

The background of the book cover is a monochromatic blue photograph. On the left, a large white ship is docked at a wooden pier. In the foreground on the right, a sailor in a dark uniform and white-topped hat stands looking out towards the ship. The water is calm, and a hilly shoreline is visible in the distance under a clear sky.

Long Nights Journey Into Day Prisoners Of War In The Far East 1941-1945:

Long Night's Journey into Day Charles G. Roland, 2010-10-30 Sickness starvation brutality and forced labour plagued the existence of tens of thousands of Allied POWs in World War II More than a quarter of these POWs died in captivity Long Night's Journey into Day centres on the lives of Canadian British Indian and Hong Kong POWs captured at Hong Kong in December 1941 and incarcerated in camps in Hong Kong and the Japanese Home Islands Experiences of American POWs in the Philippines and British and Australians POWs in Singapore are interwoven throughout the book Starvation and diseases such as diphtheria beriberi dysentery and tuberculosis afflicted all these unfortunate men affecting their lives not only in the camps during the war but after they returned home Yet despite the dispiriting circumstances of their captivity these men found ways to improve their existence keeping up their morale with such events as musical concerts and entertainments created entirely within the various camps Based largely on hundreds of interviews with former POWs as well as material culled from archives around the world Professor Roland details the extremes the prisoners endured from having to eat fattened maggots in order to live to choosing starvation by trading away their skimpy rations for cigarettes No previous book has shown the essential relationship between almost universal ill health and POW life and death or provides such a complete and unbiased account of POW life in the Far East in the 1940s World War II Spencer C. Tucker, Priscilla details of their fathers captivity And how over the decades have they come to terms with their childhood memories In his book Terry Smyth treads new ground by examining the processes through which the children s memory practices came to be rooted in the POW experiences of their fathers By following a life course approach and a psychosocial methodology the book demonstrates how memory and trauma were worked into the social and cultural lives of individual children and explores how the relationship between their inner psychic worlds and subsequent memory practices unfolded against a challenging and morally ambivalent geopolitical background The book invites readers to engage with the author in a journey of exploration and self reflection with elements of auto ethnography adding richness to the text Enlivened by interview extracts case study material and ethnographic observations this work opens up fresh and ambitious perspectives on the personal legacies of war

Finding Japan Anne Shannon,2012-11-01 In contrast to the widely known experiences of Asian immigrants who came to Canada this book looks at movement in the opposite direction Using text and images it is a collection of stories about how Canadians found Japan the first place they reached when travelling westward across the Pacific These connections began as early as 1848 when the adventurous son of a Hudson's Bay Company trader tempted fate by smuggling himself disguised as a shipwrecked sailor into the closed and exotic land of the shoguns He was followed by an intriguing cast of characters missionaries educators businessmen social activists political figures diplomats soldiers and occasional misfits who experienced a rapidly changing Japan as it underwent its remarkable transformation from a largely feudal society to a modern state Now when the world is becoming more Asia centric Finding Japan provides glimpses into an earlier era that challenged conventional perceptions about Canadian connections across the Pacific Choice ,2001 Behind Barbed Wire Alexander Mikaberidze,2018-11-26 An indispensable reference on concentration camps death camps prisoner of war camps and military prisons offering broad historical coverage as well as detailed analysis of the nature of captivity in modern conflict This comprehensive reference work examines internment forced labor and extermination during times of war and genocide with a focus on the 20th and 21st centuries and particular attention paid to World War II and recent conflicts in the Middle East It explores internment as it has been used as a weapon and led to crimes against humanity and is ideal for students of global studies history and political science as well as politically and socially aware general readers In addition to entries on such notorious camps as Abu Ghraib Andersonville Auschwitz and the Hanoi Hilton the encyclopedia includes profiles of key perpetrators of camp and prison atrocities and more than a dozen curated and contextualized primary source documents that further illuminate the subject Primary sources include United Nations documents outlining the treatment of prisoners of war government reports of infamous camp and prison atrocities and oral histories from survivors of these notorious facilities Marshall of Singapore Kevin Tan,2008 Chronicles the life times and achievements of David Marshall Singapore's Conscience This book presents the story of this extraordinary man who was for many Singapore's missionary of democracy The Canadian Historical Review ,2001 Factories of Death Sheldon H. Harris,2024-11-01 Factories of Death details the activities of the Japanese army scientists that conducted numerous horrifying experiments upon live human beings It investigates who from the upper echelons of the Japanese military and political establishments knew of the experiments also the question of whether or not Allied POWs were subjected to such tests and the nature of the deal that was brokered with US authorities after the war This new edition has been completely updated and contains an entirely new chapter detailing the numerous revelations that have surfaced since the book's initial publication in 1994 Quill & Quire ,2001 Long Night's Journey Into Day Charles G. Roland,2001 Political Science Quarterly Columbia University. Faculty of Political Science,1931 A review devoted to the historical statistical and comparative study of politics economics and public law The Dominion and the Rising Sun John D. Meehan,2004 The Dominion and the Rising Sun is the first major study of Canada's diplomatic arrival in Japan and by extension East Asia It examines the political economic and cultural relations forged during this seminal period between the foremost power in Asia and the young dominion tentatively establishing itself in world affairs An overview of Canada's initial foray into Pacific affairs it begins with the opening in 1929 of the Canadian legation in Tokyo Canada's third such office overseas and concludes with the outbreak of hostilities in 1941 Primarily a diplomatic history the book also explores the impact of traders interest groups and missionaries on Canadian attitudes toward Japan during the interwar years More fundamentally it examines Canada's diplomatic coming of age closely revealing its important Pacific dimension a fact overlooked by historians until now as well as the disjunct between Canada's commitment to peace and its trade with an aggressor Meehan suggests that Canada's initially benign view of Japan its reluctance to adopt positions in advance of its Anglo American allies and its lucrative Pacific trade led to a credibility gap in its policies towards East Asia The Dominion and the Rising Sun charts Canada's relationship with Japan and is essential reading for those interested in Canadian history international relations and Asia Pacific studies Canadian Book Review Annual Joyce M.
