Marx And Engels Collected Works 1867 187:

The Noumenal Republic Rainer Forst, 2024-04-15 All human beings are born with equal dignity and possess equal rights This statement appears normatively just as irrefutable as it is empirically refuted every day But what are the grounds of this principle and how should we think about its realization Its philosophical truth can best be explained by going back to and beyond Kant's notion of a noumenal republic in which every person is an equal co author of the laws that bind all At the same time a critical analysis of society and politics must show the extent to which the reality of power and ideology makes a mockery of this constructivist conception of dignity To bridge the gap between unworldly idealism and practical hopelessness we need a critical theory after Kant Rainer Forst one of the world's most influential political philosophers works to develop just such a theory in this powerful and illuminating volume It contains no less than a new systematic account of concepts such as alienation progress and regression solidarity human rights justice power and non domination

Nineteenth-Century Philosophy of Religion Graham Oppy, N. N. Trakakis, 2014-09-19 The nineteenth century was a turbulent period in the history of the philosophical scrutiny of religion Major scholars such as Hegel Fichte Schelling Newman Caird and Royce sought to construct systematic responses to the Enlightenment critiques of religion carried out by Spinoza and Hume At the same time new critiques of religion were launched by philosophers such as Schopenhauer and Nietzsche and by scholars engaged in textual criticism such as Schleiermacher and Dilthey Over the course of the century the work of Marx Freud Darwin and Durkheim brought the revolutionary perspectives of political economy psychoanalysis evolutionary theory and anthropology to bear on both religion and its study These challenges played a major role in the shaping of twentieth century philosophical thought about religion Nineteenth Century Philosophy of Religion will be of interest to scholars and students of Philosophy and Religion and will serve as an authoritative guide for all who are interested in the debates that took place in this seminal period in the history of philosophical thinking about religion The Palgrave

Handbook of Critical Theory Michael J. Thompson, 2017-01-20 This handbook is the only major survey of critical theory from philosophical political sociological psychological and historical vantage points It emphasizes not only on the historical and philosophical roots of critical theory but also its current themes and trends as well as future applications and directions It addresses specific areas of interest that have forged the critical theory tradition such as critical social psychology aesthetics and the critique of culture communicative action and the critique of instrumental reason It is intended for those interested in exploring the influential paradigm of critical theory from multiple interdisciplinary perspectives and understanding its contribution to the humanities and the social sciences The Structure of World History Kojin

Karatani, 2014-03-28 In this major paradigm shifting work Kojin Karatani systematically re reads Marx's version of world history shifting the focus of critique from modes of production to modes of exchange Karatani seeks to understand both Capital Nation State the interlocking system that is the dominant form of modern global society and the possibilities for superseding it In The Structure of World History he traces different modes of exchange including the pooling of resources that characterizes nomadic tribes the gift exchange systems developed after the adoption of fixed settlement agriculture the exchange of obedience for protection that arises with the emergence of the state the commodity exchanges that characterize capitalism and finally a future mode of exchange based on the return of gift exchange albeit modified for the contemporary moment He argues that this final stage marking the overcoming of capital nation and state is best understood in light of Kant's writings on eternal peace The Structure of World History is in many ways the capstone of Karatani's brilliant career yet it also signals new directions in his thought Reasonableness in Liberal Political Philosophy Shaun Young, 2014-02-04

Previously published as a special issue of the Critical Review of Social and Political Philosophy this collection offers a thought provoking critique of the role of the concept of reasonableness in liberal political theory focusing on the proposed relationship between reasonableness and the establishment and preservation of a just and stable liberal polity The essays explore the explicit and implicit use of the idea of reasonableness presenting an analysis that incorporates normative and empirical observations and employs a number of different analytical approaches including liberalism feminism environmentalism Marxism and communitarianism This unique book provides in a single volume a critique that engages not only a vast array of issues but also a diversity of critical perspectives It not only rectifies a deficiency in the existing scholarship but also addresses the issues of socio political justice and stability offering new insightful critiques that respond to the increasingly complex circumstances and conflicts that confront life in contemporary pluralistic societies Reasonableness in Liberal Political Philosophy will be a valuable resource for those interested in liberal political theory and its potential usefulness in helping to secure a just and stable polity Victorian Bloomsbury Rosemary Ashton, 2012-11-13

While Bloomsbury is now associated with Virginia Woolf and her early 20th century circle of writers and artists the neighbourhood was originally the undisputed intellectual quarter of 19th century London This title presents a rich history of the great Bloomsbury pioneers the educational medical and social reformists who led crusades for all Politics of Debt and Europe's Relations with the 'South' Nygard Stefan Nygard, 2020-07-31 An annual collection of the best research on European and global themes the Annual of European and Global Studies publishes issues with a specific focus each addressing critical developments and controversies in the field Combines a discussion of the multi layered European and global North South divide with an effort to retrieve alternatives to the dominant divisive use of debt as staking out claims against another party Explores the consequences of the erasure of historical temporality in the recent period of e globalization and e individualization as well as new registers for political uses of the past under current conditions Draws on socio political moral philosophical and literary artistic analyses tracing the genealogy of debt through European history Focusing on Europe in a global context to offer critical historical and philosophical perspectives on debt and guilt Debt enables individuals and collectives to function and to expand their space of manoeuvre but it also creates hierarchies and possibilities for domination

By drawing on analyses in political philosophy political science sociology history social theory and media studies the essays in this collection discover new and forgotten ways of thinking about debt and North South relations They combine a discussion of the European and global North South divide with an effort to retrieve alternatives to the dominant divisive uses of debt in staking out claims against someone else and as a means of social control Collected Works Karl Marx, Friedrich Engels, 1985

Digital Democracy and the Digital Public Sphere Christian Fuchs, 2022-11-30 This sixth volume in Christian Fuchs Media Communication and Society series draws on radical Humanist theory to address questions around the digital public sphere and the challenges and opportunities for digital democracy today The book discusses topics such as digital democracy the digital public sphere digital alienation sustainability in digital democracy journalism and democracy public service media the public service Internet and democratic communications Fuchs argues for the creation of a public service Internet run by public serviceMedia that consists of platforms such as a public service YouTube and Club 2 0 a renewed digital democracy and digital public sphere version of the legendary debate programme formats Club 2 and After Dark Overall the book presents foundations and analyses of digital democracy that are interesting for both students and researchers in media studies cultural studies communication studies political science sociology Internet research information science as well as related disciplines The SAGE Handbook of Marxism Beverley Skeggs, Sara R. Farris, Alberto

Toscano, Svenja Bromberg, 2021-11-17 The past decade has witnessed a resurgence of interest in Marxism both within and without the academy Marxian frameworks concepts and categories continue to be narratively relevant to the features and events of contemporary capitalism Most crucially an attention to shifting cultural conditions has lead contemporary researchers to re confront some classical and essential Marxist concepts as well as elaborating new critical frameworks for the analysis of capitalism today The SAGE Handbook of Marxism showcases this cutting edge of today s Marxism It advances the debate with essays that rigorously map and renew the concepts that have provided the groundwork and main currents for Marxist theory and showcases interventions that set the agenda for Marxist research in the 21st century A rigorous and challenging collection of scholarship this book contains a stunning range of contributions from contemporary academics writers and theorists from around the world and across disciplines invaluable to scholars and graduate students alike Part 1 Reworking the critique of political economy Part 2 Forms of domination subjects of struggle Part 3 Political perspectives Part 4 Philosophical dimensions Part 5 Land and existence Part 6 Domains Part 7 Inquiries and debates Digital Capitalism

Christian Fuchs, 2021-11-29 This third volume in Christian Fuchs s Media Communication and Society book series illuminates what it means to live in an age of digital capitalism analysing its various aspects and engaging with a variety of critical thinkers whose theories and approaches enable a critical understanding of digital capitalism for media and communication Each chapter focuses on a particular dimension of digital capitalism or a critical theorist whose work helps us to illuminate how digital capitalism works Subjects covered include digital positivism administrative big data analytics the role and

relations of patriarchy slavery and racism in the context of digital labour digital alienation the role of social media in the capitalist crisis the relationship between imperialism and digital labour alternatives such as trade unions and class struggles in the digital age platform co operatives digital commons and public service Internet platforms It also considers specific examples including the digital labour of Foxconn and Pegatron workers software engineers at Google and online freelancers as well as considering the political economy of targeted advertising based Internet platforms such as Facebook Google YouTube and Instagram Digital Capitalism illuminates how a digital capitalist society's economy politics and culture work and interact making it essential reading for both students and researchers in media culture and communication studies as well as related disciplines

Contractual Relations David Campbell, 2022-09-15 Written by one of the leading contributors to the relational theory of contract Contractual Relations authoritatively explains the form of the existing law of contract by relating it to its economic legal and sociological foundations This volume demonstrates that economic exchange and legal contract rest on a moral relationship by which each party legitimately pursues its self interest through recognition of the self interest of the other This essential relationship of mutual recognition is in stark contrast to the pursuit of solipsistic self interest that is central to the classical law of contract Self interest of this sort is not morally defensible nor does it enhance economic welfare It is for these reasons that the classical law is legally incoherent The fundamental inadequacies of the classical law's treatment of agreement consideration and remedy have emerged as the doctrines of the positive law of contract have been progressively developed to give effect to the relationship of mutual recognition The welfarist criticism of the classical law has however failed to develop a workable concept of self interest and so is at odds with what must be retained from the classical law's facilitation of economic exchange and the market economy The relational law of contract restates self interest in a morally economically and legally attractive manner as the foundation of the social market economy of liberal socialism Contractual Relations is a fundamental critique of the classical law of contract and the welfarist response to the classical law and a major statement of the relational theory of contract This is an essential work for academics advanced students and others wishing to understand the fundamental law economics and sociology of contract and exchange

Governing the World Mark Mazower, 2013-08-27 A majestic narrative reckoning with the forces that have shaped the nature and destiny of the world's governing institutions The story of global cooperation is a tale of dreamers goading us to find common cause in remedying humanity's worst problems But international institutions are also tools for the powers that be to advance their own interests Mark Mazower's Governing the World tells the epic two hundred year story of that inevitable tension the unstable and often surprising alchemy between ideas and power From the rubble of the Napoleonic empire in the nineteenth century through the birth of the League of Nations and the United Nations in the twentieth century to the dominance of global finance at the turn of the millennium Mazower masterfully explores the current era of international life as Western dominance wanes and a new global balance of powers emerges

Critique, Social Media

and the Information Society Christian Fuchs, Marisol Sandoval, 2013-11-26 In times of global capitalist crisis we are witnessing a return of critique in the form of a surging interest in critical theories such as the critical political economy of Karl Marx and social rebellions as a reaction to the commodification and instrumentalization of everything On one hand there are overdrawn claims that social media Twitter Facebook YouTube etc have caused uproars in countries like Tunisia and Egypt On the other hand the question arises as to what actual role social media play in contemporary capitalism crisis rebellions the strengthening of the commons and the potential creation of participatory democracy The commodification of everything has resulted also in a commodification of the communication commons including Internet communication that is today largely commercial in character This book deals with the questions of what kind of society and what kind of Internet are desirable how capitalism power structures and social media are connected how political struggles are connected to social media what current developments of the Internet and society tell us about potential futures how an alternative Internet can look like and how a participatory commons based Internet and a co operative participatory sustainable information society can be achieved Dystopia and Dispossession in the Hollywood Science Fiction Film, 1979-2017 Harry Warwick, 2023-02-15 Offering a survey of Hollywood science fiction cinema from 1979 to 2017 from Ridley Scott's Alien to Denis Villeneuve's Blade Runner 2049 Dystopia and Dispossession in the Hollywood Science Fiction Film argues that the trajectory of Hollywood's dystopianism in that period is inextricable from the phenomenon of the new enclosures the new dispossessions and privatisations sweeping across the United States since the 1970s More precisely it contends that the critiques of such dispossessions elaborated before the turn of the century consider the satire of private policing in RoboCop 1987 the portrayal of commodified air in Total Recall 1990 and the nightmarish extrapolations of postmodern urbanism in Blade Runner 1982 and The Truman Show 1998 begin to disappear in films such as The Matrix 1999 The Island 2005 District 9 2009 Repo Men 2010 and The Purge 2013 the further commodification of land forest reservoir ideas even the human genome having diminished the contrast between capitalist and non capitalist spaces on which the earlier critiques depended Bringing close readings of blockbuster films into dialogue with historical and theoretical scholarship on dispossession Dystopia and Dispossession in the Hollywood Science Fiction Film proposes a new understanding of the politics of science fiction in particular and utopian thought in general Idols of Nations Roland Boer, Christina Petterson, 2014 Roland Boer and Christina Petterson here produce a critical survey showing that the rise of capitalist theory was shaped by the way different economic philosophers Smith Hobbes Grotius Malthus Lock read the Bible Invoking Jeremiah 14 22 and Adam Smith who took the title of his Wealth of Nations from Isaiah 61 6 66 12 they show that early theories of capitalism were shaped by particular assumptions that these theorists brought to their readings of the story of Eden in particular They examine those assumptions and evaluate what has changed in subsequent centuries Idols of Nations shows that the Bible was central to the theorization and economic thought of these key thinkers as it explores the distinct problems each sought to overcome Edinburgh Critical History of Nineteenth-Century Philosophy Alison Stone, 2011-06-06 This volume begins with the rise of German Idealism and Romanticism traces the developments of naturalism positivism and materialism and of later century attempts to combine idealist and naturalist modes of thought Written by a team of leading international scholars this crucial period of philosophy is examined from the novel perspective of themes and lines of thought which cut across authors disciplines and national boundaries This fresh approach will open up new ways for specialists and students to conceptualise the history of 19th century thought within philosophy politics religious studies and literature

Competition, Value and Distribution in Classical Economics Heinz D. Kurz, Neri Salvadori, 2022-03-09 Drawing in particular on the work of Sraffa Smith Ricardo and Marx the essays in this volume explore the characteristic features of the Classical economists approach to economic problems and the renewal of interest in that approach in modern times In recent years new material has been made available on both Sraffa and Marx which have made new insights and interpretations possible The release of Sraffa's hitherto unpublished papers and correspondence has led to reconsideration of doctrinal questions such as to what extent Sraffa built upon or deviated from the analyses of Adam Smith David Ricardo and other representatives of the classical British school and Karl Marx A major theme is also to what extent we can today equipped with Sraffa's insights and analytical tools re-interpret and develop ideas of classical authors which they could present only in primitive forms on technological progress exhaustible resources and other contemporary issues On Marx the publication of the MEGA2 edition of the works papers and correspondence of Marx and Engels also gives rise to a reconsideration of this relationship given Marx's disenchantment with some of his own work and return to ideas advocated by Ricardo especially as regards the long term tendency of the rate of profits Finally the classical notion of competition and monopoly deserve to be scrutinized carefully again and frequent misinterpretations in the literature refuted This volume is vital reading for scholars of classical economics Marx and Sraffa and the history of economic thought more broadly It also deals with issues in the areas of machinery and technical progress joint production and economic development and growth

Nationalism on the Internet Christian Fuchs, 2019-09-17 In this timely book critical theorist Christian Fuchs asks What is nationalism and what is the role of social media in the communication of nationalist ideology Advancing an applied Marxist theory of nationalism Fuchs explores nationalist discourse in the world of contemporary digital capitalism that is shaped by social media big data fake news targeted advertising bots algorithmic politics and a high speed online attention economy Through two case studies of the German and Austrian 2017 federal elections the book goes on to develop a critical theory of nationalism that is grounded in the works of Karl Marx Rosa Luxemburg and Eric J Hobsbawm Advanced students and scholars of Marxism nationalism media and politics won't want to miss Fuchs' latest in depth study of social media and politics that uncovers the causes structures and consequences of nationalism in the age of social media and fake news

Marxist Humanism and Communication Theory Christian Fuchs, 2021-03-16 This book outlines and contributes to the foundations of Marxist
