Seraglio A Novel:

The Seraglio James Merrill, 1987 James Merrill's Apocalypse Timothy Materer, 2000 Materer interprets Merrill's body of work from the perspective of his epic The Changing Light at Sandover and shows that in his earliest poems and in the volumes preceding The Changing Light Merrill repeatedly expressed his fear of nuclear holocaust and his sense that some momentous revelation was near at hand Materer demonstrates how apocalyptic motifs also inspire Late Settings The Inner Room and A Scattering of Salts BOOK JACKET The Spirit of Montesquieu's Persian Letters Constantine Christos Vassiliou, Jeffrey Church, Alin Fumurescu, 2023-05-08 This book's primary purpose is to commemorate the 300th anniversary of Montesquieu's Persian Letters a seminal book in classical liberal thought Persian Letters is a delightfully rich sympathetic satire of commercial society's promise and discontents covering a wide range of issues and themes that shaped the direction of liberal modernity It consists of a series of letters largely written by two Persian travelers to Paris who allow modern readers to view Parisian life from the perspective of an outsider The volume includes contributions from prominent scholars of Montesquieu's and early career scholars who have recently unearthed new and exciting avenues for understanding this important hinge figure in modern political thought Varieties of Women's Sensation Fiction, 1855-1890 Vol 4 Andrew Maunder, Sally Mitchell, Tamar Heller, Mark Knight, Graham Law, 2024-10-28 Five sensation novels are here presented complete and fully reset along with scholarly annotation a bibliography of sensation fiction and articles contributing to contemporary debate James Merrill Langdon Hammer, 2015-04-14 Langdon Hammer has given us the first biography of the poet James Merrill 1926-95 whose life is surely one of the most fascinating in American literature Merrill was born to high privilege and high expectations as the son of Charles Merrill the charismatic cofounder of the brokerage firm Merrill Lynch and Hellen Ingram a muse ally and antagonist throughout her son's life Wounded by his parents' bitter divorce he was the child of a broken home looking for repair in poetry and love This is the story of a young man escaping yet also reenacting the energies and obsessions of those powerful parents It is the story of a gay man inventing his identity against the grain of American society during the eras of the closet, gay liberation and AIDS Above all it is the story of a brilliantly gifted fiercely dedicated poet working every day to turn his life into art After college at Amherst and a period of adventure in Europe Merrill returned to the New York art world of the 1950s he was friendly with W. H. Auden, Maya Deren, Truman Capote, Larry Rivers, Elizabeth Bishop and other midcentury luminaries and began publishing poems, plays and novels In 1953 he fell in love with an aspiring writer David Jackson They explored boys and bars as they made their life together in Connecticut and later in Greece and Key West At the same time improbably they carried on a forty-year conversation with spirits of the Other World by means of a Ouija board The board became a source of poetic inspiration for Merrill culminating in his prizewinning uncanny one-of-a-kind work The Changing Light at Sandover In his virtuosic poetry and in the candid letters and diaries that enrich every page of this deliciously readable life Merrill created a prismatic art of multiple perspectives and comic self knowledge expressing hope for a world threatened by nuclear war and environmental catastrophe Holding this life and art together in a complex evolving whole Hammer illuminates Merrill s chronicles of love loss and the poignant personal journey they record

Collected Novels and Plays of James Merrill James Merrill,2011-03-09 Following the widely celebrated Collected Poems this second volume in the series of James Merrill s works brings us Merrill as novelist and playwright Just as in his poems we come upon prose pieces dramatic dialogue and even a short play in verse in his novels and plays we find the rhythms of his poetry reflected and given new form Merrill s first novel The Seraglio is a daring roman clef derived in large part from his early life as the cosmopolitan son of Charles Merrill one of America s most famous twentieth century financiers Written in a highly refined prose that owes something to Henry James the book is a compelling portrait of the luxury and treachery swirling around the Southampton beach house of an irrepressible family patriarch with his many mistresses and ex mistresses in attendance told from the point of view of his lively but troubled son At the other end of the narrative spectrum we find The Diblos Notebook an experimental novel in which a young American s adventures on a Greek island are deconstructed and assembled into a tentative fiction before our eyes Merrill s plays including the one act comedy of manners The Bait and the Chekhovian The Immortal Husband a reinvention of the myth of Tithonus who was granted eternal life but not eternal youth are also fresh turns on his characteristic themes home and travel reality and artifice simplicity and complication And for the first time in print here is Merrill s short play The Birthday a fledgling effort written in 1947 and a fascinating window onto the concern with spiritual communication and the otherworldly that would later blossom into his great epic The Changing Light at Sandover

Fabulous Orients Rosalind Ballaster,2005-10-20 The first book length study of the oriental tale in England since 1908 Fabulous Orients is an original work of criticism which illustrates the centrality of narratives of and from the eastern territories of Turkey Persia China and India in the formation of the novel and constructions of western identity in a culture on the threshold of empire

Gender and Utopia in the Eighteenth Century Brenda Tooley, 2016-04-15 Focusing on eighteenth century constructions of symbolic femininity and eighteenth century women's writing in relation to contemporary utopian discourse this volume adjusts our understanding of the utopia of the Enlightenment placing a unique emphasis on colonial utopias These essays reflect on issues related to specific configurations of utopias and utopianism by considering in detail English and French texts by both women Sarah Scott Sarah Fielding Isabelle de Charrière and men Paltock and Montesquieu The contributors ask the following questions In the influential discourses of eighteenth century utopian writing is there a place for woman and if so what or where is it How do women disrupt confirm or ground the utopian projects within which these constructs occur By posing questions about the inscription of gender in the context of eighteenth century utopian writing the contributors shed new light on the eighteenth century legacies that continue to shape contemporary views of social and political progress

Voices and Silence in the Contemporary Novel in English Vanessa Guignery, 2009-10-02 This volume examines the various processes at work in expressing silence and excessive speech in contemporary novels in English covering the whole spectrum from effusiveness to muteness Even if in the postmodern episteme language is deemed inadequate for speaking the unspeakable contemporary authors still rely on voice as a mode of representation and a performative tool and exploit silence not only as a sign of absence block or withdrawal but also as a token of presence and resistance Logorrhoea and reticence are not necessarily antithetical as compulsive verbosity may work as a smokescreen to sidestep the real issues while silences and gaps may reveal more than they hide By submitting their texts to both expansion and retention hypertrophy and aphasia writers persistently test the limits of language and its ability to make sense of individual and collective stories The present volume analyses the complex poetics of silence and speech in fiction from the 1960s to the present with special focus on Will Self Graham Swift John Fowles Kazuo Ishiguro Jenny Diski Lionel Shriver Michelle Roberts Margaret Atwood Jonathan Safran Foer Salman Rushdie Arundhati Roy Zadie Smith Jamaica Kincaid Ryhaan Shah and J M Coetzee

Abbé Prévost's Histoire D'une Grecque Moderne Jonathan Walsh, 2001 Histoire d'une Grecque moderne is a masterpiece of ambiguity Through the narrator's own bias and hypocrisy and through his doubles in the story who mirror or contrast with his character Abbe Prevost deflates the patriarchal figures of eighteenth century European society The Oriental heroine's quest for intellectual and physical autonomy challenges such traditional authority figures as the aristocratic hero narrator the European imperialist the philosophe and the writer who reflect Western sexual and cultural prejudices Like the other novels of Prevost's 1740 trilogy and even to a greater extent than in Manon Lescaut La Greque moderne conveys a disturbing moral pessimism and indeterminacy that in the end the heroine's courage and determination cannot overcome In an age of skepticism and increasing individualism La Greque moderne seems to question the existence of any trustworthy model of moral authority
