Saturday Review of Literature ,1925 The Encyclopedia of Romantic Literature, 3 Volume Set Frederick Burwick, Nancy Moore Goslee, Diane Long Hoeveler, 2012-01-30 The Encyclopedia of Romantic Literature is an authoritative three volume reference work that covers British artistic literary and intellectual movements between 1780 and 1830 within the context of European transatlantic and colonial historical and cultural interaction Comprises over 275 entries ranging from 1 000 to 6 500 words arranged in A Z format across three fully cross referenced volumes Written by an international cast of leading and emerging scholars Entries explore genre development in prose poetry and drama of the Romantic period key authors and their works and key themes Also available online as part of the Wiley Blackwell Encyclopedia of Literature providing 24 7 access and powerful searching browsing and cross referencing capabilities Large Print Catalog Florida State Library, 1982 Books in Series, 1876-1949 R.R. Bowker Company, 1982 "The Catnach Press" Charles Hindley, 1869 Revolutions in Romantic Literature Paul Keen, 2004-03-11 This concise Broadview anthology of primary source materials is unique in its focus on Romantic literature and the ways in which the period itself was characterized by wide ranging self conscious debates about the meaning of literature It includes materials that are not available in other Romantic literature anthologies The anthology is organized into thirteen sections that highlight the intensity and sophistication with which a variety of related literary issues were debated in the Romantic period These debates posed fundamental questions about the very nature of literature as a cultural phenomenon the extent and role of the reading public literature's relation to the sciences and the aesthetic the influence of contemporary commercial pressures and the impact of perceived excesses in consumer fashions The anthology foregrounds the ways that these literary debates converged with broader social and political controversies such as the French Revolution the struggle for women's rights colonialism and the anti slave trade campaign This anthology includes an impressive range of writings from the period including literary criticism and philosophical political scientific and travel writing which embodies the collection's broad approach to Romantic literature Both lesser known and more canonical writings are included and the selections are organized by topic in such a way as to dramatize the debates and exchanges which characterize the Romantic period

A Companion to Romantic Poetry Charles Mahoney, 2010-12-21 Through a series of 34 essays by leading and emerging scholars A Companion to Romantic Poetry reveals the rich diversity of Romantic poetry and shows why it continues to hold such a vital and indispensable place in the history of English literature Breaking free from the boundaries of the traditionally studied authors the collection takes a revitalized approach to the field and brings together some of the most exciting work being done at the present time Emphasizes poetic form and technique rather than a biographical approach Features essays on production and distribution and the different schools and movements of Romantic Poetry Introduces contemporary contexts and perspectives as well as the issues and debates that continue to drive scholarship in the field Presents the most comprehensive and compelling collection of essays on British Romantic poetry currently available

Transatlantic Literary Ecologies Kevin Hutchings, John Miller, 2016-11-18 Opening a dialogue between ecocriticism and transatlantic studies this collection shows how the two fields inform complement and complicate each other The editors situate the volume in its critical contexts by providing a detailed literary and historical overview of nineteenth century transatlantic socioenvironmental issues involving such topics as the contemporary fur and timber trades colonialism and agricultural improvement literary discourses on conservation and the consequences of industrial capitalism urbanization and urban environmental activism The chapters move from the broad to the particular offering insights into Romanticism's transatlantic discourses on nature and culture examining British Victorian representations of nature in light of their reception by American writers and readers providing in depth analyses of literary forms such as the adventure novel travel narratives and theological and scientific writings and bringing transatlantic and ecocritical perspectives to bear on classic works of nineteenth century American literature By opening a critical dialogue between these two vital areas of scholarship Transatlantic Literary Ecologies demonstrates some of the key ways in which Western environmental consciousness and associated literary practices arose in the context of transatlantic literary and cultural exchanges during the long nineteenth century

A Routledge Literary Sourcebook on the Poems of John Keats John R. Strachan, 2003 John Keats was one of the central figures of English Romanticism and is still one of England's most popular poets This sourcebook brings together texts and documents that provide a gateway towards an understanding of the man his life and his work

Reading Romantic Poetry Fiona Stafford, 2012-05-07 Reading Romantic Poetry introduces the major themes and preoccupations and the key poems and players of a period convulsed by revolution prolonged warfare and political crisis Provides a clear lively introduction to Romantic Poetry backed by academic research and marked by its accessibility to students with little prior experience of poetry Introduces many of the major topics of the age from politics to publishing from slavery to sociability from Milton to the mind of man Encourages direct responses to poems by opening up different aspects of the literature and fresh approaches to reading Discusses the poets own reading and experience of being read as well as analysis of the sounds of key poems and the look of the poem on the page Deepens understanding of poems through awareness of their literary historical political and personal contexts Includes the major poets of the period Blake Wordsworth Coleridge Byron Shelley Keats Burns and Clare as well as a host of less familiar writers including women
