Research-based Web Design & Usability Guidelines, 2006 The guidelines were originally designed to help NCI staff improve the presentation of cancer related information to cancer researchers and the public though they are applicable to anyone who designs and manages information web sites Computer Confluence George Beekman, Eugene J. Rathswohl, 2001 Computer Confluence is more than a textbook It is the confluence of three information sources an illustrated textbook a multimedia CD ROM and a dynamic World Wide Web site Digital Government Darrell M. West, 2005 Few developments have had broader consequences for the public sector than the introduction of the Internet and digital technology In this book Darrell West discusses how new technology is altering governmental performance the political process and democracy itself by improving government responsiveness and increasing information available to citizens Using multiple methods case studies content analysis of over 17 000 government Web sites public and bureaucrat opinion survey data an e mail responsiveness test budget data and aggregate analysis the author presents the most comprehensive study of electronic government ever undertaken Among other topics he looks at how much change has taken place in the public sector what determines the speed and breadth of e government adoption and what the consequences of digital technology are for the public sector Written in a clear and analytical manner this book outlines the variety of factors that have restricted the ability of policy makers to make effective use of new technology Although digital government offers the potential for revolutionary change social political and economic forces constrain the scope of transformation and prevent government officials from realizing the full benefits of interactive technology Annual report Rand Corporation, 1996 Coded Messages Nelson McAvoy, 2010 Government is reading your mail and the Intelligence services are reading the Government's mail Who is in charge The National Security Agency was formed under such secrecy that it evades even Congressional scrutiny A former NSA scientist raises an alarm over this abuse of America's founding principles Along the way he gives a technical briefing on how messages were encrypted and deciphered until the Internet age demonstrates that the paranoiac secrecy over encryption is now obsolete and explains why All this is enlivened with entertaining behind the scenes anecdotes from the author's life at home in West Virginia in the Army and in the intelligence services during the Cold War Jesus Freaks: Martyrs DC Talk, 2005-05-01 There are more Christian martyrs today than there were in ad 100 in the days of the Roman Empire Now in the twenty first century according to the Center for the Study of Global Christianity more than 150 000 Christians are martyred around the world every year Remember the Lord's people who are in jail and be concerned for them Don't forget those who are suffering but imagine that you are there with them Hebrews 13:3 Their stories must be told The Internet and Governance in Asia Indrajit Banerjee, 2007 This book constitutes a first ever attempt to map the impact of the Internet on governance in Asia It examines key implications for democratization cyber security e government technical coordination and Internet policy and regulation The book is divided into five sections Internet and Democracy ways in which the Internet has been harnessed to promote greater democratization public debate and political participation E Government the provision of services through the Internet and other ICT networks and its impact on public accountability and transparency Cyber Security the critical issues and concerns such as surveillance as well as the means by which the Internet can be effectively used to improve security as well as minimize risks from terrorism Internet Governance critical issues relating to the technical coordination of the Internet and the prospects for the best possible means to govern the structure and operations of the Internet and Internet Policy and Regulation key policy and regulatory issues and concerns relating to the use and impact of the Internet The three chapters in each of the sections provide a diversity of perspectives covering each of the specific issues addressed by the section The idea here is to provide readers with different perspectives and case studies on the same issue Asian Media Information and Communication Centre AMIC series is available exclusively from ISEAS for worldwide distribution Media and Politics in the Southern Mediterranean Roxane

Farmanfarmaian, 2020-10-20 This edited volume presents ground breaking empirical research on the media in political transition in Tunisia Turkey and Morocco Focusing on developments in the wake of the region's upheavals in 2011 it offers a new theoretical framework for understanding mediascapes in the confessional and hybrid authoritarian systems of the Middle East In this book media scholars focus on three themes the media's structure as an expression of governance the media's function as a reflection of the market and the media's agency in communicating between power and the public The result is a unique addition to the literature on two counts Firstly analysis of similar players issues and processes in each country produces a thematically consistent comparative assessment of the media's role across the southern Mediterranean region The first cross country comparison of specific media practices in the Middle East it covers issues such as women in talk shows media's relationship with surveillance and comparative practices of media regulation Secondly actualising the idea that media reflects the society that produces it the studies here draw on field data to lay the foundations for a new theory of media Values and Status Negotiation VSN which evolved from the region's unique characteristics and practices and offers an alternative to prevailing Western centric approaches to media analysis Media and Politics in the Southern Mediterranean will appeal to students and scholars of politics sociology Media Studies Cultural Studies and Middle Eastern Studies

How Ottawa Spends, 2009-2010 Maslove Allan, 2009-10-01 This is the thirtieth volume in the series How Ottawa Spends It is arguable that never in these years have Canadians faced such serious economic upheaval and political dysfunction as the current climate The dramatic and seemingly sudden changes in the economy occurred simultaneously with a political drama one that was largely disassociated from the real and pressing economic challenge Early Harper budgets delivered lower taxes for all Canadians partly through highly targeted but politically noticeable small tax breaks on textbooks for students tools for apprentices in skilled trades and public transit costs The needs of the beleaguered average Canadian and the swing voter in the swing constituencies of an already strategized next election were a key part of Conservative agenda setting In the 2007 budget alone there were twenty nine separate tax reductions and federal spending was projected to increase by 10 billion including a 5.7 percent increase in program spending A small surplus of 3.3 billion was planned almost all of which would go to debt reduction As Harper savoured his 14 October 2008 re election with a strengthened minority government although without his desired majority he and his minister of Finance already knew that his surpluses were likely gone in the face of the crashing financial sector and a looming recession Future deficits were firmly back on the agenda Contributors include Malcolm G Bird Carleton University Chris Brown Carleton University G Bruce Doern Carleton University and University of Exeter Melissa Haussman Carleton University Robert Hilton Carleton University Ruth Hubbard University of Ottawa Edward T Jackson Carleton University Kirsten Kozolanka Carleton University Evert Lindquist University of Victoria Allan M Maslove Carleton University Peter Nares Social and Enterprise Development Innovations Gilles Paquet University of Ottawa L Pauline Rankin Carleton University Jennifer Robson Carleton University Robert P Shepherd Carleton University Richard Shillington Informetrica Limited and Chris Stoney Carleton University
