Sense Nonsense:

Nonsense and Other Senses Elisabetta Tarantino with the collaboration of Carlo Caruso, 2020-07-24 This book deals with a topic that is gaining increasing critical attention the literature of nonsense and absurdity The volume gathers together twenty one essays on various aspects of literary nonsense according to criteria that are deliberately inclusive and eclectic Its purpose is to offer a gallery of nonsense practices in literature across periods and countries in the conviction that important critical insights can be gained from these juxtapositions Most of the cases presented here deal with linguistic nonsense but in a few instances the nonsense operates at the higher level of the interpretation of reality on the part of the subject or of the impossibility thereof The contributors to the volume are established and younger scholars from various countries Chronologically the chapters range widely from Dante to Václav Havel and offer a large span of national literatures Czech English Finnish French German Italian Japanese and literary genres poetry prose and drama inviting the readers to trace their own pathway and draw their own lines of connection One point that emerges with particular force is the notion that what distinguishes literary nonsense is its somehow regulated nature Literary nonsense thus sounds like a deliberate last ditch attempt to snatch order from the jaws of chaos the speech of the Fool as opposed to the tale told by an idiot It is this kind of post Derridean retrieval of choice as the defining element in semantic transactions which is perhaps the most significant insight bequeathed by the study of nonsense to the analysis of poetry and literature in general Language, Text and Context Michael Toolan, 2016-11-18 First published in 1992 this wide ranging collection of essays focuses on the principle of contextualisation as it applies to the interpretation description theorising and reading of literary and non literary texts The collection aims to reveal the interdependencies between theory analysis text and context by challenging the myth that stylistics entails a fundamental separation of text from context linguistic description from descriptive interpretation or language from situation The essays cover a historically diverse set of texts from Puttenham to Colemanballs and a number of language sensitive topics such as post modernism irony newspaper representations gender and narrative Vocabulary Building Through Domains, Cosmic Reconciliation Glen C. Cutlip, 2000-02-09 Cosmic Reconciliation contains two other volumes The All Oneness of God and The Living Christ Consciousness All three volumes are concerned with the reconciliation of all things through ones Christ Self unto the the God Self of the many within the one If you can bear to hear now what many could not bear to hear two thousand years ago you will not want to miss the good news of the reconciliation of all things unto God To see the Christ as is is to come to see God as God is not what either might appear to be The reconciliation of all things unto God is the reconciliation of an infinity of many unto the One for the one and the many are realized to be two parts of the same thing Now is the time to take responsibility for what you are in God for now we can see how that an infinity of many share that responsibility with us And in that sense the burden is considered to be light not heavy burden The Joke of Reality Tristan Burt, 2025-05-06 In his Critique of Pure Reason Immanuel Kant noted that the understanding intuits nothing

Now the significance of this insight comes to light Tristan Burt explains why our intuition of nothing resolves a central philosophical problem how can we know what is absolutely real The answer to this question is as surprising and amusing as reality itself Modernism's Inhuman Worlds Rasheed Tazudeen,2024-08-15 Modernism's Inhuman Worlds explores the centrality of ecological precarity species indeterminacy planetary change and the specter of extinction to modernist and contemporary metamodernist literatures Modernist ecologies Rasheed Tazudeen argues emerge in response to the enigma of how to imagine inhuman being including soils forests oceans and the earth itself through languages and epistemologies that have only ever been humanist How might meta modernist aesthetics help us to imagine with inhuman worlds including the worlds still to be made on the other side of mass extinction Through innovative readings of canonical and emergent modernist and metamodernist works Tazudeen theorizes inhuman modernism as a call toward further receptivity to the worlds beings and relations that tend to go unthought within Western humanist epistemologies Modernist engagements with the figures of enigma riddle and metaphor according to the book's central argument offer a means toward what Franz Kafka calls an otherwise speaking based on language's obliqueness to inhuman and planetary being Drawing on ecocriticism decolonial and feminist science studies postcolonial theory inhuman geography and sound studies Tazudeen analyzes an inhuman modernist lineage spanning from Darwin Carroll and Flaubert through Joyce Kafka and Woolf to contemporary poetic works as both part of a collaborative rethinking of modernism's planetary and inhuman aesthetics as well as occasions for imagining new modes of livingness for the extinctions to come The Psychology of Learning and Motivation

,2013-05-14 Psychology of Learning and Motivation publishes empirical and theoretical contributions in cognitive and experimental psychology ranging from classical and instrumental conditioning to complex learning and problem solving Each chapter thoughtfully integrates the writings of leading contributors who present and discuss significant bodies of research relevant to their discipline Volume 59 includes chapters on such varied topics as pupillometric studies of face memory self organization of human interaction and the role of relational competition in the comprehension of modifier noun phrases and noun noun compounds Volume 59 of the highly regarded Psychology of Learning and Motivation series An essential reference for researchers and academics in cognitive science Relevant to both applied concerns and basic research The Cry of the Senses

Ren Ellis Neyra,2020-10-26 In The Cry of the Senses Ren Ellis Neyra examines the imaginative possibility for sound and poetics to foster new modes of sensorial solidarity in the Caribbean Americas Weaving together the black radical tradition with Caribbean and Latinx performance cinema music and literature Ellis Neyra highlights the ways Latinx and Caribbean sonic practices challenge antiblack colonial post Enlightenment and humanist epistemologies They locate and address the sonic in its myriad manifestations across genres and forms in a legal trial and in the art and writing of Xandra Ibarra the Fania All Stars Beatriz Santiago Muñoz and Eduardo Corral while demonstrating how it operates as a raucous form of diasporic dissent and connectivity Throughout Ellis Neyra emphasizes Caribbean and Latinx sensorial practices while attuning readers to the many forms of blackness and queerness Tracking the sonic through their method of multisensorial poetic listening Ellis Neyra shows how attending to the senses can inspire alternate ethical ways of collective listening and being      Peeling Potatoes or Grinding Lenses Aristides Baltas, 2014-03-13 I can work best now while peeling potatoes It is for me what lens grinding was for Spinoza L Wittgenstein More than 250 years separate the publication of Baruch Spinoza's Ethics and Ludwig Wittgenstein's Tractatus Logico Philosophicus Both are considered monumental philosophical treatises produced during markedly different times in human history and notoriously challenging to interpret In Peeling Potatoes or Grinding Lenses Aristides Baltas contends that these works bear a striking similarity based on the idea of radical immanence Each purports to understand the world thought and language from the inside and in a way leading to the dissolution of all philosophy In that guise both offer a powerful argument against fundamentalism of all sorts and kinds To Spinoza God is just Nature God is not above or separate from the world humanity or mere objects for as Nature He inheres in everything To Wittgenstein logic is not above or separate from language thought and the world The hardness of the logical must inheres in states of affairs facts thoughts and linguistic acts Outside there are no truths or sense only nonsense Through close readings of the texts based on lessons drawn from radical paradigm change in science Baltas finds in both works a single minded purpose implacable reasoning and an austerity of style that are rare in the history of philosophy He analyzes the structure and content of each treatise the authors intentions the limitations and possibilities afforded by scientific discovery in their respective eras their radical opposition to prevailing philosophical views and draws out the particulars as well as the implications of the arresting match between the two      The Ethics and Poetics of Alterity Maylis Rospide, Sandrine Sorlin, 2015-09-04 This volume focuses on language and ethics in literary genres such as dystopia science fiction and fantasy that depict encounters with alterity Indeed so called genre literature embodies a heuristic model that dramatizes and exacerbates these encounters by featuring exotic subhuman or post human beings that defy human knowledge elements particularly prevalent in science fiction and fantasy These genres have often been regarded as an entertaining or escapist field that does not lend itself to ethical and poetical reflections limiting its scope to a hollow and servile repetition of genre codes This volume shows unequivocally that this field does lend itself to such reflections The contributors to this book highlight genre literature's defamiliarising power through which things can be seen In meta conceptualising the relationship between language and reality it problematises and enhances this relation by making it more easily perceivable The book shows that rather than contenting itself with merely questioning the mechanism of estrangement genre literature explores the confines of readability and the boundary between the readerly and the writerly In their desire to represent the Other in all its complexity writers are indeed confronted with an ethical and poetical aporia how can what escapes humanity be described in human language How can human language represent things that have no known referent in the reader's world of experience This collection of essays reveals that the most prototypical traits of genre literature lie in the encounter with otherness and the linguistic issues this raises      Perception Barry Maund,2014-12-18 The philosophical issues raised by perception make it one of the central topics in the philosophical tradition Debate about the nature of perceptual knowledge and the objects of perception comprises a thread that runs through the history of philosophy In some historical periods the major issues have been predominantly epistemological and related to scepticism but an adequate understanding of perception is important more widely especially for metaphysics and the philosophy of mind For this reason Barry Maund provides an account of the major issues in the philosophy of perception that highlights the importance of a good theory of perception in a range of philosophical fields while also seeking to be sensitive to the historical dimension of the subject The work presents chapters on forms of natural realism theories of perceptual experience representationalism the argument from illusion phenomenological senses types of perceptual content the representationalist intentionalist thesis and adverbialist accounts of perceptual experience The ideas of among others Austin Dretske Heidegger Millikan Putnam and Robinson are considered and the reader is given a philosophical framework within which to consider the issues

Shakespeare / Text Claire M. L. Bourne,2021-07-29 Shakespeare Text sets new agendas for the study and use of the Shakespearean text Written by 20 leading experts on textual matters each chapter challenges a single entrenched binary such as book theatre source adaptation text paratext canon apocrypha sense nonsense extant ephemeral material digital and original copy that has come to both define and limit the way we read analyze teach perform and edit Shakespeare today Drawing on methods from book history bibliography editorial theory library science the digital humanities theatre studies and literary criticism the collection as a whole proposes that our understanding of Shakespeare and early modern drama more broadly changes radically when either or approaches to the Shakespearean text are reconfigured The chapters in Shakespeare Text make strong cases for challenging received wisdom and offer new portable methods of treating the text in its myriad instantiations that will be useful to scholars editors theatre practitioners teachers and librarians

Pervert-Schizoid-Woman Michael Williams,2016-12-14 Touching on the fields of philosophy critical theory cultural studies and queer theory Pervert Schizoid Woman critiques the organization of Western economy language and desire Author Michael Williams seeks to promote alternative frameworks for a posthumanist theory and practice of perverse selfhood and sociality In this study he identifies the capitalist economic system as structured by scarcity and supply demand dynamics discerning the paradoxical accumulation of debt as the essence of the assumed scarcity in the financial system He also uncovers the profound isomorphism between the economics of scarcity and the castration and lack at the center of the psychoanalytic interpretation of gender sexuality and desire concluding that the essential negativity in the scarcity of capitalism the absence in the structure of language and the castration in the network of desire are the sources of the dysfunctions in Western systems of finance expression and gender and sexuality      Wittgenstein Kelly Dean Jolley,2014-12-05 Wittgenstein s complex and demanding work challenges much that is taken for granted in philosophical thinking as well as in the theorizing of art theology science and culture Each essay in this collection explores a key concept involved in Wittgenstein s thinking relating it to his understanding of philosophy and outlining the arguments and explaining the implications of each concept Concepts covered include grammar meaning and meaning blindness language games and private language family resemblances psychologism rule following teaching and learning avowals Moore s Paradox aspect seeing the meter stick and criteria Students new to Wittgenstein and readers interested in developing their understanding of specific aspects of his philosophical work will find this book very welcome     The Works of Jeremy Bentham, Now First Collected Jeremy Bentham,1839     The Bleeding of Mozart Lucien Karhausen,2011     Pragmatism as a Way of Life Hilary Putnam,Ruth Anna Putnam,2017-05-15 Hilary Putnam argues that all facts are dependent on cognitive values Ruth Anna Putnam turns the problem around illuminating the factual basis of moral principles Together they offer a pragmatic vision that in Hilary s words serves as a manifesto for what the two of us would like philosophy to look like in the twenty first century and beyond     Eschatology Michael Norton Blustein,2008 At the end of his life the poet encounters the End of Days Death Judgment Heaven and Hell in everything around him In his secular ironic way he meditates on the final destiny of humankind Personal life draws to a close and the trivial the sublime and the ridiculous commingle in the poem in the Kingdom of God that is within us and that we are within     The Works Jeremy Bentham,1843     The Quarterly Review ,1888
