Journeys to the Bandstand Chris Wong, 2024-01-19 What I didn't know when starting to research and write this book I would become full on hopelessly obsessed with finding out every arcane detail about the artists gathered in these pages whether they are living or long gone Those myriad facts are puzzle pieces that even though some pieces are missing form portraits of extraordinary people with a hunger for jazz and other creative artforms a determination to overcome struggles and a deep joy for creating profound expression Chris Wong from the Preface and Introduction to Journeys to the Bandstand Journeys to the Bandstand Thirty Jazz Lives in Vancouver chronicles the creative lives and musical journeys of thirty extraordinary artists who have helped shape the jazz scene in the west coast Canadian city and further afield Each chapter focuses on one remarkable artist or a small group of impactful musicians mostly based in Vancouver Al Neil Dave Quarin Brad Turner Cory Weeds Jodi Proznick Natasha D Agostino and others The book also highlights some American musicians Ornette Coleman Charles Mingus Dr Lonnie Smith George Coleman and others who have made an indelible impression on the city's jazz community Weaving a first person perspective through the author's experiences hearing the musicians perform and documenting oral history from in depth interviews with extensive written and audio visual history gathered from articles letters recordings films and more Journeys to the Bandstand is a compelling collection of long form portraits The unique life stories of each subject include challenges addictions anxiety and self doubt racism abuse and other hard realities and triumphs when they succeeded in making expressive and memorable music Each individual path forms a complex and fascinating passage the journey to the bandstand

On and Off the Bandstand Arthur Bradley, 2005 On and Off the Bandstand is a study of American history invention and culture that focuses on the evolution of popular music Efforts to keep the best of the bandstand alive in the twentieth century as well as today are enthusiastically celebrated Before reliable lighting and central heating entertainment mainly occurred outdoors Without microphones a band performance was the centerpiece of choice for numerous celebrations Outstanding conductors and musicians were major celebrities in their day The basic instrumentation and musical language remained the same for over a hundred years even as the venues moved indoors Without breaks in continuity each phase moved smoothly to the next and newer artists respected their forbearers and cherished their accomplishments Marching bands concert bands ragtime bands and swing bands are still here today but they have retired to the background The band era was accompanied by some remarkable innovations such as sound recording and radio These technologies played a crucial role and receive considerable attention as the story unfolds In addition to its historical contributions On and Off the Bandstand pays tribute to a handful of dedicated individuals who have become advocates for the music of their parents and grandparents time

A House on Fire John A. Jackson, 2004-11-15 If You Don't Know Me By Now The Love I Lost The Soul Train Theme Then Came You Ain't No Stoppin' Us Now the distinctive music that became known as Philly Soul dominated the pop music charts in the 1970s In A House on Fire John A Jackson takes us inside the musical empire created by Kenny Gamble Leon Huff and Thom Bell the three men who put Philadelphia Soul on the map Here is the eye opening story of three of the most influential and successful music producers of the seventies Jackson shows how Gamble Huff and Bell developed a black recording empire second only to Berry Gordy's Motown pumping out a string of chart toppers from Harold Melvin the Blue Notes the Spinners the O'Jays the Stylistics and many others The author underscores the endemic racism of the music business at that time revealing how the three men were blocked from the major record companies and outlets in Philadelphia because they were black forcing them to create their own label sign their own artists and create their own sound The sound they created a sophisticated and glossy form of rhythm and blues characterized by crisp melodious harmonies backed by lush string laden orchestration and a hard driving rhythm section was a glorious success producing at least twenty eight gold or platinum albums and thirty one gold or platinum singles But after their meteoric rise and years of unstoppable success their production company finally failed brought down by payola competition a tough economy and changing popular tastes Funky groovy soulful Philly Soul was the classic seventies sound A House on Fire tells the inside story of this remarkable musical phenomenon
