Faces of Hope Christine Pisera Naman,2002-09 In this book Christine Pisera Naman whose son Trevor was born on September 11 2001 has gathered together striking black and white photos of her child and forty nine other babies who share the same birthday Gathered from each of the fifty states in the union these shining faces give hope to our nation as its citizens reflect on the anniversary of September 11 With simple eloquence the author shares two wishes that she has for each little one such as I hope that you find good in all people I hope you catch snowflakes on your tongue I hope you always have more than you need and share your plenty I hope you are someone s dream come true

A Decade of Hope Dennis Smith,2014-05-10 On the tenth anniversary of 9 11 a portrait of tragedy survival and healing America, September 11th: The Courage to Give Brenda Welchlin,Karen Frost,2001-11-15 True stories of compassion heroism and kindness in the midst of a historic tragedy Every tragedy has its heroes and there were many in the terrorist attacks on New York City and Washington D C on 9 11 and in the difficult days that followed In this inspiring volume Jackie Waldman author of The Courage to Give has collected the dramatic stories of some of the firefighters rescue workers police medics relatives searching for missing loved ones and everyday people who in the face of horror sprang into action to save lives and help their communities From the ASPCA leader who lost a sister that day and went on to lead an effort to rescue abandoned pets from the area to the music student who went to Ground Zero to play for the toiling rescue workers these vivid accounts written in the immediate aftermath paint a vivid picture of that infamous event and remind us of what is best in us even in the worst of times

September 11: An Oral History Dean E. Murphy, 2002-10-01 About 3 000 people lost their lives in the terrorist attacks on New York City and Washington D C on September 11 2001 Thousands more narrowly escaped their survival a result of eerily prescient spur of the moment decisions acts of superhuman courage the unfailing kindness of strangers and in some cases fortuitous strokes of luck September 11 An Oral History unites the voices of that day It is at once a dramatic reminder of one of the most devastating events in history of the nation and a tribute to the spirit of cooperation and the outpourings of empathy that marked that day for so many people in the United States and abroad Written and compiled by Dean E Murphy who covered the attacks on the World Trade Center for the New York Times September 11 An Oral History presents vivid eyewitness accounts by those who rushed to the scene as well as the stories of people around the country and abroad who watched as events unfolded on television and waited for news of friends family and acquaintances A priest who runs an adoption center near the WTC paints an unforgettable portrait of what he calls the meeting place of Hell and Earth that morning a businessman from Los Angeles in New York to conduct a training seminar recounts in breathtaking detail his descent with a blind colleague from the 78th floor of the North Tower a senior at a high school the owners of a small business in Arkansas describe their thoughts and feelings as they waited to hear from a customer who had become part of their lives though they had never actually met him and a civilian employee at the Pentagon recalls giving up hope in a smoke filled office her hair on fire only to be led to safety by the soothing voice of a colleague Contributions from firefighters police and military personnel and other rescue workers demonstrate the mixture of professionalism and humanity that justly elevated them despite their own modesty to the status of national heroes There are stories too of those who narrowly missed being part of the mayhem including a family of four who changed their plane reservations from one of the hijacked jets and others whose arrivals at work were delayed by unlikely coincidences and quirks of fate like forgetting to turn on the coffeepot the night before The first and only oral history of September 11 that presents people from all walks of life these poignant often harrowing vignettes capture the grief rage and fear that gripped the nation and offer an intimate inspiring look at the strengths that enabled us to move on

From Within the Ashes of 9/11-A New Hope Begins Ashley Frederick, 2012-10-25 The wake of the September 11th tragedy is something that will always weigh down in the back of our psyches Even though the events of that horrific day will live in infamy from the ashes of the twin towers arose heroes that we always had among us Few survived that tragic day those who did have a new found perspective on life Joseph Torrillo s story of courage bravery and survival on September 11 2001 is truly inspiring As one of the few survivors of the collapse of the towers September 11th is a day that Torrillo will remember most of his life Nearly 3000 people lost their lives that horrific September morning Why does God allow some to live and some to die in times of tragedy No one really knows the answer Every life have a purpose rather that purpose be great or small Torrillo s new found purpose is destined to be a great one The Long Road Home
