Batch; Craft, Design and Product Andrew Tanner, 2010-09-25. Batch Craft Design and Product by Andrew Tanner covers a hot new trend coming from international craft designers making small batches of skillfully crafted work for large retail outlets. This is the cream of the contemporary craft world crossing into most disciplines and mediums including ceramics, textiles, wood, glass, precious metals, and metal work. Detailing a glorious array of these handcrafted objects, the book is filled with information gathered from each maker explaining the ideas and concepts behind their products and how they got started and developed their work. The book also includes practical information on running a small craft business such as connecting with manufacturers, dealing with press, sourcing commissions, conceptualizing packaging, and managing marketing. Also featured is a gallery and design shop guide that will appeal to craft makers for both visual interest and practical information and to craft buyers as a directory of the best contemporary work in the field.

Africa in Fashion Ken Kweku Nimo, 2022-05-05. Africa Fashion explores the kaleidoscope of craft cultures that have shaped African fashion for centuries and captures the intriguing stories of contemporary and avant garde African brands. The first chapter retells the history of African fashion, exploring Africa's textile traditions, artisanship, and role as a global resource. It showcases a carefully curated set of the continent's most dynamic brands and through interviews with prominent and inspiring designers offers rare insight into their ethos and design practice. The 10 Best of Everything Nathaniel Lande,Andrew Lande,2008 The ultimate travel guide offers an updated series of top ten lists covering top sporting events locations hotels restaurants and Sunday afternoon excursions and more than thirty extraordinary trips and expeditions on every continent Camera Craft ,1929 Fashion Meets Socialism Jukka Gronow,Sergey Zhuravlev,2015-08-19 This book presents above all a study of the establishment and development of the Soviet organization and system of fashion industry and design as it gradually evolved in the years after the Second World War in the Soviet Union which was in the understanding of its leaders reaching the mature or last stage of socialism when the country was firmly set on the straight trajectory to its final goal Communism What was typical of this complex and extensive system of fashion was that it was always loyally subservient to the principles of the planned socialist economy This did not by any means indicate that everything the designers and other fashion professionals did was dictated entirely from above by the central planning agencies Neither did it mean that their professional judgment would have been only secondary to ideological and political standards set by the Communist Party and the government of the Soviet Union On the contrary as our study shows the Soviet fashion professionals had a lot of autonomy They were eager and willing to exercise their own judgment in matters of taste and to set the agenda of beauty and style for Soviet citizens The present book is the first comprehensive and systematic history of the development of fashion and fashion institutions in the Soviet Union after the Second World War Our study makes use of rich empirical and historical material that has been made available for the first time for scientific analysis and discussion The main sources for our study came from the state party and departmental archives of the former Soviet Union We also make extensive use of oral history and the writings published in Soviet popular and professional press Mountain Craft Geoffrey Winthrop Young,1920 Fashion and Materiality Heike Jenss,Viola Hofmann,2019-10-17 Fashion is intimately tied to the material world With a focus on diverse cultural practices this book offers new insights into the dynamic relationships between fashion bodies and material culture In a series of original case studies both historical and contemporary the collection explores how fashion and clothing affect articulations of body and self experiences of time and place and the shaping of social and local global relationships With chapters from leading international scholars Fashion and Materiality takes the reader from the study of clothing and biography and an early modern foreign dress collection to Chinoiserie clothing in 18th century Europe and fast fashion production in today's China. The book also examines fashion's role in nation building and entanglements between fashion and migration across clothing donations for Syrian refugees in Germany and the circulation of refugee chic on international fashion runways. Scrutinizing the dense connections between fashion, clothing, materiality and humanity, the book shows how the material interacts forcefully with the personal and political. Crafting Anatomies Katherine Townsend, Rhian Solomon, Amanda Briggs-Goode, 2020-02-20. The human body lies at the centre of our relationship to fashion and textiles. Crafting Anatomies explores how the body has become a catalyst for archival research, creative dialogues and hybrid fabrications in fashion design. Focusing on how our response to the corporeal has shifted over time, the book looks at how it is currently influencing design and socio-material practices. With contributions from a multidisciplinary range of scholars and researchers, Crafting Anatomies examines how new technologies have become integrated with traditional fashion and textiles techniques, bringing together art, science and biomedical approaches. Traversing the cutting edge of design research, the chapters take us from the forgotten lives of historical garments to the potential of biofabrication to cross the boundaries between skin and textile. Illustrated with 120 images visualising original research, the book reveals how the human body continues to inspire future design from historical wearables to prosthetic limbs and 3D printed footwear. In doing so, it provides an inspiring account of how fashion and textile culture now impacts socio-creativity and the formation of contemporary identity.
