Saving A Continent Towards A Sustainable Future:

Practical Conservation Biology David Lindenmayer, Mark Burgman, 2005-10-26 Practical Conservation Biology covers the complete array of topics that are central to conservation biology and natural resource management thus providing the essential framework for under graduate and post graduate courses in these subject areas Written by two of the world's leading environment experts it is a must have reference for environment professionals in government non government and industry sectors The book reflects the latest thinking on key topics such as extinction risks losses of genetic variability threatening processes fire effects landscape fragmentation habitat loss and vegetation clearing reserve design sustainable harvesting of natural populations population viability analysis risk assessment conservation biology policy human population growth and its impacts on biodiversity Practical Conservation Biology deals primarily with the Australian context but also includes many overseas case studies The book is the most comprehensive assessment of conservation topics in Australia and one of the most comprehensive worldwide Winner of the 2006 Whitley Award for Best Conservation Text Australian Environmental Policy 2 Ken J. Walker, Kate Crowley, 1999 A textbook of readings that replaces Australian Environmental Policy 1992 edited by Ken Walker Australia, New Zealand, and the Pacific Donald S. Garden, 2005-08-19 A fascinating study of the environmental history of Australia New Zealand and the islands of the Pacific from the time of the dinosaurs to the present day Of interest to students and academics alike this book provides a much needed synthesis of the recent literature on the environmental history of Australia and Oceania Part of ABC CLIO's Nature and Human Societies series this book maps out the key trends in the region's environmental history charting the creation of the Australian continent from the ancient land mass of Gondwanaland to the arrival of humans Especially fascinating are the chapters highlighting how successive waves of human migration created environmental havoc throughout the region leading to the collapse of the Easter Island civilization and the spread of nonindigenous flora and fauna From the controversies over the reasons why creatures such as the marsupial lion and the giant kangaroo became extinct to such contemporary problems as deforestation and global warming this book contains sobering lessons for us all The Oxford Handbook of Australian Politics Jenny M. Lewis, Anne Tiernan, 2021 This Handbook provides a comprehensive examination of Australia's distinctive politics both ancient and modern across multidisciplinary subjects It examines the factors that make Australian politics unique and interesting while firmly placing these in the context of the nation's Indigenous and imported heritage and global engagement

The Eucalyptus Robin W. Doughty, 2000 For some eucalypts are the tree of the future easily established quick to grow and intensively cultivated For others eucalypts are a blight upon native landscapes and the livelihoods of indigenous people This book tells the story of how the eucalyptus or gum tree spread from its native ranges in Australia to diverse habitats throughout the world First regarded as an exotic novelty and a popular ornamental in European botanical and residential gardens the eucalyptus became especially after World War II the favoured tree of the global pulpwood industry and Africa's Dawn Unveiling the Potential of the Continent is a groundbreaking book that offers a fresh perspective on Africa's development journey. Moving beyond tired narratives of despair, it delves into the heart of the continent to uncover its untapped potential and the transformative power of collaboration, innovation, and human capital. This book is an invitation to explore Africa's vast natural resources, its vibrant cultural heritage, and the indomitable spirit of its people. It sheds light on the challenges that have long held the continent back while also highlighting the progress that is being made and the opportunities that lie ahead. Through compelling storytelling and insightful analysis, Africa's Dawn examines the role of education, skills development, and entrepreneurship in unlocking the potential of Africa's young population. It celebrates the successes of regional cooperation and explores the transformative potential of technology and innovation. The book also confronts the challenges of poverty, inequality, corruption, and environmental degradation, head on, proposing practical solutions that can pave the way for a more just and sustainable future. It emphasizes the importance of good governance, transparency, and accountability in creating an enabling environment for progress. Africa's Dawn is a call to action for African nations to embrace unity, cooperation, and innovation to unlock their full potential. It is a celebration of the continent's rich heritage, a testament to the resilience of its people, and a roadmap for a brighter future. This book is essential reading for anyone interested in Africa's development, whether they are policymakers, business leaders, scholars, or simply individuals who want to gain a deeper understanding of this dynamic continent. It is a powerful narrative that challenges stereotypes, inspires hope, and points the way towards a more prosperous and equitable future for Africa. If you like this book, write a review on Google Books.

The Victorian Naturalist, 1997 Why Women Will Save the Planet Bloomsbury Publishing, 2018-03-01

Big cities don't have to mean a dystopian future. They can be turned around to be powerhouses of well-being and environmental sustainability if we empower women. This book is a unique collaboration between C40 and Friends of the Earth, showcasing pioneering city mayors, key voices in the environmental and feminist movements, and academics. The essays collectively demonstrate both the need for women's empowerment for climate action and the powerful change it can bring. A rallying call for the planet, for women, for everyone.
