Crockett, J. Robbins, 2012-10-19 Following Vattimo's postmodern philosophy Badiou's postmetaphysical ontology and its revolutionary style the authors of this marvelous book invite us to reactivate our politics of resistance against our greatest enemy corporate capitalism The best solution to the ecological energy and financial crisis corporate capitalism has created as Crockett Clayton and Jeffrey Robbins suggest is a new theological materialism where Being is conceived as energy both subjectively and objectively All my graduate students will have to read this book carefully if they want to become philosophers Santiago Zabala ICREA Research Professor at the University of Barcelona This is a book of an extraordinary timeliness written in an accessible and strikingly informative way It is excellently poised to become a synthetic and agenda setting statement about the implications of a new materialism for the founding of a new radical theology a new kind of spirituality I consider this therefore quite a remarkable book which will be influential in ongoing discussions of psychoanalysis continental philosophy and theology Moreover it will be quite simply the best book about spirituality and the new materialism on the market today While all of the work of the new materialists engage at one level or another the question of a new spirituality I do not think there is anything comparable in significance to what Crockett and Robbins have provided here Ward Blanton University of Kent This book will perhaps be most appreciated by the reader with an intuitive cast of mind able to recognize the force of an argument in its imaginative suggestiveness New Materialism is about energy transformation we are told energy which cannot be reduced to matter because it resonates with spirit and life Yet the book strikes a fundamental note of hard reality if we want our civilization to live on earth a little longer we will have to recognize our coexistence with and in earth Christian Ecology Link A History of the earth and animated nature v.2 Oliver Goldsmith, 1852 This Sacred Earth Roger S. Internalism and the Limits of Twin Earth Scenarios Jan Almäng, 2024-12-20 Internalism and the Limits of Twin Earth Scenarios A Study of Phenomenal Intentionalism explores visual perceptual experiences and whether or not visual intentional content is internal or external Coming from the standpoint of phenomenal intentionalism this book assumes that phenomenal consciousness is internal to the subject of a perceptual experience Jan Alm ng argues that the structure of the phenomenal character of visual experiences sets certain limits with respect to whether Twin Earth thought experiments can be successful suggesting that while Twin Earth thought experiments are successful for entities such as colours they fail with respect to more complex geometrical structures Because visual perceptual experiences represent in an analogue manner this prevents certain kinds of Twin Earth scenarios from being successful Alm ng then argues that some phenomenal intentional content is internal If visual experiences have a perspectival structure that this by necessity means that they are intentional
