Long Knives Short Memories The Spandau Prison Story:

Long Knives and Short Memories Jack Fishman, 1986 Towards the Development of the International Penal System Róisín Mulgrew, 2013-07-11 Róisín Mulgrew explores and reconceptualises the way in which international punishment is implemented Messages of Murder Ronald Headland, 1992 Included among these are descriptions of the main features of the reports and the various stages in their compilation examples and methodology of presentation of the killings and comparisons of reporting procedures and totals of victims shot by each of the four Einsatzgruppen The study begins by noting the post war discovery of the reports and then assumes a roughly chronological sequence in its overall treatment An outline of the major National Socialist agencies and general reporting practices before the war is followed by the events of the war as reflected in the reports Then the postwar life of the reports is examined with particular reference to their use as legal evidence at Nuremberg as well as a consideration of their reliability as historical source material Survey of Jewish Affairs, 1987 William Frankel, 1988 Addresses major issues of concern about Israel the Middle East the United States and world Jewry during the year 1986 such as the vulnerability and successes of the National Unity Government the peace process the Arab League American Middle East policy the Waldheim issue and world Jewish fundamentalism Contains a chronology of major events of 1985 and 1986 Long Knives and Short Memories Jack Fishman, 1987 Examines the fate of the seven high ranking Nazi officers Hess Funk Speer Schirach Neurath Doenitz and Raeder incarcerated at Spandau Prison after their convictions at the Nuremberg War Crime Trials Genocide on Trial Donald Bloxham, 2001 When the Allies decided to try German war criminals at the end of World War II they were attempting not only to punish the guilty but also to create a record of what had happened in Europe This ground breaking new study shows how Britain and the United States went about inscribing the history of Nazi Germany and the effect their trial and occupation policies had on both long and short term memory in Germany and Britain Donald Bloxham here examines the actions and trials of German soldiers and policemen the use of legal evidence the refractory functions of the courtroom and Allied political and cultural preconceptions of both Germanism and of German criminality His evidence shows conclusively that the trials were a failure the greatest of all crimes against humanity the final solution of the Jewish question was largely written out of history in the post war era and the trials failed to transmit the breadth of German criminality Finally with reference to the historiography of the Holocaust Genocide on Trial illuminates the function of the trials in perpetuating misleading generalizations about the course of the Holocaust and the nature of Nazism Integrity in the Public and Private Domains Alan Montefiore, David Vines, 2005-06-20 Integrity in the Private and Public Domains explores the issue of public and private integrity in politics the media health science fund raising the economy and the public sector Over twenty essays by well known figures such as Amelie Rorty David Vines the late Hugo Gryn Alan Montefiore and Hilary Lawson present a compelling insight into debates over integrity today A key chapter of the book concerns the highly publicised donation to Oxford University by Gert Rudolf

Flick an issue which attracted wide media attention by raising questions of fund raising and the holocaust Research Handbook on the International Penal System Róisín Mulgrew, Denis Abels, 2016-05-27 Drawing on the expertise and experience of contributors from a wide range of academic professional and judicial backgrounds the Research Handbook on the International Penal System critically analyses the laws policies and practices that govern detention punishment and the enforcement of sentences in the international criminal justice context Comprehensive and innovative it examines the operation of the international penal system covering pertinent issues such as non custodial sanctions monitoring of conditions of detention the protection of prisoners under international law and the transfer of prisoners These aspects are presented in a logical order linking up with the chronological sequence of the international criminal justice process Far reaching this Handbook also explores broader normative questions related to contemporary human rights law transitional and restorative justice and victim redress before exploring contemporary and alternative mechanisms for punishing and overseeing punishment and possible avenues for development This up to date assessment will provide valuable insights for researchers and students of international criminal law and justice comparative penal law penology prisoners rights and transitional and restorative justice Its recommendations for development will also interest international and national officials working in criminal law and justice Contributors D Abels K Ambos O Bekou S D Ascoli T A Doherty M A Drumbl S A Fisher B Hol A Jones N Kiefer C McCarthy L McGregor R Mulgrew J C Nemitz M M Penrose G Sluiter S Snacken A Trotter H van der Wilt J van Wijk D van Zyl Smit R Young
