VanDette, 2013-02-06 This study posits that the narrative of sibling love as a culturally significant tradition in nineteenth century American fiction Ultimately Emily E VanDette suggests that these novels contribute to historical conversations about affiliation in such tumultuous contexts as sectional divisions slavery debates the Civil War and Reconstruction Founded in Fiction Thomas Koenigs, 2024-11-26 This monograph presents a new history of early American literature that traces the diverse forms of fiction circulating in the early United States 1789 1861 and how they shaped the way Americans thought and argued about political and cultural issues of their age

Stepping Out of the Shadows Mary Martha Thomas, 1995-01-30 This text explores the place of women from the perspective of race class and gender It discusses the lives of women in antebellum Alabama and the roles of both black and white women as missionaries during Reconstruction as reformers and suffrage leaders and as members of the state legislature Handbook of the American Novel of the Nineteenth Century Christine Gerhardt, 2018-06-11 This handbook offers students and researchers a compact introduction to the nineteenth century American novel in the light of current debates theoretical concepts and critical methodologies The volume turns to the nineteenth century as a formative era in American literary history a time that saw both the rise of the novel as a genre and the emergence of an independent confident American culture A broad range of concise essays by European and American scholars demonstrates how some of America's most well known and influential novels responded to and participated in the radical transformations that characterized American culture between the early republic and the age of imperial expansion Part I consists of 7 systematic essays on key historical and critical frameworks including debates about race and citizenship transnationalism environmentalism and print culture as well as sentimentalism romance and the gothic realism and naturalism Part II provides 22 essays on individual novels each combining an introduction to relevant cultural contexts with a fresh close reading and the discussion of critical perspectives shaped by literary and cultural theory Transatlantic Sensations John Cyril Barton, Kristin N. Huston, a Preface by David S. Reynolds, 2016-02-24 Bringing together sensation writing and transatlantic studies this collection makes a convincing case for the symbiotic relationship between literary works on both sides of the Atlantic Transatlantic Sensations begins with the prehistories of the genre looking at the dialogue and debate generated by the publication of sentimental and gothic fiction by William Godwin Susanna Rowson and Charles Brockden Brown Thus establishing a context for the treatment of works by Louisa May Alcott Mary Elizabeth Braddon Dion Boucicault Wilkie Collins Charles Dickens George Lippard Charles Reade Harriet Beecher Stowe and George Thompson the volume takes up a wide range of sensational topics including sexuality slavery criminal punishment literary piracy mesmerism and the metaphors of foreign literary invasion and diseased reading Concluding essays offer a reassessment of the realist and domestic fiction of George Eliot Charlotte Yonge and Thomas Hardy in the context of transatlantic sensationalism emphasizing the evolution of the genre throughout the century and mapping a new transatlantic lineage for this immensely popular literary form The book's final essay examines an international kidnapping case that was a journalistic sensation at the turn of the twentieth century

The Biopolitics of Feeling Kyla Schuller, 2018-01-05 In The Biopolitics of Feeling Kyla Schuller unearths the forgotten multiethnic sciences of impressibility the capacity to be transformed by one's environment and experiences to uncover how biopower developed in the United States Schuller challenges prevalent interpretations of biopower and literary cultures to reveal how biopower emerged within the discourses and practices of sentimentalism Through analyses of evolutionary theories gynecological sciences abolitionist poetry and other literary texts feminist tracts child welfare reforms and black uplift movements Schuller excavates a vast apparatus that regulated the capacity of sensory and emotional feeling in an attempt to shape the evolution of the national population Her historical and theoretical work exposes the overlooked role of sex difference in population management and the optimization of life illuminating how models of binary sex function as one of the key mechanisms of racializing power Schuller thereby overturns long accepted frameworks of the nature of race and sex difference offers key corrective insights to modern debates surrounding the equation of racism with determinism and the liberatory potential of ideas about the plasticity of the body and reframes contemporary notions of sentiment affect sexuality evolution and heredity

Moveable Designs, Liminal Aesthetics, and Cultural Production in America since 1772 Stefan L. Brandt, 2022-11-30 The book explores the liminal aesthetics of U S cultural and literary practice Interrogating the notion of a presumptive unity of the American experience Moveable Designs argues that inner conflict divisiveness and contradiction are integral to the nation's cultural designs themes and motifs The study suggests that U S literary and cultural practice is permeated by moveable designs flexible yet constant features of hegemonial practice that constitute an integral element of American national self-fashioning The naturally pervasive liminality of U S cultural production is the key to understanding the resilience of American culture Moveable Designs looks at artistic expressions across various media types literature paintings film television seeking to illuminate critical phases of U S American literature and culture from the revolutionary years to the movements of romanticism realism and modernism up to the postmodern era It combines a wide array of approaches from cultural history and social anthropology to phenomenology

Connecting an analysis of literary and cultural texts with approaches from design theory the book proposes a new way of understanding American culture as design It is one of the unique characteristics of American culture that it creates or rather designs potency out of its inner conflicts and apparent disunities That which we describe as an identifiable American identity is actually the product of highly vulnerable alternating processes of dissolution and self affirmation
