Celebrities in American Elections Richard T. Longoria, 2022-09-02 Using a case study approach Celebrities in American Elections contends that celebrities have the talent fame and resources to succeed in electoral politics These factors account for the electoral victories of Ronald Reagan Clint Eastwood Fred Grandy Sonny Bono Jesse Ventura Arnold Schwarzenegger Al Franken and Donald Trump However the author argues that these items are insufficient without a favorable political environment as many celebrities have lost elections as have won them They lose because their persona does not match the politics of their time or they represent the minority party in a one party dominated district or state or they advocate for unpopular policies Among those that won nearly half were elected by a plurality not a majority of voters This does not suggest overwhelming public support for celebrity candidates despite their many advantages With a few exceptions celebrities that won tended to also win the fundraising battle while celebrities that lost tended to raise less than their opponent the normal laws of politics still apply The celebrity factor while helpful does not fully explain why celebrities win or lose elections

Comical Co-Stars of Television Robert Pegg, 2002-05-20 Although some scholars credit Shakespeare with creating in Henry IV's Falstaff the first second banana character reviving him for Henry IV Part Two most television historians agree that the popular co star was born in 1955 when Art Carney as Ed Norton first addressed Jackie Gleason with a Hey Ralphie boy on The Honeymooners. The phenomenon has proved to be one of the most enduring achievements of the American sitcom and oftentimes so popular that the co star becomes the star. Twenty nine of those popular co stars get all of the attention in this work. Each chapter focuses on one television character and the actor or actress who brought him or her to life and provides critical analysis, biographical information and in several instances interviews with the actors and actresses themselves. It includes people like Art Carney of The Honeymooners, Don Knotts of The Andy Griffith Show, Ted Knight of The Mary Tyler Moore Show, Max Baer of The Beverly Hillbillies, Vivian Vance and William Frawley of I Love Lucy, Ann B. Davis of The Brady Bunch, Jamie Farr of M.A.S.H., Ron Palillo of Welcome Back Kotter, Jimmie Walker of Good Times, Tom Poston of Newhart and Michael Richards of Seinfeld to name just a few.
