 at the huge stumbling stone laid in his way by the entire council of Jerusalem including the temporal and spiritual government which mocked and reviled the Lord Jesus The chief spiritual rulers said He saved others let Him save Himself if He be Christ the Chosen of God The soldiers also mocked Him saying If Thou be the King of the Jews save Thyself for the superscription written over Him declared that He was Jesus of Nazareth the King of the Jews The malefactor crucified on the left of Christ said If Thou be Christ save Thyself and us This he said not because he desired help but because he wanted to insult and ridicule the Lord In short the whole world is off ended in Christ who hangs on the cross and it does not esteem Him Even the disciples although a part of them stood by the cross had lost all hope The poor malefactor on the right alone steps over the rock of offence and dares to call Christ who hangs on the cross at his side a Lord and King He gives the lie to all the world cares not what others think of him and proclaims Christ to be an everlasting King These are his words Lord remember me when Thou comest into Thy kingdom He calls Christ a Lord says He has a kingdom and desires Him when lie shall have entered His kingdom to remember him Now the time rendered it certain that neither of them could live till evening Therefore he believes that Christ is the Lord of another and an eternal life This faith and this confession found as it was in the midst of a world that despaired of Christ and hated Him must have been indeed a great and exquisite faith a glorious confession Dr. Martin Luther's House-Postil Martin 1483-1546 Luther,2021-09-10 This work has been selected by

The Precious and Sacred Writings of Martin Luther, the Hero of the Reformation, the Greatest of the Teuton Church Fathers, and the Father of Protestant Church Literature. Based on the Kaiser Chronological Ed. with Reference to the Erlangen and Walch Eds Martin Luther, 1904 Volume 5, Tome II: Kierkegaard and the Renaissance and Modern Traditions - Theology Jon Stewart, 2016-12-05

The long period from the Renaissance to the nineteenth century supplied numerous sources for Kierkegaard's thought in any number of different fields The present rather heterogeneous volume covers the long period from the birth of Savonarola in 1452 through the beginning of the nineteenth century and into Kierkegaard's own time The Danish thinker read authors representing vastly different traditions and time periods Moreover he also read a diverse range of genres His interests concerned not just philosophy theology and literature but also drama and music The present volume consists of three tomes that are intended to cover Kierkegaard's sources in these different fields of thought Tome II is dedicated to the wealth of theological and religious sources from the beginning of the Reformation to Kierkegaard's own day It examines Kierkegaard's relations to some of the key figures of the Reformation period from the Lutheran Reformed and Catholic traditions It thus explores Kierkegaard's reception of theologians and spiritual authors of various denominations most of whom are known to history primarily for their exposition of practical spirituality rather than theological doctrine Several of the figures investigated here are connected to the Protestant tradition of Pietism that Kierkegaard was familiar with from a very early stage The main figures in this context include the forefather of Pietism Johann Arndt the Reformed writer Gerhard Tersteegen and the Danish author Hans Adolph Brorson With regard to Catholicism Kierkegaard was familiar with several popular figures of Catholic humanism Post Tridentine theology and Baroque spirituality such as François Fénelon Ludwig Blosius and Abraham a Sancta Clara He was also able to find inspiration in highly controversial and original figures of the Renaissance and the early Modern period such as Girolamo Savonarola or Jacob Böhme the latter of whom was at the time an en vogue topic among trendsetting philosophers and theologians such as Hegel Franz von Baader Schelling and Hans Lassen Martensen

The Platonic tradition affords extraordinary resources for thinking about the meaning and value of work In this historical survey of the tradition Jeffrey Hanson draws on the work of its major thinkers to explain why our contemporary vocabulary for appraising labor and its rewards is too narrow and cramped By tracing out the Platonic lineage of work Hanson is able to argue why we should be explaining its value for appraising it as an element of a happy and flourishing human life quite apart from its financial rewards Beginning with Plato's extensive thinking about work's relationship to wisdom Hanson covers the singularly powerful arguments of Augustine who wrote the ancient world's only treatise dedicated to the topic of manual labor He discusses Bernard of Clairvaux introduces the priest craftsman Theophilus Presbyter and provides a study of work and leisure in the writings of Petrarch Alongside Martin Luther Hanson discusses John Ruskin and Simone Weil two thinkers profoundly disturbed by the conditions of the working class in the rapidly industrializing economies of Europe This original study of Plato and his inheritors' ideas provides practical suggestions for how to approach work in a socially responsible manner in the 21st century and reveals the benefits of linking work and morality
