

sentence composing for middle school

DON KILLGALLON

With the original publication of his sentence composing series, Don Killgallon changed the way thousands of high school English teachers and their students look at language, literature, and writing by focusing on the sentence. In this new book, Killgallon presents the same proven methodology, but offers all-new writing exercises designed specifically for the middle school student.

Unlike traditional grammar books that emphasize sentence analysis, this worktext asks students to imitate the sentence styles of professional writers, making the sentence composing process enjoyable and challenging. Killgallon teaches subliminally, nontechnically, the same way real writers compose their sentences and real students subsequently intuit within their own writing.

Designed to produce sentence maturity and variety, the worktext offers extensive practice in four sentence-manipulating techniques: sentence unscrambling, sentence imitating, sentence combining, and sentence expanding. All of the activities are based on model sentences written by widely respected authors. They are designed to teach students structures they should but seldom use. The rationale is that imitation and practice are as valuable in gaining competence and confidence in written language production as they are in oral language production.

A veteran secondary school English teacher, Don Killgallon now teaches writing at the University of Maryland (Baltimore County Campus). He is the author of Sentence Composing for High School (Boynton/Cook, 1998) and Sentence Composing for College (Boynton/Cook, 1998).
