Gomes, 2002 Overcoming Sermon Block William Powell Tuck, 2014-04-07 When called on to preach whether you are a pastor or lay preacher do you sometimes find yourself blocked Writer s block is a common complaint from many authors They reach a point sometimes when they simply cannot produce anything worth reading Preachers often encounter this same kind of roadblock when they attempt to prepare sermons William Powell Tuck With this opening sentence Dr Tuck brings his many years of experience as professor and pastor and freely gives some nuts and bolts of sermon preparation and pots and pans essential for effective preaching This book is not about the philosophy or theology of preaching but about preparing for writing and preaching a sermon While the reader may quickly find a solution to this week s sermon Dr Tuck also gives ideas and plans for long term preparation to open a new pathway moving sermons from a burden to a blessing for the writer as well as the intended listener Anyone called to preach can benefit from reading this book Proclamation and Celebration Susan K. Hedahl, 2012-01-01 Proclamation and Celebration focuses homiletically on the six principal festivals of the church year Christmas Epiphany Easter Ascension Pentecost and Holy Trinity Central to the complicated development of lectionaries over the centuries these festivals have anchored the church year primarily because they are specifically enunciated in biblical materials Susan Hedahl argues for the importance of viewing these festivals both as a unit and individually from a doctrinal perspective in light of the dynamic and theological expressions of God s lively relationship with humanity Exploring the possibilities in the biblical narratives that ground each festival Hedahl helps the preacher create sermons that find joyous resonance in the liturgical spiritual ecumenical theological cultural and educational activities of congregational life After an initial introduction to the festivals as a group six chapters address each specific festival describing the history biblical texts doctrines cultural issues and possibilities attendant on the festival Throughout the book Hedahl uses sermon excerpts by many preachers to illustrate strategies choosing materials from a wide range of times styles and cultures Publisher description Keeping Alive the Rumor of God Martin Camroux, 2020-08-21 Can t you hear those little bells tinkling Down on your knees They re bringing the sacraments to a dying God wrote Heinrich Heine in 1834 It took a while but today it is happening Across the Western world the traditional picture of God is dying and institutional religion collapsing Today we are trying something never done before living with no agreed narrative that tells us who we are and with a materialist view of life It isn t enough An idea of God may have died but the mystery of our human life is of an inner depth which is not simply physical or material Marvel mystery wonder beauty love the numinous the mysterium tremendum remain the essence of who we are What I am trying to do is describe this experience in such a way that those who have not had it can get a glimpse of it from inside and understand how it can give a life meaning and purpose This is explored through a liberal Christian tradition committed to social justice and honest exploration Scripture is vital to this but so are art poetry music and beauty When most people are looking the other way we must keep the rumor of God alive

Preaching After God Phil Snider, 2012-08-01 Preaching After God is written for progressive preachers trying to find ways to effectively communicate with those who increasingly identify as the nones i.e. those who aren't sure what to make of God and/or Christianity including those who believe in God some of the time or none of the time or all of the time which Snider tends to think includes all of us some of the time and some of us all of the time By drawing on the insights of several prominent postmodern theologians and philosophers Snider provides possibilities for preaching that highly resonate with postmodern listeners who are often suspect of religion Six lectionary based sermons are included as examples www.philsnider.net
