Pathways to the Waters of Grace David B. Batchelder,2017-05-16 What if the church took with utmost seriousness that baptism is the gift of a new identity taking a lifetime to grow into And what if that identity includes God s call to a way of life made visible in how Jesus lived his This book is a response to these questions in relationship to the church s practice of baptizing children This book s underlying premise is that how the church helps parents prepare for baptism is vital to how the whole family lives its baptismal identity throughout life as well as to the renewal of churches themselves In the last several decades institutionalized Christianity has found itself renegotiating its relationship with a culture that often has churches on the defensive for practices that are little changed from an era now past and insufficient as a witness to life as Christ s disciple This book urges a reconsideration of what churches offer parents seeking baptism for a child offering a transformed vision of such a ministry as well as a practical guide for putting it in place in the life of churches Pastors educators and leaders will find a pathway to follow that promises to be life changing for all involved

,1830 The Lord's Supper Jonathan Black,2023-07-11 Do this in remembrance of Me From the very beginning the Lord's Supper has stood at the heart of Christian worship But over the years we've trivialized it squeezing it in between real worship If Jesus lives in us and the Holy Spirit is poured out on us why do we need to eat bread and drink grape juice or wine Does it really matter It does matter and it's life changing says leading Pentecostal theologian Jonathan Black With warmth and depth he explores not only how the table is still a powerful place of transformation and encounter with Jesus but also how we can experience Christ's promise of presence glory healing forgiveness victory and intimacy when we answer His call to come to the table Whether you're feeling the lack of His presence are ashamed of sin in your life or have never felt anything during Communion Christ's invitation to partake in His feast is your invitation to taste and see that the Lord is good
