On Target A Novel:

Selected Papers from CUBANNI 2017—“The Fourth International Workshop of Neuroimmunology” Maria De los Angeles Robinson Agramonte,Carlos Alberto Gonçalves,Dario Siniscalco,2019-02-04 This book is a printed edition of the Special Issue Selected Papers from CUBANNI 2017 The Fourth International Workshop of Neuroimmunology that was published in Behavioral Sciences Recent Advances on the Modular Organization of the Cortex Manuel F. Casanova,Joan Opris,2015-06-22 The way you perceive the world plan make decisions and communicate your thoughts and feelings depends on the function and hierarchical arrangement of cortical modules The ability to both provide adaptive responses to our ever changing environment and to pursue a useful role in society is the most important problem faced by present day neuroscientists In essence the workings of cortical modules define the nature of our soul making each of us who we are This book provides a breath taking view of different perspectives by world renowned authorities as to the workings of these cortical modules both in the normal state and in mental disorders Making Sense Sophie Müzel,2022-12-06 Breast cancer is one of the most commonly diagnosed cancers and a leading cause of death for women worldwide With advances in molecular engineering in the 1980s hopes began to rise that a non toxic and non invasive treatment for breast cancer could be developed These hopes were stoked by the researchers biotech companies and analysts who worked to make sense of the uncertainties during product development In Making Sense Sophie M tzel traces this emergence of innovative breast cancer therapeutics from the late 1980s up to 2010 through the lens of the narratives of the involved actors Combining theories of economic and cultural sociology M tzel shows how stories are integral for the emergence of new markets stories of the future create a market of expectations prior to any existing products stories also help to create categories on what such a new market and its products are about Making Sense uses thousands of press statements media reports scientific reports and financial and industry analyses and combines qualitative and large scale computational text analyses to illustrate these mechanisms presenting a fresh view of how life prolonging innovations can be turned into market products Handbook of Arabic Literacy Elinor Saiegh-Haddad,R. Malatesha Joshi,2014-04-03 This book provides a synopsis of recently published empirical research into the acquisition of reading and writing in Arabic Its particular focus is on the interplay between the linguistic and orthographic structure of Arabic and the development of reading and writing spelling In addition the book addresses the socio cultural political and educational milieu in which Arabic literacy is embedded It enables readers to appreciate both the implications of empirical research to literacy enhancement and the challenges and limitations to the applicability of such insights in the Arabic language and literacy context The book will advance the understanding of the full context of literacy acquisition in Arabic with the very many factors religious historical linguistic etc that interact and will hence contribute to weakening the anglocentricity that dominates discussions of this topic Waverley Novels Walter Scott,1886 Computer Vision - ECCV 2020 Andrea Vedaldi,Horst Bischof,Thomas Brox,Jan-Michael Frahm,2020-11-18 The 30 volume set comprising the LNCS books 12346 until 12375 constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 16th European Conference on Computer Vision ECCV 2020 which was planned to be held in Glasgow UK during August 23-28 2020. The conference was held virtually due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The 1360 revised papers presented in these proceedings were carefully reviewed and selected from a total of 5025 submissions. The papers deal with topics such as computer vision, machine learning, deep neural networks, reinforcement learning, object recognition, image classification, image processing, object detection, semantic segmentation, human pose estimation, 3d reconstruction, stereo vision, computational photography, neural networks, image coding, image reconstruction, object recognition, motion estimation.

Drugs from Nature: Targets, Assay Systems and Leads

Madhathilkovilakathu Haridas, Sabu Abdulhameed, Dileep Francis, Swaroop S Kumar, 2024-03-18 This book provides an overview of the drug discovery process from natural sources such as plants and microbes. While technological advances have streamlined the drug discovery process enhancing the throughput and success rates the structural features of natural products remain the primary reference for small molecule drug discovery. Focusing on the drug targets blocked or altered by natural nature inspired molecules it covers how potential drug leads are screened and identified using appropriate assay systems and the current status of drugs identified using such approaches. State-of-the-art approaches in target identification, assay development and lead identification have also been discussed in detail. Other topics included are targets and leads in inflammation, cancer, reproductive medicine, cardiovascular and neuromuscular ailments and infectious diseases as well as the challenges in translating drug leads into clinically viable drugs. This volume serves as a handbook for researchers in phytochemistry and drug discovery and as a reference for researchers and students of applied biology.

Character

Focalization in Children's Novels Don K. Philpot, 2017-01-26 This book offers a comprehensive analysis of character focalization in ten contemporary realistic children's novels. The author argues that character focalization defined as the location of fictional world perception in the mind of a character is a prominent textual structure in these novels. He demonstrates how significant meanings are conveyed in a variety of forms related to characters' personal and interpersonal experiences. Through close analysis of each text moreover he exposes distinctive perceptual, psychological and social psychological patterns in the opening chapters of each novel which are thereafter developed by the principles of continuation, augmentation and reconfiguration. This book will appeal to scholars, teachers and students in the fields of narrative studies, stylistics, children's literature, scholarship, linguistics and education.

Translation as a Set of Frames Ali

Almanna, Chonglong Gu, 2021-07-14 Envisioned as a much-needed celebration of the massive strides made in translation and interpreting studies this eclectic volume takes stock of the latest cutting-edge research that exemplifies how translation and interpreting might interact with such topics as power, ideological discourse representation, hegemony and identity. In this exciting volume we have articles from different language combinations e.g. Arabic-English, Hungarian and Chinese and from a wide range of sociopolitical cultural and institutional contexts and geographical locales China Iran Malaysia Russia and Nigeria Those chapters also draw on a diverse range of theoretical perspectives and methodological approaches e g critical discourse analysis Bourdieu's sociological theories corpus linguistics narrative theory and structuration theory focusing on translation and interpreting relating to various settings and specialised genres traditional media digital media subtitling manga etc As such this volume serves as a dynamic forum for intercultural and interlingual communication and an exciting arena for interdisciplinary dialogues thus enabling us to look beyond the traditionally more static mechanical and linguistics oriented views of translation and interpreting This book appeals to scholars and students interested in translation and interpreting studies and issues of power ideology identity in interlingual and intercultural communication
