Saving Christianity New Thinking For Old Beliefs:

Saving Christianity Hilary Wakeman, 2012-10-04 I believe because it is impossible Tertullian 2nd century Some of the statements of belief that Christians are required to assent to such as the Virgin Birth and the bodily Resurrection of Jesus are driving many of them out of the Catholic and Protestant churches and preventing new people from coming in Yet those statements were formulated nearly two thousand years ago in a time when people understood the world very differently For over 150 years theologians of all denominations have been warning the Church that if it is not to become extinct it needs to look for the truths that lie behind those ancient formulations and find new ways of presenting them But their words have been ignored by the church authorities and by priests and ministers preferring not to disturb the present faith of their congregations And so the gap between the theologians and the people in the pews continues to widen Now many Christians are taking their beliefs into their own hands Increasingly they are meeting in small groups and communities without formal leadership and without formal doctrine ignoring denominational differences yet bringing the best of their various traditions with them Is this the Christianity of the future In this book Hilary Wakeman a recently retired priest in the Church of Ireland talks about the difference between right brain and left brain approaches to faith and religion and considers some of the ways that the core doctrines of Christianity can be re stated so that they can be expressed with honesty and integrity

Empirical Theology in Texts and Tables Leslie J. Francis, Mandy Robbins, Jeff Astley, 2009 Empirical theology offers fresh and stimulating insights into the concerns of both the Church and the Academy It does this by accessing relevant empirical evidence using the tools of the social sciences and placing this evidence in the context of theological critique and contemporary debate In this pioneering collection of focused essays leading experts of empirical theology illustrate key perspectives within this rapidly expanding discipline The first section of the book explores theoretical issues underpinning the main methods of obtaining empirical data and the use of these data within theology The other two sections display the role both of qualitative studies and of the analysis of quantitative data in exploring a range of theological beliefs and religious social and educational concerns Saving Christianity? Michael Youssef, 2020-03-03 A clear and frank exploration of the future of Christianity and whether it needs to be saved We live in confusing times Our society has shifted on its moral axis and many are asking whether Christianity needs to be reinvented or even reimagined in order to save it With Newsweek declaring The Decline and Fall of Christian America on its cover and The Daily Beast guestioning Does Christianity Have a Future bloggers and Christian commentators are discussing whether we need a new of kind of Christianity In Saving Christianity Dr Michael Youssef explores this train of thought and its pitfalls He describes how similar discussions in Christianity s recent past explored the very same question Saving Christianity will help you discern what is going on within the church while it reviews the essentials of the Christian faith as described in the Bible We dare not abandon this mere faith as Dr Youssef describes it because it is the light for all humanity and especially for those of us living in today s chaotic times

After reading Saving Christianity you ll have a renewed confidence in the future of the church and the central place it will occupy for generations to come Reclaiming Jesus Ian Breckenridge-Jackson,2011-03-16 The figure of Jesus many people have today is perfectly unreal half man half god unsmiling apparently in love with death Can we do better than this sad caricature Reclaiming Jesus digs through the evidence and comes up with a few surprises and reveals a Jesus most of us haven t met before We notice his mischievous style with people and his love of the comic and the contradictory We see him as a youth in the desert struggling to contain his tumult of ideas We wonder about an unspoken grief in early years Later in the book discover how he turns traditional ideas inside out seeing human nature within a wholly new reality We examine what others made of him and trace the story forward to where we are today Finally we wonder what this extraordinary teaching about a source of strength within us can tell us as our species faces up to the daunting challenges of our own time

Challenge to the Church Marvin E. Bryce, 2005-06-21 The Christian Church has taken Jesus and converted him from a man to a mythical Christ The result has been ignorance and intolerance The real message of Jesus was human centered one of compassion love humility and tolerance Incredibly anyone who supports these ideals today remains on the fringe of the Christian faith We can choose to follow the advice of Jesus and his early followers to find fulfillment by striving to make this world our lives and the lives of others what we want them to be We need to liberate Jesus and therefore ourselves so that we can assume more responsibility for each other No matter how we eventually choose to frame it it all begins with a human Ordinary Christology Ann Christie, 2016-05-13 Ordinary Christology is defined as the account of who Jesus connection was is and what he did does that is given by Christian believers who have received no formal theological education In this fascinating study Ann Christie analyses and offers a theological appraisal of the main christologies and soteriologies operating in a sample of ordinary churchgoers Christie highlights the formal characteristics of ordinary Christology and raises questions about how we should respond to the beliefs about Jesus held by ordinary churchgoers Empirical findings have important pastoral theological and missiological implications and raise important questions about the importance or otherwise of right belief for being Christian This book presents a model for how the study of ordinary theology can be conducted with the in depth theological analysis and critique which it both requires and deserves Atonement and the New Perspective Stephen Burnhope, 2018-08-10 Atonement has been described as the central doctrine of Christianity and yet surprisingly the church has never insisted on a particular understanding of how redemption in Christ was achieved Instead a miscellary of metaphors has been employed each picturing something of Christ's work Recent debate within Reformed Evangelicalism has been characterized by claims for hegemony to be granted to penal substitution versus counter arguments for a kaleidoscopic multi model understanding Notably absent in these discussions however are two considerations One is any common nexus to draw atonement thought together The other is any positive theological contribution deriving from God's preexisting relationship with Israel the presumed role of which has rather been to provide a negative contrast of law versus grace and works versus faith as the dark background against which the light of Christ may shine more brightly Recent scholarship however particularly the new perspective on Paul has comprehensively dismantled the old stereotypes concerning first century Judaism This book asks how differently we might think about the atonement once it is brought into conversation with the new scholarship It concludes by proposing a new perspective on atonement in which Christ is central Israel and Torah are affirmed and the traditional metaphors continue to find their place Paul N. T. Wright,2008-10-28 Ranks the Apostle Paul as one of the most powerful and seminal minds of the first or any century and argues that we can now sketch with confidence a new and more nuanced picture of Paul and the radical way in which his encounter with Jesus redefined his life his mission and his expectations for a world made new in Christ Reprint

Expository Thoughts on the Gospel of Mark: A Commentary J. C. Ryle,2020-03-02 Who then is this that even the wind and the sea obey Him Mark 4 41 Wisdom encouragement and exhortation is contained in these pages Not because of the author's brilliance but because of the words of truth contained in the gospel of Mark And just as the apostle Mark didn t draw any attention to himself so also J C Ryle clearly and wonderfully directs his words and our thoughts towards the inspired words of scripture If we truly love God we will love His word and the more study His word the more we will love God

Religion and Secular Modernity in Russian Christianity, Judaism, and Atheism Ana The Christian Advocate ,1909 Siljak, 2024-11-15 Religion and Secular Modernity in Russian Christianity Judaism and Atheism is a multifaceted account of the engagement between religion and the secular in Russia's Christian Jewish and atheist traditions Ana Siljak brings together an interdisciplinary group of leading scholars to present unique perspectives on the secularization dynamic in Russia and the Soviet Union telling stories about theologians sects churches poets and artists From the Jewish Christian priest Alexander Men to the cross dressing poet Zinaida Gippius to the Soviet promoter of Yiddish theater Solomon Mikhoels Religion and Secular Modernity in Russian Christianity Judaism and Atheism gives a voice to a variety of actors who have grappled with the possibilities of faith and unbelief in an industrialized modern and seemingly secular world Now more than ever as one narrative of Russia's religious history dominates official Russian accounts alternative perspectives of the relationship between Russian religion and secularism should be highlighted and emphasized Vatican II and New Thinking about Catholic Education Sean Whittle, 2016-10-26 This volume considers the various ways in which Vatican II and its teaching on education has been received and engages with the challenges and testing times that beset faith based Dangers to the Faith Al Kresta, 2013-05-28 A storm has been brewing in society education in the twenty first century and its treatment views and activities toward the Catholic Faith Some are subtle others are more brazen New Age thought questionable spirituality creedless Christianity relativism scientific skepticism the triumph of technology and even the self styled spirituality of Oprah Winfrey All these masquerade as truth making it tough for the average Catholic to know how to resist let alone respond No one is more qualified to pull back the curtain on the challenges the Catholic Church faces today

Aaron T. O'Kelley, 2014-10-07 By placing the Reformation Bible Holiness .1899 doctrine of justification in its historical theological context against the backdrop of late medieval Catholic theology O Kelley demonstrates that the real nature of the debate between Rome and the Reformers was not grace vs works per se but rather the Reformation's clear law gospel distinction vs Rome's law gospel synthesis This extraordinary study seeks to allow the Reformers and their heirs a fair hearing in the current debate over Paul's doctrine of justification a courtesy that they have too often been denied The Faith That Saves Fred Chay, John P. Correia, 2012-08-21 Endorsements There is no more important issue in theological study than the meaning of faith in the New Testament The perennial problem of the misunderstanding concerning the nature of faith has produced a variety of theological errors as well as pastoral problems for the church In a day of rampant theological confusion concerning justification by faith the nature of faith is paramount This book provides a penetrating examination through exegetical precision concerning the nature of faith For those who believe in faith alone in Christ alone this book will guide you into an understanding of what faith is and what it is not This is a book that needed to be written and a book that must be read Earl Radmacher ThD President Emeritus Western Seminary Most evangelical Protestants agree that salvation is by faith alone in Christ alone However what they cannot agree on is the meaning of faith Are there different kinds of faith in the Bible Is there saving faith and non saving faith Is faith a matter of the mind or the mind and the emotions or the mind emotions and will Is faith active or passive on the part of the believer Is it a gift of God or a work of man All these questions and many more are explored in depth by Chay and Correia They have done a commendable job of dealing with words studies grammatical nuances and debated passages Such a work is long overdue Dave Anderson PhD President and professor of Theology Grace School of Theology President Free Grace Alliance About the Contributor's Fred Chay Th M Ph D is Professor of Theology ad Director of the Doctor of Ministry Program at Phoenix Seminary He is the founder and President of Grace Line Ministry John Correia M Div is a Senior Pastor and Adjunct Professor in Phoenix Library Journal, 2004 *Creed or conscience?
