Reflections on Romans Dr. Randy L. James, 2021-11-15 Out of the Covid 19 Pandemic something meaningful emerged Beginning at a time when people were locked in their homes while the schools businesses and most of society were under quarantine a desire emerged to do something that would encourage people who were alone This book began as a daily audible devotional message made possible by an email link to friends and family around the world hoping to provide some light during a dark time Though the virus and its variants are still with us and have taken quite a toll on the nations of the world there is hope for a day when this particular sickness will be behind us But even if it lingers or should another such crisis arise we always have the Word of God to give us comfort and provide grace to face whatever challenges may come our way Reflections on Romans will hopefully be a tool that will aid those who continue to look for direction for their lives and a connection to their God amid such times Love Don Baker, 1988 3 1/2 Seconds to Live Kate Thomas Baker, Don Baker, 2017-01-17 From a World War to a personal war this is the profoundly personal story of a preacher with PTSD and major depressive disorder Don Baker shares his journey into the darkness the black hole as he calls it and how its shadow has haunted him for over seventy years Insightful vulnerable and honest this is a human story for human readers for people who have tasted life and found it too often bitter and perplexing Thoughtful Proclaimer Elizabeth Wright

Anderson, 2017-10-23 Thoughtful Proclaimer takes you from passage choice to proclamation This book walks with you through message preparation that transforms both your heart and the hearts of your congregation or class Aimed at those who proclaim the Word of God in a variety of church and parachurch settings the Thoughtful Proclaimer method uses a contemplative question based technique to determine the Commanders intent Gods purpose for every passage of scripture Gods intent for a passage becomes the point for proclamation of a redemptive and relevant message Anderson uses humor and story to teach good communication techniques so that every message brings lasting transformation to your listeners

Copyright Office,1963 Princeton Alumni Weekly ,1973 God Is Not Like That Diana Spencer,2009-09-01 God is Not Like That challenges all Christians to think seriously about how the misunderstandings of the past are currently affecting Christianity worldwide The work of the Reformation was never finished because the various factions involved split apart from each other without finding any common resolution to the problems facing the medieval church The conclusions reached in God is Not Like That have been formulated after years of deliberation in an effort to stimulate thought and discussion among all denominations of Christianity today Many problems that stem from these unresolved issues have been inherited by all denominations for example the author believes that the Athanasian Creed while right in its original intent has been misunderstood by everyone for many centuries This has been compounded by the fact that for many years there have been growing doubts about the divinity of Christ and the doctrine of the Trinity even among scholars and teachers making it difficult for them to explain and defend the faith to an increasingly skeptical world Meanwhile its vocal critics do not realize that many of the ideas that they are challenging stem from mistaken assumptions from the past not with the faith itself it is urgent that these issues be examined and the distortions resolved Diana Spencer is a retired Anglican priest although the views expressed in this book are her own It was written in the hope that all denominations of Christianity would think about and discuss the issues raised Born in England in 1935 she came to Canada at the age of twenty one is widowed and living in Victoria
