

The background of the book cover is a vibrant, abstract composition of overlapping shapes in shades of red, orange, and yellow. In the upper portion, there is a silhouette of a man and a woman in an intimate embrace. The man is on the left, leaning towards the woman on the right. The woman's face is partially visible, looking down. The overall mood is romantic and sensual, which aligns with the book's title and subject matter.

Love Lessons African Americans And Sex Romance And Marriage In The Nineties:

Love Lessons George Davis, 1998-01-21 Between 1994 and 1997 George Davis interviewed more than two hundred people with a simple purpose to find out how they felt about sex and love not in the abstract but as they really are experienced by a broad cross section of African Americans This fascinating survey of emotional lives and love affairs uncovers a surprising and powerful collection of cultural and racial factors that make up love today Tender angry poignant and always real Love Lessons tells the stories of men and women as young as fifteen and as old as eighty Whether middle class or poor living in the country or in the projects and whether in love fleetingly or eternally the people in Love Lessons give us an unforgettable look at the complicated mix of expectations and dreams myths and realities that have shaped their views of sex love and marriage as well as their thoughts on being alone and being courageous Re-Membering and Surviving Shirley A. James Hanshaw, 2020-10-01 The first book length critical study of the black experience in the Vietnam War and its aftermath this text interrogates the meaning of heroism based on models from African and African American expressive culture It focuses on four novels Captain Blackman 1972 by John A Williams Tragic Magic 1978 by Wesley Brown Coming Home 1971 by George Davis and De Mojo Blues 1985 by A R Flowers Discussions of the novels are framed within the historical context of all wars prior to Vietnam in which Black Americans fought The success or failure of the hero on his identity quest is predicated upon the extent to which he can reconnect with African or African American cultural memory He is engaged therefore in re membering a term laden with the specificity of race that implies a cultural history comprised of African retentions and an interdependent relationship with the community for survival The reader will find that a common history of racism and exploitation that African Americans and Vietnamese share sometimes results in the hero s empathy with and compassion for the so called enemy a unique contribution of the black novelist to American war literature
