Separate Worlds Studies Of Purdah In South Asia:

Separate Worlds Hanna Papanek, Gail Minault, 1982 Contributed papers      Separate Worlds Hanna Papanek, Gail Minault, 1982      Recent Work in Women's History Esther Katz, 1986 This enlightening volume reveals the range and depth of the scholarship in women's history that has emerged in the past decade. Experts examine women's past within distinct and variable cultures including India, China, and the Middle East, as well as the United States, France, and England. Crucial issues are debated, resulting in a remarkable level of consensus among historians in the evaluations of women's roles and activities. This exciting and important volume clearly demonstrates that women's history continues to raise new and valuable questions for historians. And historians continue to demonstrate that women's history is not only relevant but intrinsic to understanding fully the process of historical development.      Inscribing South Asian Muslim Women Tahera Aftab, 2008 Offers an annotated source for the study of the public and private lives of South Asian Muslim women.      Islamic Family Law in a Changing World 'Abd Allāh Aḥmad Na'īm, 2002-08 In Islamic Family Law in a Changing World Abdullahi A. An-Na'im explores the practice of the Shari'a, commonly known as Islamic Family Law. An-Na'im shows that the practical application of Shari'a principles is often modified by theological differences of interpretation, a country's particular customary practices, and state policy and law.      Global Dynamics of Shi'a Marriages Yafa Shanneik, Annelies Moors, 2021-10-15 This edited volume brings together contributions of authors who engage with the marriages of Twelver Shi'a Muslims in Iran, Pakistan, Oman, Indonesia, Norway, and the Netherlands. With the wide geographical spread, the book offers the first comparative study of the diverse ways in which Shi'a Muslims enter into marriage.      The Routledge International Handbook to Veils and Veiling Anna-Mari Almila, David Inglis, 2017-07-06 Veils and veiling are controversial topics in social and political life, generating debates across the world. The veil is enmeshed within a complex web of relations encompassing politics, religion, and gender, and conflicts over the nature of power, legitimacy, belief, freedom, agency, and emancipation. In recent years, the veil has become both a potent and unsettling symbol and a rallying point for discourse and rhetoric concerning women, Islam, and the nature of politics. Early studies in gender doctrine and politics of veiling appeared in the 1970s, following the Islamic revival and re-veiling trends that were dramatically expressed by 1979's Iranian Islamic revolution. In the 1990s, research focussed on the development of both an Islamic culture industry and greater urban middle-class consumption of Islamic garments and dress styles across the Islamic world. In the last decade, academics have studied Islamic fashion and marketing, the political role of the headscarf, the veiling of other religious groups such as Jews and Christians, and secular forms of modest dress. Using work from contributors across a range of disciplinary backgrounds and locations, this book brings together these research strands to form the most comprehensive book ever conceived on this topic. As such, this handbook will be of interest to scholars and students of fashion, gender studies, religious studies, politics, and sociology.      The Changing Role of Women in Bengal, 1849-1905 Meredith Borthwick, 2015-12-08 Basing her work on Bengali language sources such as women's journals, private papers, biographies and autobiographies. Meredith Borthwick approaches the lives of women in nineteenth century Bengal from a new standpoint. She moves beyond the record of the heated debates held by men of this period over matters such as widow burning, child marriage and female education to explore the effects of changes in society on the lives of women and to question assumptions about advances prompted by British rule. Focusing on the wives, mothers and daughters of the English educated Bengali professional class, Dr Borthwick contends that many reforms merely substituted a restrictive British definition of womanhood for traditional Hindu norms. The positive gains for women—increased physical freedom, the acquisition of literacy and limited entry to non-domestic work—often brought unforeseen negative consequences such as a reduction in autonomy and power in the household. Originally published in 1984, The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print-on-demand technology to again make available previously out-of-print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press. These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions. The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905.

Embroidering Lives Clare M. Wilkinson-Weber, 1999-03-25. Fusing aesthetic and economic analyses, Embroidering Lives investigates the lives and work of women in the chikan embroidery industry of Lucknow, India. Richly descriptive and accessibly written, the book explores many important issues in women's studies, anthropology and urban development: today, the impact of purdah, seclusion of women upon women's work and occupational opportunities; the key role of sub-contractors in home-based industry; the need to understand a handicraft from its makers' point of view; and the role of development agencies and programs.

The Palgrave Handbook of Urban Ethnography Italo Pardo, Giuliana B. Prato, 2017-11-14. These ethnographically based studies of diverse urban experiences across the world present cutting-edge research and stimulate an empirically grounded theoretical reconceptualization. The essays identify ethnography as a powerful tool for making sense of life in our rapidly changing complex cities. They stress the point that while there is no need to fetishize fieldwork or to view it as an end in itself, its unique value cannot be overstated. These active engaged researchers have produced essays that avoid abstractions and generalities while engaging with the analytical complexities of ethnographic evidence. Together they prove the great value of knowledge produced by long-term fieldwork to mainstream academic debates and more broadly to society.

After Eden Mary Stewart Van Leeuwen, 1993. Written by an interdisciplinary team of scholars, this substantial volume offers a wide-ranging examination from a Christian perspective of the many complexities surrounding gender relations, showing how they have changed and how they still need to change if we are to be the men and women God meant us to be. No other book treats the systemic embedding of gender issues in all areas of life.

Women and Labour in Late Colonial India Samita Sen, 1999-05-06. Samita Sen's history of labouring women in Calcutta in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries considers how social constructions of gender shaped their lives.

Dr Sen demonstrates how in contrast to the experience of their male counterparts the long term trends in the Indian economy devalued women's labour establishing patterns of urban migration and changing gender equations within the family. She relates these trends to the spread of dowry enforced widowhood and child marriage. The book provides insight into the lives of poor urban women who were often perceived as prostitutes or social pariahs. Even trade unions refused to address their problems and they remained on the margins of organized political protest. The study will make a significant contribution to the understanding of the social and economic history of colonial India and to notions of gender construction. Behind the Veil Abdur Raheem Kidwai, 2007. This volume of ten collected articles stands out at one level as a contribution to Marginality studies. Its overarching concern is to identify the main contours of the representation of Muslim woman in post Independence Indian Writings in English 1950-2000. So doing it examines also whether this representation replicates or modifies the image of Muslim woman as ingrained in Western literary tradition. Among the writers discussed are Anita Desai, Shashi Deshpande, Shashi Tharoor, Manohar Malgonkar, Attia Hossain, Balwant Gargi, Rokeya Sakhawat Hossain, Amitav Kumar, Ruskin Bond, Qurratulain Hyder and a host of story writers of Indian regional languages. Besides the Volume is an extensive Bibliography covering the discourse on Representation and Gender issues with pointed reference to Muslim woman. New Book.

Cultural Anthropology John H. Bodley, 2011-04-16. This introductory text introduces basic concepts in cultural anthropology by comparing cultures of increasing scale and focusing on specific universal issues throughout human history. Cultural materials are presented in integrated ethnographic case studies organized by cultural and geographic areas to show how ideological, social organization and material features fit together in specific sociocultural systems. John H. Bodley explicitly seeks a balance between ecological, materialist and cultural ideological explanations of sociocultural systems while stressing the importance of individual power seeking and human agency. Part One examines domestic scale autonomous tribal cultures. Part Two presents politically organized class based civilizations and ancient empires in the imperial world. Part Three surveys global industrial market based civilizations in the contemporary commercial world. Cultural Anthropology uniquely challenges students to consider the big questions about the nature of cultural systems. Women in World History: v. 2: Readings from 1500 to the Present Sarah Shaver Hughes, Brady Hughes, 2015-04-29. This work is one of two volumes presenting selected histories from Asia, Africa, Europe and the Americas. It discusses issues within a female context and features political and economic issues, marriage practices, motherhood and enslavement, religious beliefs and spiritual development. The Armenian Women's Movement in the Late Ottoman Empire Hasmik Khalapyan, 2025-01-09. The last decades of the Ottoman Empire saw heated debates about and changes to the role of women in society. This book analyses the history of the women's movement among Ottoman Armenians. Examining debates on the role of women in the Armenian context, Armenian women's access to education, work and marriage rights, it reveals how women were empowered by nationalist discourses and the wider movement for reform in the empire and the ways these limited or broadened women's activism Drawing from a wide array of archival primary source material it provides a comprehensive and comparative analysis of changes to the socio economic political cultural status of Ottoman Armenian women from end of the Tanzimat period to the outbreak of World War I      Muslim Women, Reform and Princely Patronage Siobhan Lambert-Hurley,2007-01-24 Shedding new light on an important part of India s history Lambert Hurley skillfully examines the emergence of a Muslim women s movement in India      Marriage among Muslims Hastings Donnan,2023-10-09

Writing the Women's Movement Mala Khullar,2005 Contributed articles presented earlier at several seminars on women s studies and feminism in India
