Savonarola And The Renaissance Of Conscious 14521498:

Rhetoric and Human Consciousness Craig R. Smith, 2017-04-12 For two decades students and instructors have relied on award winning author Craig Smith's detailed description and analysis of rhetorical theories and the historical contexts for major thinkers who advanced them. He employs key themes from important philosophical schools in this well researched chronicle of rhetoric and human consciousness. One is that rhetoric is a response to uncertainty. The modern philosophers like the naturalists of ancient Greece and the Scholastics who preceded them tried to end uncertainty by combining the discoveries of science and psychology with rationalism. Their aim was progress and a consensus among experts as to what truth is. However, where modernism proved ineffective, rhetoric was revived to fill the breach. Another significant theme is that different conceptions of human consciousness lead to different theories of rhetoric and for every major school of thought another school of thought forms in reaction. Classic and contemporary examples demonstrate the usefulness of rhetorical theory especially its ability to inform and guide. By providing probes for rhetorical criticism, discussions also demonstrate that rhetorical criticism illustrates, verifies and refines rhetorical theory. Thus the synergistic relationship between theory and criticism in rhetoric is no different than in other arts. Theory informs practice, analysis of successful practice refines theory. Smith's absorbing study has been expanded to include thorough treatments of rhetoric in the Romantic Era, feminist and queer theory and historical context for the creation of rhetorical theory and its use in public address. Great Men as

Prophets of a New Era Newell Dwight Hillis, 1922 Great Men as Prophets of a New Era Newell Dwight Hillis, 2019-11-21 In Great Men as Prophets of a New Era Newell Dwight Hillis embarks on an intellectual exploration that situates influential figures throughout history as harbingers of transformative thought and change. Through eloquent prose rich with rhetorical devices, Hillis examines the lives and ideologies of prominent leaders, positing them as prophetic voices for their respective eras. This work stands not only as a historical compendium but also as a philosophical treatise that reflects the emerging progressive ideals of the early 20th century, urging readers to recognize the interconnectedness between vision and virtue in societal advancement. Newell Dwight Hillis, a noted preacher and author, was deeply embedded in the social and religious currents of his time. His extensive experience in the Congregational Church and his commitment to social reform undoubtedly influenced his belief in the capacity of great men to propel society toward a more just future. Hillis's insights reflect both a faith in human potential and a critical examination of leadership, showcasing his scholarly depth and personal convictions. Readers interested in the interplay between historical figures and societal change will find Great Men as Prophets of a New Era to be a compelling synthesis of biography, philosophy and moral inquiry. Hillis's work not only invites reflection on past leaders but also challenges contemporary audiences to consider who among us will emerge as visionary prophets for future generations. Rhetoric & Human Consciousness Craig R. Smith, 2003 This text illustrates the evolving definitions of rhetoric from myth display to persuasion, symbolic inducement. This history of rhetoric includes unique
