Savage Beautiful Country:

The Savage and Beautiful Country Alan McGlashan, 1988 Alan McGlashan presents a sensitive view of the modern world and of time of our memories and forgetfulness joys and sorrows He takes the reader on a safari into regions that are strange and yet familiar into the savage and beautiful country of the mind No cures are offered but we are provoked to reflect on our roles and attitudes in the contemporary world jungle The Savage Beauty and Beautiful Country Alan McGlashan, 1988

A Time to Mourn Verena Kast, 2020 In what is often called her most important book Verena Kast examines the role of mourning in the therapeutic process Working as a psychotherapist Frau Kast has often observed depressive illnesses caused by painful losses which have not been adequately mourned Traditionally mourning has not been a subject of psychologists attention Frau Kast uses dreams to illustrate the stages of mourning and shows systematically how the unconscious stimulates us to encounter our grief Mourning marks an end but it also fosters personal growth It is a time of renewal a time for incubation for introspection for going into oneself to gather strength as a seed goes deep into the earth to find the resources for striving toward the light The Savage and Beautiful Country Alan McGlashan, 1967 Spiritual

Sensations Sarah K. Balstrup, 2020-09-17 The secular pluralist culture of the West encourages a subjective approach to spiritual truth where stimulating emotional experiences such as those provided by film can contribute to personal conceptions of the sacred Examining Stanley Kubrick's 2001 A Space Odyssey 1968 as the principal case study and Gaspar Noé's Enter the Void 2009 and Lars von Trier's Melancholia 2011 as comparative examples Sarah Balstrup argues that these directors harness the affective properties of film to generate altered states of perception in a manner analogous to religious practice Powerful feelings of dissociation and indescribable significance typical of mystical testimony appear in viewer responses to these films demonstrating the continued sacralisation of such states of mind In their own way each film confronts the viewer with an apocalyptic revelation of the impersonal forces of the universe moving away from personhood and the human narrative into pure sensation They present a non deterministic spiritual truth that can be intuited but not explained mirroring developments in the religious sphere Investigating the relationship between cinematic technique and religious experience Spiritual Sensations offers an alternative approach to the study of religion and film that has been principally focused on narrative symbolism and the dramatisation of values Spiritual Sensations makes a further contribution to the field by analysing films contextually considering viewers subjective responses in light of religious and cultural change

The Living Church, 1967 From the Life and Work of C.G. Jung Aniela Jaffé, 2020 Aniela Jaffé was given permission to quote from Jung's highly personal Red Book and she does so in her essay on Jung's creative phases Shortly before her death the author also updated and expanded her long famous article addressing the National Socialism accusations leveled against Jung Sir Laurens van der Post provides a sharp echo in his Epilogue written especially for this edition Chapters Parapsychology C G Jung and National Socialism From Jung's Last Years The Creative Phases in Jung's Life Alchemy

Epilogue L van der Post The Man Called Brown Condor Thomas E. Simmons, 2012-12-18 Robinson's lifelong triumph over adversity belongs to the greatest of American success stories Peter Hannaford Washington Times In this gripping never before told tale biographer Thomas E Simmons brings to life the true story of John C Robinson who rose from fraught and humble beginnings as a black child in segregated Mississippi to outstanding success He became a pilot and an expert in building and assembling his own working aircraft he also helped to establish a school of aviation at the Tuskegee Institute there would have been no Tuskegee Airmen without him and his courageous wartime service in Ethiopia during the Italian invasion in 1935 won him international fame During Robinson's service to Ethiopia he took to the air to combat the first Fascist invasion of what would become World War II This remarkable hero may have been the first American to oppose Fascism in combat When Ethiopia was freed by British troops during World War II Haile Selassie asked Robinson to return to Ethiopia to help reestablish the Ethiopian Air Force For Robinson and the five men he picked to go with him just getting to Ethiopia in wartime 1944 was an adventure in and of itself Featuring thirty five black and white photographs and based on twenty three years worth of original research when very little information on this remarkable American hero was available The Man Called Brown Condor is more than just a biography of an unfairly forgotten African American pilot this book provides insight on racial conditions in the first half of the twentieth century and illustrates the political intrigue within a League of Nations afraid to face the rise of Fascism Skyhorse Publishing along with our Arcade Good Books Sports Publishing and Yucca imprints is proud to publish a broad range of biographies autobiographies and memoirs Our list includes biographies on well known historical figures like Benjamin Franklin Nelson Mandela and Alexander Graham Bell as well as villains from history such as Heinrich Himmler John Wayne Gacy and O J Simpson We have also published survivor stories of World War II memoirs about overcoming adversity first hand tales of adventure and much more While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller we are committed to books on subjects that are sometimes overlooked and to authors whose work might not otherwise find a home Images, Meanings and

Connections Susan R. Bach, 1999 Susan Bach was born in 1902 in Berlin where she studied crystallography before escaping to London in the wake of Nazism These essays reflect on her life and work and show how the process of connecting and finding meaning continues and advances whether through pictures objects dreams or other images and myths Spiritual Boredom Dr. Erica Brown, 2012-05-17 Break the Surface of Spiritual Boredom to Find the Reservoir of Meaning Within We need to be bored When we get bored and take responsibility for our boredom we arrive at a new level of interest introspection or action that has been stirred by the very creativity used to keep boredom away The relationship between boredom and creativity is far from accidental Creative minds are often stimulated by boredom regarding it as a brain rest until the next great idea looms on the horizon of the otherwise unoccupied mind from Chapter 10 Boredom is a crisis of our age In religious terms boredom is sapping spirituality of its mystical and wholesome benefits slowly corroding our ability to recognize blessing and beauty in our lives to experience wonder and awe What happens when our need for constant newness minimizes our interest in prayer learning and the mysteries of nature This intriguing look at spiritual boredom helps you understand just what this condition is particularly as it relates to Judaism and what the absence of inspiration means to the present and future of the Jewish tradition Drawing insights from psychology philosophy and theology as well as ancient Jewish texts Dr Erica Brown explores the many ways boredom manifests itself within Judaism in the community classroom and synagogue and shows its potentially powerful cultural impact on a faith structure that advises sanctifying time not merely passing it

The Girl Who Made Stars and Other Bushman Stories Gregory McNamee, These beautiful and timeless stories from the African Bush were gathered more than a century ago and have touched thousands of readers ever since The South African born author Sir Laurens van der Post revered them and helped to make them known throughout the world For this special new edition Gregory McNamee has adapted the original nineteenth century English translations to create modern versions of the stories for readers without a prior knowledge of the Bushman ways of life The stories in this book carry universal observations and truths and with their historical and ethnographic roots in the African Bushman culture they are fascinating and educational for readers and listeners of all ages They bear powerful testimony to a desert people living at one with Nature

Jungian Reflections on September 11 Luigi Zoja, Donald Williams, Seldom has an event in the world had such a pervasive and all encompassing effect as the brutal terrorist attacks on New York and Washington in September 2001 Has our world become a different place as a result If so in what ways Along with the tragic aspects what might this global nightmare have to give us the human inhabitants of this world What is there for us to acknowledge and what old and new wounds have been opened Beyond the obvious scars what sort of a legacy has it left behind These big questions and many more face us now in the aftermath In this book the highly complex incident of 911 is circled and examined from many angles by a variety of writers who all share a training in depth psychology What might a psychotherapist or depth psychologist perceive in this eruption of shocking contents Contents September 11 Transatlantic Reflections by Luigi Zoja Islamic Terrorism by Wolfgang Giegerich The Motivation of Terrorists by Adolf Guggenbuhl Craig The Terror and The Temple by Victor Pierre Stirnimann September 11 The Need for a Safe Place by Verena Kast From Wahhabism to Talibanism by Hechmi Dhaoui Ground Zero A Reading by James Hillman Religion's Role in the Psychology of Terrorism by Ann Belford Ulanov Stories About Stories by Donald Williams With a Preface by Robert Hinshaw

this book A true man of his time Sir Laurens was born in 1906 in the interior of South Africa served in the British forces during World War II including three and a half years in Japanese captivity and lived and worked since that time in London where he died just after celebrating his 90th birthday in December 1996 The Rock Rabbit and The Rainbow was originally conceived as a Festschrift or gift collection of writings for Sir Laurens by several of his friends and then evolved into its present form which includes numerous original contributions by Sir Laurens himself The Bookman ,1898 Post Partum Papers Katherine Dickson,2008-02 Post Partum Papers is one woman s personal account of life after the birth of her third and last child covering the period from March 1972 to November 1973 It is a period of transition when she comes to terms with the fact that she will have no more children She feels that her role is to create a happy home life for her family to create a context in which each one can grow and develop his or her potential as fully as possible As the emotional center of her family how does she negotiate a balance between living as a wife and mother and living as an individual Requiem For Modern Politics William Ophuls,2019-05-20 This long promised sequel to Ophuls s influential and controversial classic Ecology and the Politics of Scarcity is an equally provocative critique of the liberal philosophy of government Ophuls contends that the modern political paradigm that is the body of political concepts and beliefs bequeathed to us by the Enlightenment is no longer intellectually tenable or practically viable Our attempt to live individualistically hedonistically and rationally has failed utterly causing a comprehensive crisis that is at once political military economic ecological ethical psychological and spiritual Liberal politics has abandoned virtue rejected community and flouted nature thereby becoming the author of its own demise By exposing the intrinsically contradictory and self destructive character of Hobbesian political systems Ophuls subverts our conventional wisdom at every turn Indeed his impassioned text reads more like a Greek tragedy than a conventional political argument He critiques feminism multiculturalism the welfare state and a host of other liberal shibboleths but Ophuls is not yet another neoconservative The aim of his thesis is far more radical and progressive offering a political vision that entirely transcends the categories of liberal thought His is a Thoreauvian vision of a politics of consciousness rooted in ecology as the moral and intellectual basis for governance in the twenty first century Ophuls holds that a polity based on a renewed erotic connection with nature offers a genuine solution to this crisis of contemporary civilization and that only within such a polity will it be possible to fulfill the worthy liberal goal of individual self development Ophuls s work will interest and challenge a wide spectrum of readers though it will not necessarily be well liked or easily accepted No one will put down this book with his or her settled convictions about American culture intact nor will readers ever again take modern civilization and its survival for granted [Catalog of Copyright Entries.
