, 2020-09-17 The secular pluralist culture of the West encourages a subjective approach to spiritual truth where stimulating emotional experiences such as those provided by film can contribute to personal conceptions of the sacred Examining Stanley Kubrick's 2001 A Space Odyssey 1968 as the principal case study and Gaspar Noé's Enter the Void 2009 and Lars von Trier's Melancholia 2011 as comparative examples Sarah Balstrup argues that these directors harness the affective properties of film to generate altered states of perception in a manner analogous to religious practice Powerful feelings of dissociation and indescribable significance typical of mystical testimony appear in viewer responses to these films demonstrating the continued sacralisation of such states of mind In their own way each film confronts the viewer with an apocalyptic revelation of the impersonal forces of the universe moving away from personhood and the human narrative into pure sensation They present a non deterministic spiritual truth that can be intuited but not explained mirroring developments in the religious sphere Investigating the relationship between cinematic technique and religious experience Spiritual Sensations offers an alternative approach to the study of religion and film that has been principally focused on narrative symbolism and the dramatisation of values Spiritual Sensations makes a further contribution to the field by analysing films contextually considering viewers subjective responses in light of religious and cultural change

The Girl Who Made Stars and Other Bushman Stories Gregory McNamee, These beautiful and timeless stories from the African Bush were gathered more than a century ago and have touched thousands of readers ever since The South African born author Sir Laurens van der Post revered them and helped to make them known throughout the world For this special new edition Gregory McNamee has adapted the original nineteenth century English translations to create modern versions of the stories for readers without a prior knowledge of the Bushman ways of life The stories in this book carry universal observations and truths and with their historical and ethnographic roots in the African Bushman culture they are fascinating and educational for readers and listeners of all ages They bear powerful testimony to a desert people living at one with Nature

Requiem For Modern Politics William Ophuls, 2019-05-20 This long promised sequel to Ophuls's influential and controversial classic Ecology and the Politics of Scarcity is an equally provocative critique of the liberal philosophy of government Ophuls contends that the modern political paradigm that is the body of political concepts and beliefs bequeathed to us by the Enlightenment is no longer intellectually tenable or practically viable Our attempt to live individualistically hedonistically and rationally has failed utterly causing a comprehensive crisis that is at once political military economic ecological ethical psychological and spiritual Liberal politics has abandoned virtue rejected community and flouted nature thereby becoming the author of its own demise By exposing the intrinsically contradictory and self destructive character of Hobbesian political systems Ophuls subverts our conventional wisdom at every turn Indeed his impassioned text reads more like a Greek tragedy than a conventional political argument He critiques feminism multiculturalism the welfare state and a host of other liberal shibboleths but Ophuls is not yet another neoconservative The aim of his thesis is far more radical and progressive offering a political vision that entirely transcends the categories of liberal thought His is a Thoreauvian vision of a politics of consciousness rooted in ecology as the moral and intellectual basis for governance in the twenty first century Ophuls holds that a polity based on a renewed erotic connection with nature offers a genuine solution to this crisis of contemporary civilization and that only within such a polity will it be possible to fulfill the worthy liberal goal of individual self development Ophuls's work will interest and challenge a wide spectrum of readers though it will not necessarily be well liked or easily accepted No one will put down this book with his or her settled convictions about American culture intact nor will readers ever again take modern civilization and its survival for granted

Beyond the Snow Christine Rawlins, 2015-08-28 This is a much needed study of a remarkable life Elizabeth Goudge was not only a sensitive and acute artist in fiction but a profoundly insightful commentator on the processes of growing up spiritually and morally She fully deserves the kind of sympathetic and appreciative exploration provided by this book Rowan Williams 104th Archbishop of Canterbury Elizabeth Goudge once said she had done no exciting things none of the wonderful things that some people do Yet her achievement was wonderful From the stuff of her own life even the hard things like depression and nervous breakdown even the Christian faith that upheld her throughout she created best selling books that were read worldwide throughout the forty years of her career and are still being read today J K Rowling has said that her favourite childhood book was The Little White Horse recently filmed as The Secret of Moonacre Beyond the Snow is an appreciation of Miss Goudge's life and work that attempts to look beyond her memoirs by linking them to her books and letters and the recollections of family and friends It examines in particular her Christian faith and its illuminating influence on everything she did and was As Alan Walton said reviewing The Joy of the Snow there is nobody like her

Congress, 1853 Tom Murphy's Theatre of Everyday Space Moonyoung Hong, 2025-05-08 By the time of his death in 2018 Tom Murphy was widely recognised as one of Ireland's most important modern playwrights Ireland's experience of rapid modernisation emigration and globalisation is vividly captured in his plays challenging generic notions of space place and the nation In particular his drama reconfigures Irish theatre's uneasy relationship with globalisation with the peasant kitchen the pub and the bog having traditionally been exported as the quintessential Irish spaces Focusing on one of Murphy's central innovations his experimentation with theatre and everyday space the book considers the significance of Murphy's work in modern drama more broadly The idea of home has preoccupied modern playwrights since the naturalist dramas of Henrik Ibsen and Anton Chekhov leading theatre scholars to focus on the everyday space of the home to the exclusion of other everyday spaces Murphy's works by contrast offer a new politics of the interior engaging with a diverse range of other spaces such as dancehalls grocery shops pubs hotels offices churches gasworks and airports His drama presents a global sense of the local an emotional map of the shifting geographies of everyday life By applying new theoretical perspectives and showcasing new archival materials inaccessible to previous scholars the book revisits Murphy as an international playwright a cartographer of our modern day global village
