Separate Vision Isolation In Contemporary Womens Poetry:

A Separate Vision Deborah Pope, 1999-03-01 The emergence of large numbers of women writers expressing a deliberately female consciousness has marked one of the significant directions of literature in this century. A central idea embraced by these writers has been the particular isolation or marginality felt by women. In A Separate Vision Deborah Pope focuses on four representative poets: Louise Bogan, Maxine Kumin, Denise Levertov, and Adrienne Rich, to explore the ways in which women writers' treatment of isolation extends our perception of women's experience and our understanding of the alienated human sensibility. In the work of these poets, Pope identifies four distinct phases of isolation: split self and validation. These phases represent a progression from negation to affirmation, from a sense of powerlessness and severe restriction to one of literal and psychological freedom. She shows how the dynamics of this progression have operated in each poet's development, with each starting from the negative stance of victimization and moving in varying degrees toward validation. But Pope also finds that in each woman's work, one phase of isolation is predominant. She sees the tension and confessionalism in the poetry of Bogan, the earliest of the four, as most representative of victimization. Kumin's poems on her alienation from familial and social experiences exemplify personalization. The split self is manifested most clearly in Levertov, whose work shows a woman torn between her social female self and her inner artistic self. Rich, the most committed feminist of this group, is also the strongest exemplar of validation. Her recent poems are charged with personality and power, and the isolation in her writing is the isolation of those in the forefront of exploration and change. This progress toward a positive sense of women's isolation is a significant movement in contemporary poetry. With what Pope describes as their vigorous revisioning of our patterns of human experience, women poets are today showing us new ways of understanding and realizing human dignity and worth.

A separate vision Deborah Pope, 1984 Fashioning the Female Subject Sabine Sielke, 1997 Exploring the interrelatedness of the poetry of three American women writers Denise Levertov Albert Gelpi, 1993 Illuminating reflections on the achievements of poet Denise Levertov Understanding Adrienne Rich Jeannette E. Riley, 2016-08-31 The journey of an important feminist writer through poetry, prose, and politics. Among the most celebrated American poets of the past half century, Adrienne Rich was the recipient of numerous awards, including the Bollingen Prize, the National Book Award, and the Lannan Lifetime Achievement Award. In Understanding Adrienne Rich, Jeannette E. Riley assesses the full scope of Rich's career from 1957 to her death in 2012 through a chronological exploration of her poetry and prose. Riley details the evolution of Rich's feminist poetics as she investigated issues of identity, sexuality, gender, the desire to reclaim women's history, and what she terms the dream of a common language. Throughout the book, she documents Rich's gradually developing assertion that poetry can create social change and engage people in the democratic process. Interweaving explications of Rich's poetry with analysis of her prose, Riley offers a close look at the development of the author's voice from formalist poet to feminist visionary to citizen poet. A Study Guide for Louise Bogan's "Words for Departure" Gale,
