Senses And Sensibilities:

Senses and Sensibilities Jillyn Smith, 1989-05-24 A lively book about the five senses beginning with a history of sensing Comprehensively treats each of the five senses from concrete explanations and problems of sensory loss and deprivation to the sociological implications of our sensory input From sensory disorders and individual differences in perception to an exploration of the fine art of tasting and an exploration of therapeutic touch Engagingly entertains such subjects as eyebrow greetings artificial noses and the effect of sugar on our moods

The Universal (in the Realm of the Sensible) Dorothea Olkowski, 2007 The Universal proposes a radically new philosophical system that moves from ontology to ethics Drawing on the work of De Beauvoir Sartre and Le Doeuff among others and addressing a range of topics from the Asian sex trade to late capitalism quantum gravity and Merleau Ponty's views on cinema Dorothea Olkowski stretches the mathematical political epistemological and aesthetic limits of continental philosophy and introduces a new perspective on political structures Straddling a course between formalism and conventionalism Olkowski develops the concept of an ontological unconscious that arises from our sensible relation to the world the information we absorb and emit that affects our encounters with the environment and others In this realm of the senses or the field of vulnerability defined by our experience with pleasure and pain Olkowski is able to rethink the space time relations put forth by Irigaray's notion of the interval Bergson's recollection Merleau Ponty's idea of the flesh and Deleuze's plane of immanence This aesthetic sense is shared by all humankind and nonhuman entities in the organic and inorganic world The sensible universal can be applied to categories of pure and practical reason experiential binaries of male female and subject object and issues of autonomy moral laws and the regulation of perception

Sensible Objects Elizabeth Edwards, Chris Gosden, Ruth Phillips, 2020-05-31 Anthropologists of the senses have long argued that cultures differ in their sensory registers This groundbreaking volume applies this idea to material culture and the social practices that endow objects with meanings in both colonial and postcolonial relationships It challenges the privileged position of the sense of vision in the analysis of material culture Contributors argue that vision can only be understood in relation to the other senses In this they present another challenge to the assumed western five sense model and show how our understanding of material culture in both historical and contemporary contexts might be reconfigured if we consider the role of smell taste touch and sound as well as sight in making meanings about objects Sensing China Shengqing Wu,Xuele Huang,2022-08-16 This book presents the first collection of studies of the senses and sensory experiences in China filling a gap in sensory research while offering new approaches to Chinese Studies Bringing together 12 chapters by literary scholars and historians this book critically interrogates the deeply rooted meanings that the senses have coded in Chinese culture and society Built on an exploration of the sensorium in early Chinese thought and late imperial literature this book reveals the sensory manifestations of societal change and cultural transformation in China from the nineteenth century to the present day It features in depth examinations of a variety of concepts representations and practices including aural and visual paradigms in ancient Chinese texts odours in Ming Qing literature and Republican Shanghai the tactility of kissing and the sonic culture of community singing in the Republican era the socialist sensorium in art propaganda memory and embodied experiences and contemporary era multisensory cultural practices Engaging with the exciting sensory turn this original work makes a unique contribution to the world history of the senses and will be a valuable resource to scholars and students of Chinese Literature History Cultural Studies and Media The World Book Dictionary ,2003 An English language dictionary in two volumes that provides definitions spellings and pronunciations to more than 225 000 terms Microsoft Encarta College Dictionary Anne H. Shopping and the Senses, 1800-1970 Serena Dyer, 2022-03-12 This book demonstrates the primacy of touch smell taste sight and sound within the retail landscape It shows that histories of the senses body and emotions were inextricably intertwined with processes and practices of retail and consumption Shops are sensory feasts From the rustle of silk to the tempting aroma of coffee the multi sensory appeal of goods has long been at the heart of how we shop This book delves into and beyond this seductive idyl of consumer sensuality Shopping was a sensory activity for consumers and retailers alike but this experience was not always positive This book is inhabited by tired feet and weary workers as well as eager shoppers It considers embodied sensory experiences and practices and it represents both a celebration and interrogation of the integration of sensory histories into the study of retail and consumption Crucially this book places breathing feeling human bodies back into the retail space
