Separate Lives The Story Of Mary Rippon:

Separate Lives Silvia Pettem, 1999 Separate Lives Silvia Pettem, 2024-08-06 A pioneer woman educator in the male dominated world of nineteenth century academia Mary Rippon was the first female professor at the University of Colorado and is believed to have been the first woman in the United States to teach at a state university Mary received wide acclaim for her teaching but Victorian society forced her to lead two very separate lives Miss Rippon as she was always known was both a professional woman and a mother in an era when these two roles could not be combined To keep her job and provide for her family she hid her husband and child behind a Victorian veil of secrecy that spanned two continents Separate Lives reveals the full story of the conflicts between this extraordinary woman s public and private lives In January 1878 after several years of education in Germany France and Switzerland the soft spoken twenty seven year old was welcomed at the newly opened University of Colorado in the then small frontier town of Boulder The growth of her lengthy career paralleled the early growth of the university where she worked her way up from first female faculty member to the university s first female professor eventually chairing the Department of German Language and Literature The truth of Mary s separate lives was not disclosed until nearly a century later in 1976 when her elderly grandson revealed to a university librarian that he was Mary s descendant In 2006 Mary received a posthumous honorary degree from the University of Colorado and in 2020 a scholarship was endowed in her name Silvia Pettem s carefully researched biography weaves together the story of Mary s private life with her professional career not to tarnish Mary s well deserved reputation but rather to uncover the human side of a woman whose circumstances clashed with the mores of her times A Colorado History Carl Ubbelohde, Maxine Benson, Duane A. Smith, 2006 For forty years A Colorado History has provided a comprehensive and accessible panoramic history of the Centennial State From the arrival of the Paleo Indians to contemporary times this enlarged edition leads readers on an extraordinary exploration of a remarkable place Women of Consequence Jeanne Varnell, 1999 The Colorado Women s Hall of Fame was founded in 1985 by a group of women who were concerned that both historic and contemporary women who shared foresight vision enthusiasm and the power of accomplishment were not receiving appropriate acknowledgment Fearful that splendid achievements would be forgotten they wished to honor women who during their lifetime made a significant contribution to Colorado as a state or territory It is the hope of the founders that by so honoring Colorado s women of consequence their spirits might inspire future generations In the first decade since the founding fifty nine women were selected for induction Although historians habitually ignored the vital part that women played in the building of the West in actuality these women s lives contain plots and characters that would enliven the most gripping novels We have saints like Frances Wisebart Jacobs and the theatrical angel Helen Bonfils activists such as Josephine Roche and Rachel Noel a scientific genius in Florence Sabin and visionaries like Dana Crawford There are tragedies as with the Tabor wives and the lighter hearted tales of Mary Elitch Long and Mary Coyle Chase Women of Consequence provides a bonanza of role models who opened new frontiers for women in so many fields including business journalism and newspaper publishing science and medicine law politics education charity work botany and even taxidermy These stories are sure to inspire delight and instruct readers throughout Colorado from young adults to senior citizens whether they've lived here all their lives or moved here recently

Smart Women: The Search for America's Historic All-Women Study Clubs Ann Dodds Costello, 2015-09-02 Hiding in plain sight throughout America are historic highly private women's self education groups These clubs are fascinating survivors from an era following the Civil War when women couldn't apply to most colleges and were told they shouldn't leave the home In their earliest days the study groups also contributed to the welfare of their towns often by helping to found their town's first library and served to get women out of the house and into the world Today's all women study clubs have no civic component but still fashion their meetings as their founding great grandmothers did with members taking turns giving original papers In Smart Women author Ann Dodds Costello discusses her four year quest to locate often visit and describe today's 100 year old all women study clubs all over America even though they do not publicize and have no central organization or knowledge of each other Included an invaluable first ever directory of most of the book's ninety plus clubs

Colorado's Legendary Lovers Rosemary Fetter, 2004-12-01 This collection of 28 vignettes of famous lovebirds from Colorado's past includes such incendiary historical characters as Baby Doe and Horace Tabor Molly Dorsey and Byron Sanford and Cort Thompson and Mattie Silks The couples were chosen because of their impact on the state's evolution and their propensity for drama These real life characters include pioneers adventurers gamblers silver barons and madams

Someone's Daughter Silvia Pettem, 2023-02-01 In 1954 two college students were hiking along a creek outside of Boulder Colorado when they stumbled upon the body of a murdered young woman Who was this woman What had happened to her The initial investigation turned up nothing and the girl was buried in a local cemetery with a gravestone that read Jane Doe April 1954 Age About 20 Years Decades later historian Silvia Pettem formed a partnership with law enforcement and forensic experts and set in motion the events that led to Jane Doe's exhumation and eventual identification as well as the identity of her probable killer The 2023 paperback edition includes an epilogue with updated information on how the mystery finally was solved

In Search of the Blonde Tigress Silvia Pettem, 2023-05-15 Beginning in 1933 Eleanor Jarman was sensationalized by the press as the blonde tigress and the most dangerous woman alive But a closer look at her life shows that she was an otherwise ordinary woman who got caught up in a Chicago crime spree then was convicted as an accomplice to murder and sent to prison In 1940 Eleanor escaped and managed to live out her life as perhaps America's longest running female fugitive Following the murder of an elderly shopkeeper readers are given a front row seat for Eleanor's arrest trial conviction and sentencing all documented with recently unearthed primary source police records court transcripts and prison files and her subsequent prison years Woven in are comparisons and contrasts between Eleanor's and her escape partner's criminal histories as well as speculation on their lives on the lam Whether Eleanor deserved her sentence or whether it was too harsh is left for the reader to decide In Search of the Blonde Tigress sets the mystery and intrigue of this wanted woman into historic context It also includes her family s plea in 1993 for Eleanor to come forward and apply for clemency Most revealing at the time was Eleanor s alias With that information and considering that Eleanor born in 1901 is certainly now deceased Silvia Pettem documents her search for Eleanor s remains right up to a visit to her likely grave
