Ecocritical Approaches to Literature in French Douglas L. Boudreau,Marnie M. Sullivan,2015-12-24 Ecocriticism is a critical approach that focuses on the representation in literature of the non human elements of the natural world a method of inquiry that has been largely limited to literature written in English The aim of Ecocritical Approaches to Literature in French is twofold to introduce ecocriticism to scholars of French language literature and to open ecocriticism to the vision and voices of French literature The chapters look at work not only from France but also from North America the Caribbean and Africa The discussions include fiction poetry film and pedagogy The goal of the collection is to demonstrate not only the applicability of ecocritical inquiry to literature in French but to demonstrate the possibilities of ecocritical theory on the study of French literature and also for ecocriticism itself This collection will be a useful resource both for scholars of French language literature and also for ecocritics who may have had only limited contact with literatures in languages other than English

A History of Modern French Literature Christopher Prendergast,2025-06-17 An accessible and authoritative new history of French literature written by a highly distinguished transatlantic group of scholars This book provides an engaging accessible and exciting new history of French literature from the Renaissance through the twentieth century from Rabelais and Marguerite de Navarre to Samuel Beckett and Assia Djebar Christopher Prendergast one of today s most distinguished authorities on French literature has gathered a transatlantic group of more than thirty leading scholars who provide original essays on carefully selected writers works and topics that open a window onto key chapters of French literary history The book begins in the sixteenth century with the formation of a modern national literary consciousness and ends in the late twentieth century with the idea of the national coming increasingly into question as inherited meanings of French and Frenchness expand beyond the geographical limits of mainland France Provides an exciting new account of French literary history from the Renaissance to the end of the twentieth century Features more than thirty original essays on key writers works and topics written by a distinguished transatlantic group of scholars Includes an introduction and index The contributors include Etienne Beaulieu Christopher Braider Peter Brooks Mary Ann Caws David Coward Nicholas Cronk Edwin M Duval Mary Gallagher Raymond

Cheallaigh, 2019-05-15 Interdisciplinarity this book covers a range of media and genres from cinema to journalism to novels and a range of disciplines from feminism film studies Francophone studies history etc which allows readers to access a particularly extensive range of disciplines within one volume and to make informed comparisons Transhistoricism the chronological range of essays included in this journal from the medieval period through the nineteenth and twentieth centuries to the present demonstrates that women have always managed to access their own territory within the masculinised urban environment and this encourages readers to rethink previous gendered assumptions about women and the city Feminism the essays here form part of the wider movement in academic research to redress the gendered imbalance of perspectives on a range of subjects here allowing us to look anew at French and Francophone culture and history as part of this feminist rewriting The Routledge Handbook of Literary Translingualism Steven G. Kellman, Natasha

Lvovich, 2021-09-30 Though it might seem as modern as Samuel Beckett Joseph Conrad and Vladimir Nabokov translingual writing texts by authors using more than one language or a language other than their primary one has an ancient pedigree The Routledge Handbook of Literary Translingualism aims to provide a comprehensive overview of translingual literature in a wide variety of languages throughout the world from ancient to modern times The volume includes sections on translingual genres with chapters on memoir poetry fiction drama and cinema ancient medieval and modern translingualism global perspectives chapters overseeing European African and Asian languages Combining chapters from lead specialists in the field this volume will be of interest to scholars graduate students and advanced undergraduates interested in investigating the vibrant area of translingual literature Attracting scholars from a variety of disciplines this interdisciplinary and pioneering Handbook will advance current scholarship of the permutations of languages among authors throughout time

Engagement in 21st Century French and Francophone Culture Helena Chadderton, Angela Kimyongür, 2017-11-08 In the face of the contested legacy of engagement in the Francophone context this interdisciplinary collection demonstrates that French and Francophone writers artists intellectuals and film makers are using their work to confront unforeseen and unprecedented challenges campaigns and causes in a politically uncertain post 9 11 world Composed of eleven essays and a contextualising introduction this volume is interdisciplinary in its treatment of engagement in a variety of forms as it reassesses the relationship between different types of cultural production and society as it is played out in the twenty first century With a focus on both the development of different cultural forms Part 1 and on the particular crises that have attracted the attention of cultural practitioners Part 2 this volume maps and analyses some of the ways in which cultural texts of all kinds are being used to respond to engage with and challenge crises in the contemporary Francophone world

Translation in Systems Theo Hermans, 2019-06-14 A critically acclaimed foundational text Translation in Systems offers a comprehensive guide to the descriptive and systemic approaches which have shaped translation studies Theo Hermans considers translation norms equivalence polysystems and social systems covering a wide range of theorists in his discussion of the principles of translation studies Reissued with a new foreword by Kathryn Batchelor which updates the text for a new generation of readers Translation in Systems endures partly on account of Hermans's vivid and articulate writing style The book covers the fundamental problems of translation norms equivalence polysystems and social systems encompassing not only the work of Lev Holmes Even Zohar Toury Lefevere Lambert Bassnett Duhust and others but also giving special attention to contributions derived from Pierre Bourdieu and Niklas Luhmann Hermans explains how contemporary descriptive approaches came about what the basic ideas were how those ideas have evolved over time and offers a critique of these approaches With practical questions of how to investigate translation including problems of definition description and assessment of readerships this is essential reading for graduate students and researchers in translation studies and related areas

Theophile Gautier, Orator to the Artists James Kearns, 2017-12-02 Theophile Gautier a envoyé avec un feuilleton plus de trois mille personnes dans l'atelier de M Ingres wrote Champfleury in 1848 For artists critics and readers alike Gautier was the essential figure in French art journalism in the mid nineteenth century During the short lived but pivotal period of the Second Republic when the new administration was committed to reforming all the institutions of the fine arts Gautier deployed the full resources of his brilliant flexible and authoritative writing to support and direct these developments in ways compatible with his commitment to an idealist aesthetic itself under growing pressure from alternative trends in an increasingly competitive art market This first study of all Gautier's art journalism written during the Second Republic provides a long overdue reassessment of Gautier's importance in French nineteenth century visual culture

French Literature, Including Manuscripts, Illustrated Books and Armorial Bindings Maggs Bros,1922 Introduction to Nineteenth-Century French Literature Tim Farrant,2013-11-20 Everyone knows something of nineteenth century France or do they Les Miserables The Lady of the Camelias and The Three Musketeers Balzac and Jules Verne live in the popular consciousness as enduring human documents and cultural icons Yet the French nineteenth century was even more dynamic than the stereotype suggests This exciting new introduction takes the literature of the period both as a window on past and present mindsets and as an object of fascination in its own right Beginning with history the century s biggest problem and potential it looks at narrative responses to historical political and social experience before devoting central chapters to poetry drama and novels all genres the century radically reinvented It then explores numerous modernities ways nineteenth century writing and mentalities look forward to our own before turning to marginalities subjects and voices the canon traditionally forgot No genre was left unchanged by the nineteenth century This book will help to discover them anew Mothers on the Margin? E. Anne Clements,2014-05-01

The Gospel of Matthew opens with a patrilineal genealogy of Jesus that intriguingly includes five women Tamar Rahab Ruth she of Uriah and Mary In a gospel that has a strongly Jewish and male orientated outlook why are women incorporated In particular why include these four Old Testament women alongside Mary Rejecting traditional as well as feminist views Anne Clements undertakes a close literary reading of the narratives to discern how each woman is characterized and presented All are significant scriptural figures on the margins of Israelite society From this intertextual world established by Matthew Clements explores why Matthew may have named these women in the opening genealogy and what implications their inclusion may have for the ongoing gospel narrative Mothers on the Margin argues that Matthew s Gospel contains a counter narrative focused on women The presence of the five women in the genealogy indicates that the birth of the Messiah will bring about a crisis in Israel s identity in terms of ethnicity marginality and gender The women signal that Matthew s Gospel is concerned with the construal of a new identity for the people of God

A New History of French Literature Denis Hollier,1998-08-19 This splendid introduction to French literature from 842 A D to the present decade is the most imaginative single volume guide to the French literary tradition available in English Central at the Margin Renata Ruth Mautner Wasserman,2007 Discusses Julia Lopes de Almeida Rachel de Queiroz Lygia Fagundes Telles Clarice Lispector and Carolina Maria de Jesus A Woman Who Defends All the Persons of Her Sex Gabrielle Suchon,2010-05-15 During the oppressive reign of Louis XIV Gabrielle Suchon 1632 1703 was the most forceful female voice in France advocating women s freedom and self determination access to knowledge and assertion of authority This volume collects Suchon s writing from two works Treatise on Ethics and Politics 1693 and On the Celibate Life Freely Chosen or Life without Commitments 1700 and demonstrates her to be an original philosophical and moral thinker and writer Suchon argues that both women and men have inherently similar intellectual corporeal and spiritual capacities which entitle them equally to essentially human prerogatives and she displays her breadth of knowledge as she harnesses evidence from biblical classical patristic and contemporary secular sources to bolster her claim Forgotten over the centuries these writings have been gaining increasing attention from feminist historians students of philosophy and scholars of seventeenth century French literature and culture This translation from Domna C Stanton and Rebecca M Wilkin marks the first time these works will appear in English
