Kratcoski, Maximilian Edelbacher, 2025-09-26 The updated second edition of this textbook focuses on understanding and addressing the criminality and victimization experienced by the elderly population globally It offers insights into the prevalence of elderly crime and victimization through international comparisons and explores effective strategies to tackle this issue The book covers a wide range of topics including the types of crimes committed by the elderly the characteristics of older offenders and the responses of the criminal justice system such as diversion programs and community based treatments It also delves into specialized programs providing health and mental health services for older prisoners Furthermore the new edition expands on processing and rehabilitation approaches for elderly offenders along with services aimed at preventing protecting and caring for elderly victims It also includes comparative international research on crime prevention methods and legislative measures making it a valuable resource for students in criminology criminal justice sociology and gerontology

Environmental Psychology Tony Cassidy, 2013-10-31 This text contains an up to date survey of theory research and practice in environmental psychology drawing on international literature It adopts the perspective that physical and social factors are inextricably linked in their influence on human behaviour and experience and that the world in which we live is changed and often damaged by human action Throughout the text the issues which are important in contemporary psychology such as levels of explanation methodological diversity and the relationship between psychology and other disciplines are brought to the fore The text covers established areas of environmental concern and also brings together research on rarely covered topics such as the effects of smell colour and light and the way in which physical environments influence social identity Encyclopedia of American Prisons Marilyn D. McShane, Frank P. Williams, 2004-08-02 Original essays by corrections experts The United States has the lightest incarceration rate in the world and crime is one of the major driving forces of political discourse throughout the country Information about penal institutions imprisonment and prisoners is important to everyone from judges on the bench to citizens on the street Now for the first time a comprehensive reference work presents a full overview of incarceration in America The Encyclopedia features original essays by leading U S corrections experts who offer historical perspectives insights into how and why the present prison system developed where we are today and where we are likely to be in the future Every important aspect of American prisons is covered from the handling of convicts with AIDS to juvenile delinquents behind bars from boot camps to life without parole from racial conflict to sexual exploitation Features more than 160 signed articles More than 160 signed articles by recognized authorities are presented alphabetically by topic The articles ranging from 1 000 to 6 000 words provide an overview of each subject and include a selective bibliography The coverage introduces readers to individuals noted for their work with prisons James Bennett Dorothea Dix Howard Gill facilities renowned for setting precedents Walnut Street Jail Alcatraz Marion current policy procedure and program oriented descriptions contraband boot camps classification technology concise discussions of current prison issues prisoners rights gangs visits by the children of incarcerated women Frequently the articles chart the historical evolution of a subject area explore current issues and predict future trends Discusses vital issues The Encyclopedia also surveys and analyzes policies and procedures used in the past such as chain gangs building tenders and Sacred Straight programs as well as legislation that has shaped prison policy such as the Ashurst Summers Act and the Civil Rights of Institutionalized Persons Act Offering a wealth of useful facts this important new reference work contains a comprehensive name and subject index internal cross references and a chronology of important events in prison history The coverage encompasses historical and contemporary aspects of correctional institutions in the United States discusses vital issues and reports on the latest reaching findings Photos of notable people and facilities accompany the text This unique work fills a substantial reference need Government officials librarians teachers students and professionals working within the corrections field will find the coverage invaluable Ageing, Crime and Society Azrini Wahidin, Maureen Cain, 2013-05-13 The relationship between ageing and crime has been a much neglected issue the focus rather being on youth This book aims to redress this imbalance bringing together a group of leading authorities to address key issues on the subject of crime and ageing considering older people as both victims and perpetrators of crime and looking too at conditions faced by older prisoners The book draws upon both criminology and gerontology as well as sociology and social policy to help understand the complex relationship between ageing and the criminal justice system and argues that the needs of elders must be far more firmly on the penal policy agenda than is the case currently Ageing Crime and Society will be concerned with unsilencing a group who because of their age and status have been muted by the criminal justice system Trends in History ,1990 White-Collar Crime and Criminal Careers

David Weisburd,Elin Waring,2001-02-12 Weisburd and Waring offer here the first detailed examination of the white collar criminal career Religion, the Community, and the Rehabilitation of Criminal Offenders Thomas P

O'Connor,2013-01-11 Explore the relationship between faith based programs religion and offender rehabilitation This book reports on current research from several disciplines to help the reader understand the nature and impact of the relationship between faith based programs religion and offender rehabilitation Religion the Community and the Rehabilitation of Criminal Offenders is a unique resource there has been very little research published on this important topic President Bush s faith based initiative recognized that religion plays a role in the justice system and corrections that is overlooked but essential it increases the role of community and caring in the system in a unique and important way This pathbreaking book points the way toward a system of faith based programs that are not only effective but also economical as these programs are often staffed by volunteers Religion the Community and the Rehabilitation of Criminal Offenders addresses important questions regarding the importance and effectiveness of faith based rehabilitation programs including What is the relationship between prison religion and offender rehabilitation What motivates inmates to become involved with religious programs and activities What is the prison chaplain s role in rehabilitation Are certain religious denominations more effective than others in preventing crime delinquency and recidivism How does religious activity help inmates adjust to the prison environment What do inmates have to say about the religious programs they encounter within the system How did Islam develop within American correctional institutions and what changes has the movement gone through in recent years Why do female African American inmates tend to resist conversion to Islam while their male counterparts embrace the Muslim faith in increasing numbers How can sacred texts and social theory be utilized as teaching tools and intervention strategies in the transformation processes of men incarcerated for violent crimes A fascinating study from the Sing Sing prison and more
