On the Plane, on the Train, and Even on the Bus Archie Preston, 2000      Sample Essays and Study Guide for TOEFL iBT Independent Writing ,      Mysteries of English Grammar Andreea S. Calude, Laurie Bauer, 2021-09-30 Despite a history of hundreds of years of research analysing aspects of English grammar there are still open problems which continue to baffle language researchers today Such grammar mysteries arise for a number of reasons because the language is changing because different speakers of the language adhere to distinct norms and thus introduce and maintain variation in the system because there are differences between the grammar of spoken and written English This book illuminates some of the complexities of the subject the areas where new discoveries await and why it matters Through a series of accessible and engaging case studies on various aspects of grammar from multiple negation to possession the authors present grammar as an intellectual challenge This book brings out into the open questions about language usage to which we still do not have good answers in a bid to make variation overt and to revel in the mystery of the English language Both aimed at the interested general reader and the beginning student of English language and linguistics this is a fresh take on grammar

this book there are many poetic devices which have been used for comparing human life with nature's life as it depicts that we get mature just like nature. It also talks about how we can get guidance of our goal if there is no person to guide us and by realizing and improving we can make our dream come true. We feel worthless and upset because we get so confused and by this we stuck in seeing others doing better than us that we lost our own concept of achieving a goal as we get immersed in this worldly life and want to get everything even though we are not conducive of that things in many ways we focus more on things that everybody wants but not which has already been made for us but the only thing that we can do is to discover our talent but discovering talent won't be easy because it's hard as finding the pearl in a shell and then have to engrave it on a marble which is our soul. Failure is not a person who fails but a person who makes decisions and never finishes it. Being thankful to God whenever there is endowment and not to be avaricious as there is difference between being greedy and being passionate because to be greedy does not mean to be passionate and to be passionate does not mean to be greedy. Sometimes there would be weal and woes but to be satisfied we have to realize and get absorbed to improve in order to discover our own selves in decent yet different ways by being real hard worker and loyal in accomplishing our dream.
