Love Marriage:

Gospel Love, Marriage and Divorce Randall Lamb, 2020-03-05 The centrality of God in all things is not a novel concept to Christianity at least not in theory For centuries it would appear that the Church has somehow allowed herself to remove the God centered gospel definition from marriage and has subsequently fashioned a culturally subjective definition of love marriage and divorce that has left God in many respects far from the center This book however will pay less attention to our own domestic legacies of love marriage and divorce It is more so about the church covenants conditions true fidelity perseverance God centered joy authenticity fraud legalism and apostasy It is a journey into the kingdom of God wherein the visible and invisible church along with love marriage and divorce all seem to collide with the gospel of glory and grace

Love, Marriage, Jealousy Sándor Forbát, 1938 Arranging Marriage Marian Aguiar, 2018-01-02 The first critical analysis of contemporary arranged marriage among South Asians in a global context Arranged marriage is an institution of global fascination an object of curiosity revulsion outrage and even envy Marian Aguiar provides the first sustained analysis of arranged marriage as a transnational cultural phenomenon revealing how its meaning has been continuously reinvented within the South Asian diaspora of Britain the United States and Canada Aguiar identifies and analyzes representations of arranged marriage in an interdisciplinary set of texts from literary fiction and Bollywood films to digital and print media to contemporary law and policy on forced marriage Aguiar interprets depictions of South Asian arranged marriage to show we are in a moment of conjugal globalization identifying how narratives about arranged marriage bear upon questions of consent agency state power and national belonging Aguiar argues that these discourses illuminate deep divisions in the processes of globalization constructed on a fault line between individualist and collectivist agency and in the process critiques neoliberal celebrations of culture as choice that attempt to bridge that separation Aguiar advocates situating arranged marriage discourses within their social and material contexts so as to see past reductive notions of culture and grasp the global forces mediating increasingly polarized visions of agency

Transitioning to Adulthood in Asia: School, Work, and Family Life Wei-Jun Jean Yeung, Cheryl Alipio, Frank F. Furstenberg, Jr., 2013-03-07 In the past decade or so scholars in the United States have identified the emergence of a new distinct stage of life as adolescence has become protracted and most young people of recent generations take longer to achieve economic and psychological autonomy than they did a half century ago This new life stage in between adolescence and adulthood when young people are in a semiautonomous state has come to be known as early adulthood Main characteristics of this new life stage include a later entry into the work force a longer period of time living in the natal home and a delayed age at marriage and childbearing These trends not only have profound implications for young adults well being and intergenerational relationships but also challenge social institutions such as family schools labor markets and many youth serving institutions

Keywords for Today The Keywords Project, Colin MacCabe, Holly Yanacek, 2018-09-03 Keywords for Today takes us deep into the history of the language in order to better understand our contemporary world From nature to cultural appropriation and from market to terror the most important words in political and cultural debate have complicated and complex histories

This book sketches these histories in ways that illuminate the political bent and values of our current society. Written by The Keywords Project, an independent group of scholars who have spent more than a decade on this work, Keywords for Today updates and extends Raymond Williams's classic work Keywords: A Vocabulary of Culture and Society. It updates some 40 of Williams's original entries and adds 86 new entries ranging from access to youth. The book is both a history of English documenting important semantic change in the language and a handbook of current political and ideological debate. Whether it is demonstrating the only recently acquired religious meaning of fundamentalism or the complicated linguistic history of queer, Keywords for Today will intrigue and enlighten.

Strangers in the Family Guo-Quan Seng, 2023-11-15. In Strangers in the Family, Guo Quan Seng provides a gendered history of settler Chinese community formation in Indonesia during the Dutch colonial period 1816-1942. At the heart of this story lies the creolization of patrilineal Confucian marital and familial norms to the colonial legal moral and sexual conditions of urban Java. Departing from male-centered narratives of Overseas Chinese communities, Strangers in the Family tells the history of community formation from the perspective of women who were subordinate to and alienated from full Chinese selfhood. From native concubines and mothers-creole Chinese daughters and wives and matriarchs to the first generation of colonial-educated feminists, Seng showcases women's moral agency as they negotiated, manipulated, and debated men in positions of authority over their rights in marriage formation and dissolution. In dialogue with critical studies of colonial Eurasian intimacies, this book explores Asian-centered inter-ethnic patterns of intimate encounters. It shows how contestations over women's place in marriage and in society were formative of a Chinese racial identity in colonial Indonesia.

Mainstream Culture Refocused Xueping Zhong, 2019-01-31. Serialized television drama dianshiju, perhaps the most popular and influential cultural form in China over the past three decades, offers a wide and penetrating look at the tensions and contradictions of the post-revolutionary and pro-market period. Zhong Xueping's timely new work draws attention to the multiple cultural and historical legacies that coexist and challenge each other within this dominant form of story-telling. Although scholars tend to focus their attention on elite cultural trends and avant-garde movements in literature and film, Zhong argues for recognizing the complexity of dianshiju's melodramatic mode and its various subgenres in effect refocusing mainstream Chinese culture. Mainstream Culture Refocused opens with an examination of television as a narrative motif in three contemporary Chinese art-house films. Zhong then turns her attention to dianshiju's most important subgenres. Emperor dramas highlight the link between popular culture's obsession with emperors and modern Chinese intellectuals' preoccupation with issues of history and tradition and how they relate to modernity. In her exploration of the anti-corruption subgenre, Zhong considers three representative dramas exploring their diverse plots and emphases. Youth dramas' rich array of representations reveal the numerous social, economic, cultural, and ideological issues surrounding the notion of youth and its changing meanings. The chapter on the family marriage subgenre analyzes the ways in which women's emotions are represented in relation to their desire for happiness. Song lyrics from music composed for television dramas are considered as popular poetics Their sentiments range between nostalgia and uncertainty mirroring the social contradictions of the reform era The Epilogue returns to the relationship between intellectuals and the production of mainstream cultural meaning in the context of China's post revolutionary social economic and cultural transformation Provocative and insightful Mainstream Culture Refocused will appeal to scholars and students in studies of modern China generally and of contemporary Chinese media and popular culture specifically Critical Globalization Studies Richard P. Appelbaum, William I. Robinson, 2005 First Published in 2005 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Risky Marriage Melissa Browning, 2013-10-29 Given that women and girls carry the heaviest burdens of the African HIV pandemic their lived experiences should be the starting point for any pedagogy of prevention In light of this claim Risky Marriage HIV and Intimate Relationships in Tanzania uses qualitative fieldwork with HIV positive women living in Mwanza Tanzania to ask why marriage is an HIV risk factor By beginning with women's experience as a hermeneutical lens this book seeks to establish a creative space where African women can imagine new alternatives to HIV prevention that would promote human flourishing and abundant life in African communities The aim of this book is to listen faithfully to the lived experiences of HIV positive women and ask how their experiences can help us re imagine Christian conceptions of marriage sexual ethics and health in an HIV positive world By drawing on the unwritten texts of women's lives this study proposes alternative pedagogies for faith based prevention methods and contributes to the wider interdisciplinary and theo ethical discourse on HIV prevention and women's health At the same time it makes local impact of equal importance as women in East African communities are invited to think creatively about ways to end the HIV pandemic For more information and comments from the author watch a trailer for the book here <http://vimeo.com/semafilms/riskymarriage> Social Status of Women in Developing Countries Man Singh Das, Vijay Kumar Gupta, 1995 The book focuses on the past traditional roles of women and also identifies direction of change rate of change and the causes of change in women's status It has also been pointed out that these recent developments in the status of women may become the future sociology of changing sex roles in the developing countries and may recast marriage and family in new and different molds The International Journal of Indian Psychology, Volume 1, Issue 4, No. 1 IJIP.In, 2014-07-25 The International Journal of Indian Psychology ISSN 2348 5396 is an academic journal that examines the intersection of psychology home sciences and education IJIP is published quarterly and is available in electronic versions Our expedited review process allows for a thorough analysis by expert peer reviewers within a time line that is much more favorable than many other academic publications Making the Right Choice Asha L. Abeyasekera, 2021-03-12 Making the Right Choice unravels the entangled relationship between marriage morality and the desire for modernity as it plays out in the context of middle class status concerns and aspirations for upward social mobility within the Sinhala Buddhist community in urban Sri Lanka By focusing on individual life histories spanning three generations the book illuminates how narratives about a gendered self and narratives about modernity are mutually constituted and intrinsically tied to notions of agency The book uncovers how becoming modern in urban Sri Lanka rather than causing inter generational conflict is a collective aspiration realized through the efforts of bringing up educated and independent women capable of making right choices The consequence of this collective investment is a feminist conundrum agency does not denote the right to choose but the duty to make the right choice hence agency is experienced not as a sense of freedom but rather as a burden of responsibility
