Set on a hillside near Cluny in a region associated with religious institutions and sacred architecture including Le Corbusier's La Tourette Le Carmel de la Paix designed by José Luis Sert remains tranquilly unvisited and quietly erased from architectural history Why This unusual convent falls outside the standard categories of Sert's architecture and has been overlooked in most publications about his work As J K Birksted explains the design and construction process for this building proved nightmarish resulting in a building which at first sight appears to be ineloquent This first detailed examination of this building shows how the convent and the story of its creation offer valuable and important new insights into Sert his architecture and his life However the study also opens up discussions on wider subjects such as the relationships between modernist architecture and ecclesiastical architecture The design and construction of the Carmel de la Paix 1968 1972 followed the Second Ecumenical Council of the Vatican 1962 1965 which introduced fundamental changes and proposals for renewing the relationship between the Church and the changing modern world and the convent provides an interesting illustration of this period In addition it offers insights into the fascinating world of the Carmelite order and its specific liturgical requirements and reflecting on the nuns active involvement in the design and construction process it also explores wider issues of women in architecture Modern Architecture and the Mediterranean Jean-Francois Lejeune, Michelangelo Sabatino, 2009-12-04 Considering the influence of the forms and tectonics of the Mediterranean vernacular on modern architectural practice and discourse from the 1920s to the 1960s Regional Architecture in the Mediterranean Area Alessandro Bucci, Luigi Mollo, 2010 Modernism and the Mediterranean Jan K. Situated in a Mediterranean landscape the Maeght Foundation is a unique Modernist museum product of an extraordinary collaboration between the architect José Luis Sert and the artists whose work was to be displayed there The architecture garden design and art offer a rare opportunity to see work in settings conceived in active collaboration with the artists themselves By focusing on the relationship between this art foundation and its Arcadian setting including Joan Mir labyrinth George Braque's pool Tal Coat's mosaic wall and Giacometti's terrace Jan K Birksted demonstrates how the building articulates many of the ideas that preoccupied this group of artists during the culminating years of their lives The study pays special attention to the ways in which architecture can shape the experience of time and addresses the Modernist desire for wilderness and its problematic roots in the classical Mediterranean ideal In showing how the design of the Maeght Foundation is a Modernist representation of Mediterranean culture the author has developed an interpretation of architecture that accommodates not only the architect's handling of material or function but

shows as well how it can be the embodiment of a particular vision of space and time The Writings of Josep Lluís Sert Josep Lluís Sert, 2015-07-01 Josep Lluís Sert 1902-1983 was the last president of CIAM International Congresses of Modern Architecture and dean of the Harvard University Graduate School of Design from 1953 to 1969 where he founded the discipline of urban design His writings offer a new view of his activities in architecture and urban planning and provide the intellectual context for his own work as an architect much of which is still controversial and often poorly understood This book includes 16 essays dating from 1951 to 1977 ten of which are previously unpublished The Writings of Josep Lluís Sert illuminates Sert's contributions to 20th century architecture urban design and design pedagogy and makes clear the similarities and differences between his ideas and those of his mentor Le Corbusier The essays reveal Sert's advocacy both for pedestrian urbanism and for planning in relation to the natural environment ideas that have become important issues in contemporary urban design Each text is introduced by the editor Eric Mumford a scholar of CIAM Sert and modern urbanism

Region Simon Richards, Robert Schmidt III, Cagri Sanliturk, Falli Palaiologou, 2023-07-28 This book explores how the concept of region has evolved over time and shaped architectural culture and practice It questions what the words region and regional mean for architecture cities and landscapes past and present and speculates on the forms they might take in the future Region is explored in many thematic guises as a real geographical site of evolving socio-economic activity as a mythical locus of enduring value as a gatekeeper of indigenous crafts and vernacular techniques as a site of architectural and artistic imagination as a repository of contested conflicted and mobile identities The contributing chapters take these themes from the theoretical and literary page through to architectural and urban practice and from the scale of the domestic hearth through to the ocean archipelago and international law enriching the long standing trope of viewing architectural regionalism purely as a matter of style Curated into four key thematic areas Theorised Regions Contested Regions Heritage Regions and Future Regions the book incorporates the values concerns and approaches of a truly diverse international community of scholars curators and practitioners as well as the design work of international students tasked to explore what region means to them

The Oxford Dictionary of Architecture James Stevens Curl, Susan Wilson, 2015 With over 6 000 entries this is the most authoritative dictionary of architectural history available Pride in Modesty Michelangelo Sabatino, 2011-05-21 Following Italy's unification in 1861 architects artists politicians and literati engaged in volatile debates over the pursuit of national and regional identity Growing industrialization and urbanization across the country contrasted with the rediscovery of traditionally built forms and objects created by the agrarian peasantry Pride in Modesty argues that these ordinary often anonymous everyday things inspired and transformed Italian art and architecture from the 1920s through the 1970s Through in depth examinations of texts drawings and buildings Michelangelo Sabatino finds that the folk traditions of the pre industrial countryside have provided formal practical and poetic inspiration directly affecting both design and construction practices over a period of sixty years and a number of different political regimes This surprising continuity allows Sabatino to reject the division of Italian history into sharply delimited periods such as Fascist Interwar and Democratic Postwar and to instead emphasize the long continuous process that transformed pastoral and urban ideals into a new modernist Italy

Concrete Toronto Michael McClelland, Graeme Stewart, 2007 In the sixties architecture fell in love with concrete Architecture has since shifted its fondness to glass and steel and concrete buildings have fallen out of favor and into disrepair But they represent an exciting era of faith in architecture and technical innovation that has yet to be documented Concrete Toronto acts as a guidebook to the city's extensive concrete heritage Architects journalists professors concrete experts and even the original architects use a wealth of new and archival photos drawings interviews articles and case studies to celebrate Toronto's concrete past Coming Home? Vol. 1 Sharif Gemie, 2014-07-18 The wars of the twentieth century uprooted people on a previously unimaginable scale to the extent that being a refugee became an increasingly widespread experience With the arrival of refugees governments of host countries had to mediate between divided national populations some wished to welcome those arriving in search of refuge others preferred a strategy of exclusion or even expulsion At the same time refugees had to manage conflicts of the self as they responded to the loss of nationhood families socio political networks material goods and arguably also a sense of belonging or home While return migration was usually perceived by governments and refugees alike as the best solution to the dilemmas of forced displacement consensus about the timing and dynamics of how this would actually occur was very difficult to achieve In practice the return of refugees to their countries of origin rarely if ever produced a wholly satisfactory outcome Conflicts clearly resulted in forced displacement but it is equally true that forced displacement created conflicts The complex inter relationship of conflict return migration and the sometimes chimerical but still compelling search for a sense of home is the central preoccupation of the contributors to the two volumes of the Coming Home series Scholars from history literature cultural studies and sociology explore the tensions between nation states and migrants as they have anticipated implemented or challenged the process of return migration during the twentieth and twenty first centuries This book begins with Western Europe and progresses to Central and Eastern Europe from the period of the Spanish Civil War to the Cold War era whilst the second volume Coming home Vol 2 Conflict and Postcolonial Return Migration in the Context of France and North Africa shifts the focus to the colonial and post colonial framework of the French North African nexus What emerges from the two volumes of essays is that as ambiguous and sometimes ambivalent as home could appear it was nonetheless central to migrants preoccupations about returning
