State Care Natalie Glynn, 2023-05-02 An intimate account of the personal and socioeconomic circumstances that affect state care leavers this book voices the distinct yet interconnected experience of these young people to reinforce the increasingly prevalent Irish model Sporty Girls Sheryl Clark, 2021-03-01 This book engages with the ongoing question of why many girls stop doing sport and physical activity in their teenage years Previous research has found that many girls disengagement from sport takes place despite their childhood enjoyment and that frequently these same women take up sport again as adults Within these chapters Sheryl Clark explores what it is about this period of time that persuades many girls to disengage from sports when their male peers continue to take part why some girls continue to take part and most importantly how girls understand this participation She suggests that girls participation in sport should be viewed as part of their ongoing constructions of successful girlhood within a competitive schooling system and broader socioeconomic context Writing Qualitatively Johnny Saldana, 2018-04-09 Writing Qualitatively The Selected Works of Johnny Salda a showcases the diverse range of writing styles available to qualitative researchers through the work one of the most internationally cited and referenced methodologists The traditional academic journal article still holds its place as a convention of published scholarship but Salda a illustrates how a variety of approaches to research documentation can evocatively represent social life and one s self in intriguing ways Writing Qualitatively assembles journal articles book chapters ancillary materials texts from keynote addresses and previously unpublished work that illustrate Salda a s eclectic body of inquiry Each piece is prefaced with author comments on the selection and how readers themselves might venture into comparable writing styles Multiple methodologies and writing examples are included ranging from case studies to action research from poetry to ethnodramatic play scripts from confessional tales to autoethnographies and from textbook materials to classroom session designs An introduction to the collection discusses Salda a s writing processes and how qualitative researchers and educators can extend their own imaginations and creativity to find new forms of scholarly presentation and representation Writing Qualitatively serves as a supplemental text for undergraduate and graduate courses in qualitative inquiry educational research ethnography and arts based research This unique anthology demonstrates to students professors and professional researchers how academic scholarship can be reported through a breadth of literary genres elements and styles

Conducting Contextual Research Bernard Guerin, Eden Thain, Kristen Stevens, Adan C. Richards, Guilherme Bergo Leugi, 2024-06-27 This innovative book proposes an entirely new approach to social research presenting practical ways to discover people's life contexts in order to understand why they do what they do which is essential for any forms of research that need to understand people Taking a novel approach that goes beyond traditional categorisations of qualitative and quantitative research the book starts by discussing the real basis of all research methods in social relationships before detailing the methods for finding out about a person's life contexts in very practical terms accompanied by suggested questions advice and research tricks to help you progress The various life contexts are then worked through chapter by chapter Drawing on the rich and varied research experiences of all the authors examples are given throughout with later chapters focusing on specific research areas Conducting Contextual Research is essential reading for postgraduate students and professionals in the fields of counselling psychology and social work and will be useful to anyone conducting research or inquiries to understand human behaviour including academic researchers detectives intelligence operators social workers government service researchers social policy analysts and biographers

Anderson, 2015-02-26 Applied Theatre Research is the first book to consolidate thinking about applied theatre as research through a thorough investigation of ATAR as a research methodology. It will be an indispensable resource for teachers and researchers in the area. The first section of the book details the history of the relationship between applied theatre and research especially in the area of evaluation and impact assessment and offering an examination of the literature surrounding applied theatre and research. The book then explores how applied theatre as research ATAR works as a democratic and pro social adjunct to community based research and explains its complex relationship to arts informed inquiry. Indigenous research methods and other research epistemologies. The book provides a rationale for this approach focusing on its capacity for reciprocity within communities. The second part of the book provides a series of international case studies of effective practice which detail some of the key approaches in the method and based on work conducted in Australia New Zealand Singapore and the South Pacific. The case studies provide a range of cultural contexts for the playing out of various forms of ATAR and a concluding chapter considers the tensions and the possibilities inherent in ATAR. This is a groundbreaking book for all researchers who are working with communities who require a method that moves beyond current research practice.

Thinking Qualitatively Johnny Saldana, 2014-09-03 Written in Johnny Salda's elegant and accessible style Thinking Qualitatively Methods of Mind boldly pursues the challenge of teaching students not just how to collect and analyze data but how to actively think about them. Each chapter presents one method of mind thinking analytically realistically symbolically ethically multidisciplinary artistically summarily interpretively and narratively together with applications a vignette or story related to the thinking modality points to remember and exercises. Designed to help researchers rise above the data the book explores how qualitative research designs data collection data analyses and write ups can be enriched through over 60 different lenses filters and angles on social life. Venturing into more evocative and multidimensional ways to examine the complex patterns of daily living the book reveals how the researcher's mind thinks heuristically to transcend the descriptive and develop high deep insights about the human condition. This is a book for all qualitative methodologists. Not just a how to manual but an epistemological exercise in understanding qualitative methods. Cassie F Quigley Clemson University. This book fills an important void in the field. The market is crowded with books on techniques and strategies for conducting qualitative research. Salda's volume provides a vital complement by encouraging students to develop the core analytical skills and interpretive frames they need to be truly successful in their research endeavors. He helps students flex and hone the epistemological muscles that are at the center of capable qualitative research. John P Bartkowski University of Texas at San Antonio. The focus of the book is clear and consistent. The writing is superb. It deals with sophisticated ideas in a clear and highly communicative style. It weaves important and relevant scholarship in ways that help the reader grasp the key ideas. It's one of the best books I have read. Liora Bresler University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign. Thinking Qualitatively invites students to think before they act and offers a rich set of options for qualitative researchers to consider Michael Brown University of Wyoming This book brings together key ways of thinking about our work as qualitative researchers In many ways it captures the breadth and depth of our work while calling for us to be ever reflexive about our practices I see this book as positively informing the work of novice and experienced researchers It is a much needed addition to the qualitative research community Jessica Nina Lester Indiana University Research Methods in Human Rights Bård A.
